CRAWFORD NAMED BY AYLETT IS REPORT

Supervisor Prepared For The Grand Jury Tomorrow

It is rumored that the direct charge of attempted bribery has been made against William Crawford by Supervisor Aylett and that this will be the allegation that he will present to the Territorial grand jury at its special session tomorrow. The fact that Crawford is the man named is learned from a friend of Aylett's to whom the Supervisor has stated that he will tell the grand jury tomorrow that Crawford is the man who offered him $1600 for his vote in overriding the veto of the Mayor to the blithely paving ordinance. It is reported that Aylett further stated that he will give the time, place and full circumstances of the attempted bribery.

The grand jury was to have convened in special session today, but Foreman McStocker was absent on a trip to Kaneohe and it was necessary to postpone the session until tomorrow. The absence of McStocker was the only thing that prevented the calling of the special session this morning.

LYMER IN HILO AND NO ONE HURT

Deputy Perfects Appeal In Famous Case Of Boundary

(Special Correspondence.)
HILO, Hawaii, June 15.—Among the arriving passengers in the Mauna Kea last Wednesday, Deputy Attorney-General Lymer was the one who without a doubt created the greatest sensation. Lymer is the man who started the great Parsons-Lindsay-Lymer controversy by throwing a list of undigested allegations at Judge Parsons. No intimation had been given of the fact that he was to come to Hilo, and when his name appeared on the bulletin board last Wednesday, among the passengers due to arrive, there was quite a sensation. Much wonder was expressed as to what could be his intention in coming to these, in his case, unfriendly shores.

Lymer was known to but very few people here owing to the short period of his residence. The crowd was looking for a scrappy-looking gentleman, with a piratical swagger, a mustang eye and a hairy fist. There was therefore some surprise when Lymer was pointed out by the few who knew him. The Deputy Attorney-General is a quiet-looking youth, with a mild blue eye. He is courteous and agreeable in manner, and he did not appear to be carrying any concealed weapons.

When asked what his intentions were, Lymer stated that he came to perfect the Territory's appeal in the Pepeekeo boundary case. He would also look into the matter of the Carlinha auto shed, and the Conn lot on First street, which is supposed to be government land. When asked how it was that the Territory would appeal, when, as a matter of fact, Judge Lindsay had been quoted in the Advertiser as stating that the Pepeekeo decision was a victory for the Territory, Lymer said that one could not believe all that one saw in the newspapers. He added that if the community of Hilo believed that Judge Lindsay had said all that he had been quoted as saying, it was much mistaken. In answer to the remark that the people here had to believe that the statements quoted were true, as they had not been contradicted, Lymer said that a man in the position of the Attorney-General could not contradict all the erroneous reports which might be made in reference to him.

During the course of the day Lymer had an interview with Judge Parsons in his chambers. There was no bloodshed. Details connected with the appeal were discussed, and the recent war was not referred to. Later, Lymer filed his notice of appeal, and this was certified to by Judge Parsons. The matter will now come before the Supreme Court.

Attorney Carl Smith, who represents the Pepeekeo Sugar Co., stated that it was a great question as to whether the Territory had any right whatever to file an appeal, and that this question would be raised by him before the Supreme Court.

New Land Board Is For Publicity

Kinney Introduces Resolution Covering Important Points Of Administration

At 10 o'clock this morning the second session of the Land Board was convened at the Palace and for nearly two hours questions of leases and other important matters were considered.

One rule was formulated by Member Kinney regarding the procedure of the Board in the case of lease, sale or exchange of public land and passed by the Board which provides for the general advertisement of all such cases for a period of eight weeks so that all homesteaders may have a chance to know of the intended procedure. The other matters taken up were of a routine nature and the Board adjourned shortly before noon, to meet again at the call of the chairman.

The meeting of the Land Board this morning opened by the introduction by Mr. Kinney of a resolution in relation to lease or sale of public land providing publicity before and action taken by the Board. The resolution introduced by Mr. Kinney after a few changes by the Board members, was passed in the following form:

"Before action upon any proposed exchange, sale, or lease of land is taken by the Board, notice of intention shall be given to the public."

LABOR UNIONS OF HILO DECLARE OPPOSITION TO CAMPAIGN OF WOOLLEYITES

(Special Correspondence.)
HILO, Hawaii, June 15.—The Hilo Labor Union, an organization which now boasts a membership of about two hundred, held a meeting at Firemen's Hall last Friday evening, crowding the room to its full capacity. The union has taken a decided stand on the immigration question, and in addition to this, Prohibition, eight-hour labor clauses in public works contracts and other matters were taken up.

Chairman Ewaliko started the discussion of the Volcano road matter by reading a letter from the Board of Supervisors to the Hilo Board of Trade, asking the business men to assist the county officers in their efforts to make the government place the prisoners to work on the road from the Volcano House towards Kau, after they had finished work on the Halemau mau road.

Several of the members expressed themselves in favor of keeping the prisoners, giving as their reason that the county had no money with which to do this work. Furthermore, the county had gone to the expense of putting up a jail, telephone, and providing carts and mules.

Other members opposed the plan of having prisoners working on public roads. They said that some time ago the County Fathers had wanted to employ prisoners on the cleaning of the roads. At that time Sheriff Pua had strenuously opposed this scheme, and the County Attorney had rendered an opinion which backed up the sheriff. The union should insist, in order to promote the welfare of its members, that all public road work should be given to the laboring men.

The question arose whether the union would be able to furnish men to work on the Volcano-Kau road, and it was agreed that the men could be furnished by having labor union clubs organized all over the county, which should stand together in all matters of common interest. The chair called for a vote on the question before the house, and the motion to send back the prisoners carried.

Thus the Hilo Labor Union is backing Governor Frear as against the supervisors of the county.

Word to Gomers. The chair called attention to the report that President Gomers of the American Federation of Labor had charged the Hawaiian planters with making virtual slaves of the Russians who had recently been imported by them, and recommending that the planters should pay for their deportation.

Some members stated that in the coming election they would vote only for such candidates as pledged themselves to vote for the repeal of the immigration law. They gave as their reason that there were already enough laborers in the Territory, and that the work should be given to them instead of to strangers. They expressed their appreciation of the charge made by Gomers, and endorsed his recommendation of deportation.

A vote was taken on this question, and as a result thereof the secretary was instructed to communicate with Gomers, expressing the appreciation of the Hilo Labor Union of his attitude.

Ewaliko added that he was glad that the union was taking an interest in the welfare of the laborers of the Territory. It was a good plan for it to communicate with Gomers, as it might lead to active aid being furnished by the labor organizations on the mainland.

None for Prohibition.

J. Oliver, a road laborer, said that the union must present a united front against Prohibition at the present time. He would like to see those who voted for Prohibition at the last meeting of the union, to make their names public, in order that it might be shown that only a few members were in favor of Prohibition. This speech was much applauded.

But the Prohibitionists kept mum. The next question taken up was that of the enforcement of the eight-hour law on public works. The Board of Supervisors was criticized for the manner in which it gave out contracts, whereunder the laborers were forced to work nine hours a day, as was the case on the Front street widening work. It was demanded that the union should demand from the Board of Supervisors the insertion of an eight-hour clause in every contract hereafter given out by it. At the suggestion of the chair, this matter was referred to the executive committee of the union.

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY CAN GO

There's no excuse for moping around Honolulu if you really want to go to the mainland.

The Pacific Mail steamer Manchuria, from Hongkong by the way of Japanese ports, has sailed from Yokohama, en route to Honolulu and San Francisco. This vessel has accommodations for one hundred and thirty first class passengers.

The palatial liner will arrive here on June 25th and will lay over for about twenty-four hours because of the large amount of oriental cargo.

The Manchuria is bringing over fifteen hundred tons of freight for Honolulu.

HOMESTEADERS HAVE APPLIED FOR DIVISION OF M'CANDLESS' BIG PLANTATION AT MAKUA

Link McCandless is up against the new land law and as a result will probably lose his plantation at Makua within a few weeks as application has been made to open it for homestead purposes.

Under the new law twenty-five persons, who are eligible to take up homesteads, may make application to the Commissioner of Public Lands for the survey and opening for any tract of land for homestead purposes.

Twenty-five such persons have made an application in writing to Superintendent Campbell and this land will be surveyed and opened accordingly. The new Land Board has gone on record that any land wanted for lease must first be advertised for eight consecutive weeks and at the end of that time a hearing will be held for any person who objects to the lease, sale or exchange of that tract by the Territory.

LEGISLATORS' SALARY

Kuhio Presents Reasons For Increase Of Pay

In the debate on the salary question for local legislators the Delegate was strongly in favor of the increase, making a lengthy speech on the subject in which he told of the conditions here that are encountered by those chosen to sit in the Territorial Legislature.

The debate on this most interesting part of the Organic Act amendment follows:

The question was taken, and the Chairman announced that the noes seemed to have it.

Mr. Tawney, Division! The committee divided; and there were—ayes 5, noes 41.

So the amendment was rejected. The Clerk read as follows:

Sec. 2. That section 26 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

RUSSIANS OUT OF QUARANTINE

All Go To Hawaii By Special Chartered Steamers

One hundred and twenty Russians and eighty Filipinos were released from detention at the Federal quarantine station yesterday afternoon, and they went to the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association labor recruiting headquarters at Kakaako for assignment to island plantations.

The delegation arrived by the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Nippon Maru on June 4. Sickness broke out among several children connected with the party, and as a precaution the entire lot of immigrants were ordered into quarantine.

The immigrants were detained two days over the allotted period and when released yesterday they were eager to take up their duties on the plantations.

The inter-island steamer Likiep was placed at the disposal of the
