

THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S

Own Story of His African Hunting Trip

"African Game Trails"

WILL be ready for delivery within a few weeks. Colonel Roosevelt in writing his publishers, Charles Scribner's Sons, says: "I regard this book as a serious thing. I have put my very best into it and I can not consent to have it appear in any but FIRST-CLASS FORM."

In the foreword he writes: "I speak of Africa and golden joys; the joy of wandering through lonely lands; the joy of hunting the mighty and terrible lords of the wilderness, the cunning, the wary, the grim. "Apart from this, yet mingled with it, is the strong attraction of the silent places—where the wanderer sees the awful glory of sunrise and sunset in the wide waste spaces of the earth."

RECREATIONS

THREE TWINS MUSIC.

No one should miss hearing the music introduced in the "Three Twins" at the New Orpheum tonight. There are some numbers exceptionally pretty. Miss Rockwell has a medley of old southern songs that strikes home, and Olga Steck sings "The Ideal of My Dreams," a song that has never been heard here, very artistically. After hearing her work in light soubrette songs this sentimental effort is a pleasing surprise. Miss Atkins has a very good number, "Fishing," in which she uses clever facial expressions which add much to the success of the song. Miss Schuyler, Carleton Chase and Miss Vilma Steck have some clever songs, and the work of the comedians is excellent.

THE PARK.

"Standing Room Only" is the sign out early at the Park these nights. Ethel May and Chas. Gardner are the leading attractions but Carl Wallner gets his share of the applause. The Desmond sisters have some very pretty dances and Thompson and Gibson contribute to the entertainment. With all these numbers the Park is getting to be a prominent vaudeville house instead of a moving picture house.

THE NOVELTY.

Orton and Leota continue to please at the Novelty Theater and the films, which are remarkable for their clearness, are of the best. Orton and Leota have some new songs tonight and the piano playing of Mr. Orton is one of the best features of the program.

THE EMPIRE.

Manager Overend is very well pleased with the success of his Vest Pocket Musical Trio. The house has been filled every night and repeated encores attest the success of the artists. His new films are very good.

MANY CALL TO PAY RESPECTS

The remains of the late George C. Beckley, who died in San Francisco on July 4, and were brought to this city on the Wilhelmina, were taken to the family residence last evening and placed in the parlor amid the hundreds of beautiful floral tributes that had previously been sent to the home. Members of the various lodges to which the deceased had belonged during life, kept watch and ward during last night, and all day today the house has been open for the reception of friends who wished to pay their respects to the departed.

There will be a private service at the family home at 2 o'clock, and at 3 o'clock there will be services at the Masonic Temple under the auspices of Hawaiian Lodge.

Last evening the old Kawaihau Club serenaded the home, singing Kuu Ipo Kuu Lei, composed by Mrs. Beckley, with flute solo by F. Malulani Beckley, and Ahi Wela, composed by Mrs. Beckley, and other appropriate selections.

Under the old monarchical system, the late George C. Beckley ranked as a high chief, and he will be accorded the honors of his rank by Hawaiians. Among those who visited the Beckley home yesterday were Queen Liliuokalani and Princess Kawananakoa.
