BIG BUNCH GREETS AUDITOR BICKNELL

When Auditor Bicknell arrived at his office Saturday he found the hall choked with workmen, anxious to get their pay warrants, and it took him several minutes to fight his way to his door. But the warrants were all ready, and an hour after the first one was receipted for the long line had melted away and the Auditor gave a sigh of relief. There were occasional stragglers during the day, but the mass of the paying was done in record time.

DAVIES MEMORIAL HALL DEDICATED

Impressive Services Are Held At Saint Andrews

In the presence of a large and representative gathering, the dedication service of the T. H. Davies Memorial Hall of St. Andrews' Cathedral was held yesterday afternoon by Bishop Resterick. The new building, ewa of the church proper, was open for inspection after the service.

When the time for dedication service arrived Bishop Resterick, preceded by the church choir, entered each room of the building and recited a short prayer of dedication. This ceremony completed, George Davies, son of the late Theo. H. Davies, unveiled the memorial tablet, bearing a bronze relief of Mr. Davies.

After the unveiling of the tablet, Bishop Resterick pronounced the buildiung dedicated "to the glory of God and in memory of Theophilus Harris Davies."

Before unveiling the tablet, George Davies addressed the congregation. He said that eleven years ago last Friday there was taken to his rest him in whose memory the edifice had been erected, and that about two years ago the foundation stone of the building was laid by Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani.

The speaker, continuing, said that after his father's death his family decided to erect some monument to his memory. It was decided that the monument should be in the form of a much-needed parish house. He then commented upon those who have taken part in the construction of the building. He spoke of his brother, Clive, E. A. P. Newcomb, the architect, and W. L. Emory, who superintended the construction of the building.

Bishop Resterick, in accepting the building, said that he would like to see placed in the cathedral tablets to Robert C. Wyllie, who did so much for Hawaii; to Henry T. Lee, General Armstrong, Chas. R. Bishop, Paul Isenberg and other prominent men.

Once upon a time a Foolish Mug dropped in on his Friend, the Wise Guy, who lived on the corner of Easy Street and Prosperity Avenue, City. His Room was a Symposium of Art. It was Home, Sweet Home without a Petticoat. He got $15 per.

"I opine," quoth the Foolish Mug, "that you are dwelling on the Sunny Side of Easy Street for fair; your room, your books, yours amusements are all to the good, and yet I know you rake off less Coin than I do; how do you do it?"

The Wise Guy answered, "It's All in the Spending. You use all the Cartridges in your Ammunition Tank getting the Dough, I use Half of Mine to Spread it out Thin. You buy Sox at $2 the Box of Six; I Hand Out the Same. The Kind you Get, keep a Darning Woman busy Rounding Up the Holes as fast as you make 'em.
