There is much perplexity and some amusement in the United States Marshal's office as to who belongs to Dep. Marshal Holt's baby. The Advertiser, infallible always, says that a new daughter has arrived in the family of Dr. Marshall Harry Bruns. This is very strange for Mr. Bruns has no family, being a respectable, law-abiding bachelor. Mr. Holt who blushingly acknowledged that he was the father of a bouncing miss is now somewhat perplexed since the Advertiser told him that Mr. Bruns' "family" is the only one represented in the marshal's office that has had an increase.

ADDRESSES BY NOTED MEN.
M. H. de Young, proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle, who is here with his family on a vacation, will address a special session of the Chamber of Commerce Thursday afternoon, as will also R. P. Schwerin, manager of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. Everybody is invited to attend the meeting.

Mothers,
Come and See

We've picked out XTRAGOOD clothes for boys as the finest in existence. Come and see if we're right.

We selected this line because the makers — Ederheimer-Stein — are America's foremost tailors for boys.

We selected them because XTRAGOOD styles are distinctive. One can always pick them out in a crowd.

We selected them because all XTRAGOOD trousers are lined, to double their wear. Because all XTRAGOOD suits contain one-third more cloth than the usual. That shows in the drape, and the boys don't outgrow them.

An XTRAGOOD suit will outlast two common suits. Don't buy a suit for the boy until you see them.

RECREATIONS

THE EMPIRE.

A sweet and dainty dancer appeared at the Empire theater last night. Her name is Sibyl Campbell Reid and the claim of being Premier Danseuse of the Pacific Coast is no idle boast, judging by the first exhibition she gave of the "Spanish cachucha."

In full Spanish costume she danced her way into the hearts of the audience last night and made as graceful a picture in her movements and poses as one could see in old Madrid. After the first dance she was called out again and again until she could dance no longer. The lighting effects were excellent and the charming figure of the girl as she moved softly up and down the stage was something to remember.

Tonight Miss Reid will dance Scottish dances in full costume, wearing the medals she has won for her prowess in the art taught so many years ago by Terpsichore.
