HOTEL MANAGER AT EXPOSITION

(Continued from Page 1) bump up against people who had at one time or another lived in or visited Honolulu. I also met a big lot of people who announced their intention of making the Honolulu trip in the near future, and in that way there is no doubt that our exhibit at the exposition will do a great deal to advertise Hawaii.

"We had a fine trip down on the Alameda, and the passengers were a most congenial lot. The weather was all that could be desired, and the fast run was most enjoyable. I had a fine holiday, but after all there is no place like Hawaii and I am glad once more to be back in the Paradise of the Pacific."

Mr. Herteche resumed the reigns of office today and was a very busy man. He made a run out to the Moana first thing this morning and also a flying trip to the Hawaiian Hotel.

"DESTITUTE" MAN ARRIVED WITH $300

San Francisco's Hull-balloo Dissected Is Not Very Much

One of the "destitute Spaniards" San Francisco made such a fuss about landed from the Alameda with $300 in his clothes.

There was not a Spaniard in the whole lot and even the San Francisco record shows that but two of the families had asked for relief.

As soon as the people arrived, a good share of the Portuguese who had been here before, made tracks for Punch-bowl.

Some of the people were Porto Ricans left in San Francisco from the first lot shipped through from Porto Rico. They didn't find the Bay City all they expected. Others were Porto Ricans who had wandered away from the islands and were glad to have their fare paid back.

An investigation in San Francisco showed that some of the people over whom such a hullabaloo was made had flimflamed the relief agents of the city. Also that they had furnished the opportunity for some relief agent to flimflam the relief fund as in one case the accounts showed $700 or some such an amount paid out for these people that never reached the alleged destitute ones in any form.

As a matter of fact the destitute Spaniards are a very healthy lot of Portuguese and Porto Ricans, with just enough exceptions to prove the rule. San Francisco made a great deal of noise over a very little matter. However there are opportunities for work waiting these people on the plantations.

"HAT" GOES OVER TO TAKE WALK

Runaway With Ostrich Feathers Arrested By Officer

Very little escapes the vigilant eyes of the police. Arrests from all classes of humanity are made daily, but the limit was reached today when Officer Tripp arrested a hat, and the hat was just out for a stroll quite unattached.

As he was patrolling his beat between 10 and 12 o'clock this morning in the vicinity of Thomas Square he was astonished to see a hat come careering across the square with a following wind. The officer at once gave chase and soon arrested the obstreperous hat. It was a pretty hat of black straw with two fine white ostrich feathers, and possibly visions of the nice present it would make to some lady friend filled the officer's mind. He immediately took it to police headquarters, where he notified the receiving officer of the arrest and duly entered it into safe quarters.

Unfortunately for Officer Tripp, the hat had not been there very long before one Ah Fong, an automobile driver, came to claim the hat. As he showed evidence of having dropped the hat, it was given to him and safely taken home.

ATCHERLEY IS DENIED RELEASE

The petition of Mary Atcherley, wife of the alleged insane doctor, for the release of her husband on habeas corpus proceedings from the Insane Asylum, where he had been committed by Judge Andrade, was denied today by Circuit Judge Robinson. Attorney Harrison made a long argument on the charges upon which the petition was based but it was of no avail. Attorney General Hemenway and County Attorney Cathcart represented the prosecution.

The petition was based on the grounds that the District Magistrate had no jurisdiction in the case and that the law upon which he was sent to the Insane Asylum is unconstitutional. Atcherley has appealed to the Lunacy Commission.
