At a meeting of the members of the executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. building fund campaign yesterday at the Pacific Club, Superintendent Super was presented with a beautiful silver service as a tribute to his ability and skill in helping to carry out the plan to raise the money for the new building. This was entirely a personal matter with Messrs. Carter, Trunt, F. C. Alperton, Geo. F. Davies and J. P. Cooke, who felt that Mr. Super's splendid work deserved acknowledgment at the earliest opportunity. Another present has been ordered for Mr. Ebersole, who was associate secretary during the campaign. Mr. Ebersole's experience was of great assistance throughout the campaign.

CARRYING a Stock as big as ours means a bigger investment than average stores like to assume, but this isn't an average store. Nothing about it is in the average—it doesn't average the ages of its customers and try to make one selection of styles and fabrics and fashions satisfy old men and young men and middle aged men. The young man wants his own way and he has it here. He finds suits made specially for young men. Prices

$18, $20 and $22.50

They're best without being biggest-priced. Smart but not ridiculous—a combination of uncommon style checked by common sense.
