PINEAPPLES

the difficulty the canners ran up against in the interpretation of the present law by the courts whereby the foreign canner is able to bring his sugared product into the American market under the lowest rate of duty allowed on importations of pines packed in their own juice.

The tariff law provides a duty of 25 per cent. ad valorem on pines packed in their own juice and 35 per cent. ad valorem on those preserved in sugar.

The paragraph in the proposed law reads as follows, the portion in parenthesis being the modification which gives the home canner the protection he seeks:

"Pineapples preserved in their own juice (not having sugar, spirits, or molasses added thereto), 25 per cent. ad valorem."

Naturally enough, there is some opposition to this change in the law but the American growers and canners are keeping on the look-out in

THIRD OF SESSION NOW ONLY REMAINS

Legislature Is Getting Busy On Final
Lap

The session of the Legislature is two-thirds over, this being the for-tenth day. It is possible, however, that the full sixty days allowed by the Organic Act will not be consumed. Most of the heavy work of the session, so far as the House is concerned, is over, and Speaker Holstein expresses the belief that, if the Senate will keep up with the House, the work of the session can be completed by the end of the fifty-fifth day.

Up to this morning, 192 bills had been introduced in the House. Of these, 36 have passed both Houses and have been signed by the Governor. Five others have been vetoed, all the vetoes being sustained. Four House bills are still in the Governor's hands. Forty-six bills have been tabled; 12 House bills have been indefinitely postponed; four were on the order of the day this morning for third reading. Nine House bills were in the hands of the Printing Committee; the Judiciary Committee had nine, Health and Police two, Finance 12, Accounts one, Educational two, Promotion one, Miscellaneous three, and special committees three.

Of the Federal appropriation the House has expended $8403.17 and of the Territorial appropriation $10-070.76.

Plunging into icy water, Mylon Roche, a 13-year-old boy, saved 6-year-old Clara Buschler from drowning in a lake near the soldiers' home at Washington, D. C.

Washington and hope to be able to carry their position through the Senate. The bill will undoubtedly pass the House unamended.

Plenty Pilikia In Sight

The heads of departments are in a terrible stew. They need all sorts of supplies for their respective departments—and they don't know whether it is legal for them to buy even a postage stamp.

The pilikia is caused by the bill recently passed by the Legislature and signed Saturday by the Governor, relating to the expenditures of public moneys. Section 8 of this Act provides that all supplies shall be bought for the various departments by a general purchasing agent, instead of by the department heads as heretofore.

But as yet there is no purchasing agent. When asked who this official is to be, Governor Frazier replied this morning that the man's name may be indicated by a (?) question mark. Unless the Act is amended so as to make it effective July 1 instead of immediately upon publication, the Governor says he doesn't see what the poor heads of departments are to do.

HEAVY SENTENCE IS PASSED ON ISOL
