SPORTS

Local and National

BY V. L. STEVENSON.

Prospects Bright For Good Fight

As the night approaches on which Cullen and Reilly will do battle for the lightweight championship of these islands, people are wondering if the new-comer is going to wrest the title from the holder.

Cullen's supporters feel confident that their man can win, and they are backing their opinion freely. Cullen is an old warrior at the boxing game, and is wise to all the finer points of the sport.

Reilly is a clever little man and is going to put up the fight of his life against the challenger for the championship honors. Professor Bob Ross is mighty pleased with Reilly, and considers his charge has an excellent chance of winning.

Yesterday afternoon a faithful few faced the rain and mud down the Marine Camp way, and were rewarded by seeing five rounds of real good stoush handed out. Richards, the husky 156 pound scrapper, took a few rounds of wallops from Reilly, and now and again returned them in style.

After Richards had been dealt with, Nelson, who is always willing to spar with anybody, put on the gloves with Charlie. The Marine is a big husky guy and rolls into his man with vim. He is so big and strong that it looked as if the little man would not have a chance against the giant. Reilly, however, can duck in and land blows where they will do the most good, and it is no cinch of a job to box with him.

During one rally yesterday afternoon Charlie poked his right out good and hard to Nelson's larder, and the Marine swore he felt Reilly's fist hit his backbone. The little fellow can certainly hit like a kicking mule, and when a punch lands fairly the man who gets it looks not only astonished, but positively pained.

Sarconi is in pilikia and has a broken rib to nurse; it appears that the Bugler was hit by a baseball last week, and then, in sparring with Reilly, stopped a punch of the lightweight with his injured rib. The force of the blow doubled Sarconi up in pain, and now he has been forbidden to box for some time by the doctor.

Young Terry will probably go up against Franklyn now that Sarconi is out of the game, and it is possible that a second preliminary between Richards and Nelson will be fought. Reilly will do his last boxing this afternoon, and for the balance of the week will take things fairly easy. Cullen is also winding up his work and is in the best of condition; he feels confident that he can get the decision from Reilly, and everything points to a rattling good exhibition of boxing which no one should miss.

Package Race On Saturday

On Saturday afternoon the package race from Honolulu harbor to Kaena Point and back to the club house at Pearl Harbor will take place. A start will be made at six o'clock in the afternoon, and the race, which will be the last of the season, will be a very interesting one.

The yacht Hawaii will be anchored off Kaena Point and will act as stake boat there. The boats in the race will have to luff up near the Hawaii and send a dinghy to the yacht and from her receive a package which has to be delivered to the judges at Pearl Harbor Club wharf.

The Hawaii will leave the harbor at 8 o'clock on Friday night and will cruise to Kaena Point and anchor there.

There will be no handicaps in connection with the package race, and no marks have to be passed. The package is simply to be taken from the Hawaii and delivered in as fast time as possible to Pearl Harbor.

The Kapolei may start in the race, but as she does not carry a dinghy some other arrangements will be made to allow her to compete. The probable starters will be as follows: Kapolei, Charlotte C., Gladys, Kamehameha, Hawaii I; the Helene may enter also, and the race should be a most interesting one.

Honolulu Yacht Club Meeting

There was a meeting of the sailing fraternity last night at the home of the Lytes and much was done to start the interest going in the small craft proposition.

Everybody who was present at the meeting seemed impressed with the fact that small boat sailing is a great sport, it was quietly decided that the race for next Sunday should be sailed in plain sight of all those who congregate on the waterfront to see the race. A committee of two, Bob Hendry and George Turner, have been given power to arrange courses, and to act as judges and handicappers in connection with all the races.

Another boat of the Pearl type will probably be in the water next Sunday, and she is to be christened the "Ivy." In all there may be five starters in the race on Sunday for small boats.

In future should a boat capsize before her opponent has crossed the winning line the race will be sailed over again. If, however, the first boat has passed the winning post, the race will not be resailed.

Useful prizes in the way of something that can be used on the small craft will be given the winners of the various events. The club will work in company with the Hawaii Yacht Club, and both institutions will do their best to make the sport of yachting as popular as possible.

Max Bolte is the secretary of the club and anyone wishing to get in touch with the Honolulu dinghy sailors is asked to drop a line to Box 225, postoffice.

SHORT SPORTS.

Jimmy Coffroth has announced the receipts of the Johnson-Ketchell fight to be $22,300. Of this amount the boxers got 60 per cent, and consequently Johnson's share amounts to $12,480 and Ketchell got $6,720—the 60 per cent was divided 65 to winner and 35 to loser, Ketchell, however, had a side bet of $5000 and that has to be deducted from his winnings. He has to be content with $1720 for his day's work.

The Marathon runners are all in hard training and most of them are very fit already. Fahy is covering long distances every day and Hayes is also in active work.

There will be an open golf tournament at Haleiwa next Sunday, and special arrangements are being made for the comfort of the visitors at the beautiful resort.

There will be an important meeting of the Kallih A. C. tonight and at the residence of the secretary and all members are requested to attend.

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon the Bar Association unanimously endorsed Judge Sanford B. Dole for reappointment as Judge of the United States District Court. Judge Dole's term expires on November 23rd and there is a general desire to see him succeed himself in a position which he has filled to the satisfaction of everyone.
