MERCHANTS ASS'N WILL TAKE BALLOT

Members Vote In Meeting To Send Out Post Card

The Merchants' Association will take a postcard vote to ascertain the sentiments of its members regarding the proposed suspension of the coastwise shipping law as far as passenger traffice between Hawaii and the mainland is concerned.

The course was decided upon at a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the association in the McCandless building. But two of the members present voted "no" on the vote proposition. One of them was T. H. Petrie and the other was John Emmeluth. Petrie is opposed to any suspension at all; Emmeluth wants the law suspended entirely, as far as Hawaii is concerned, so as to include freight as well as passengers.

There was but little discussion in regard to the matter. W. H. McInerny offered a motion calling for the sending out of post cards to members, thus giving them an opportunity to express themselves in regard to the proposed coastwise shipping law suspension.

R. J. Buchly wanted to know whether the cards would be gotten in a regularly printed form. He was informed that such would be the case.

Emmeluth insisted that freight should be included in the suspension. He talked for several minutes on the subject, calling attention to the growing fruit industry and demanding increased shipping facilities.

Buchly, on behalf of Peacock & Co., objected to including freight, saying that his firm did a lot of importing and had had no reason to find fault with freight service.

"You import, I am talking about exports," retorted Emmeluth.

Lishman insisted that the matter be taken up gradually. Said he:

"Let us be satisfied with getting the first edge of the wedge in. If we try for too much we may lose all. I look upon this passenger traffic suspension as the entering wedge and I believe that we should not demand too much at this time."

"I am rather in sympathy with what Mr. Emmeluth has said," chimed in W. H. McInerny, "but I believe that our trouble has been finding a market for our goods rather than finding ships in which to send them to the mainland in. We now have five freight steamers to each one in the passenger service. There has been little trouble with regard to freight."

No further discussion being forthcoming, President F. L. Waldron called for a vote. All but Emmeluth and Petrie voted "yes."

When the meeting was called to order, there were but thirteen in the room. Others drifted in later, however. Those present when the vote was taken were: James Steiner, H. von Hamm, W. T. Lucas, J. M. Riggs, W. H. McInerny, J. H. Hertsche, H. H. Williams, C. S. Crane, E. Berndt, R. J. Buchly, Wm. Lishman, W. F. Dillingham, J. L. Cockburn, M. A. Gonsalves, A. E. Wall, Fred L. Waldron, T. H. Petrie and John Emmeluth.
