So oft the doing of God's will
Our foolish ways undoeth!
And yet what idle dream breaks ill
Which morning light subdueth?
And who would murmur and mis-
doubt
When God's great sunrise finds him out.
—E. B. Browning.

Don't be boss-ruled or boss-tooled.
That's the Democratic program.

President Wilson will get lots of material for a new book, if nothing better comes from his candidacy for Governor of New Jersey.

Mr. Furtado of Hamakua knows a political boss when he sees one and has left the Democratic party. So shall it be with all independent citizens.

It would have been sad indeed for the Father of Regatta Day to have suffered defeat in his exhibition of how an oarsman of former days can "come back."

Representative Afonso ought to get the vote of every honest man in Hawaii county, for his plan to command intelligent road construction by expert engineers.

Of course not all the orders of the Democratic convention were delivered by the Big Boss—direct. There always has to be a little boss or two for running errands.

Supporting the Republican ticket by predicting the defeat of individual candidates is a form of political knifing as detestable as it is ancient.

Standpatters are Regulars only so long as they are victors in the struggle. The exhibition made by Standpatter Boutell running as an independent candidate is a sight.

Recall as it appears in the Democratic platform means the rubber dollars Boss McCandless is throwing against the wall in the hope that they will come back to him in the form of votes.

Boss McCandless having completed his slate in the local convention, will now proceed on his mission of fooling the voters on the other islands. This is not the year when the people are easily gulled.

Boss McCandless' scheme for immigration means setting back the clock of Hawaii's prosperity. That's not wanted by the young men of the islands who believe in Hawaii and intend to do all they can to promote its progress.

Let no one presume that the dissolution of the Sugar Trust would lower the price of raw sugar. It would enable united sugar growers to take the advantage of warring buyers. For years the shoe has been on the other foot.

CANDIDATE OF THE BOSS.

Democrats appear to be highly pleased with the fact that they have secured some good men to accept candidacy on their City and Legislative ticket.

Let the joy be unconfined.

But that is no reason why the public should be misled into believing that the success of the Democratic ticket can be considered as anything but a step toward oblivion for the city of Honolulu and the Territory of Hawaii.

Evidently some of the candidates hope to make the public think that on account of raising a cloud in the form of a County platform they have cut themselves loose from the policy of depression fathered by the Boss of the party and expressed in the party platform.

But they can't fool the voters. The very excellent gentlemen, and others, who have allowed their names to go before the people as candidates of the Democratic party are part and parcel of the Bossed machine of the Democratic organization, that is operating for the personal aggrandizement of Boss McCandless. That's the whole thing in a nut shell.

In the contest that is soon to be in full swing, the people will be influenced by principle and the main purposes that are behind the political organizations.

In the Republican organization and candidates the voters find a sincere and earnest band of citizens working with might and main to preserve the prosperity of the islands and carry the government and the enterprises of the people forward to the speedy fulfillment of a progressive future.

In the Democratic party, they find the whole situation dominated by the personal ambitions and the personal dictation of a political boss. Everything must be secondary to the Bossship. The good men on the ticket are taken along merely because they will, in the estimation of the Boss, aid the Boss.

The Democratic candidates may repudiate the Boss as they please. They may shout in loud voice that the Boss shall not command their actions should they be so lucky as to get into office.

In so saying they are talking nonsense and they know it. The Democratic Boss dictated their

MANY ACCIDENTS

The Interstate Commerce Commission gives the total number of casualties to passengers on railways for the year ending June 30, 1909, as follows: Killed, 253; injured, 10,311. During the preceding year the record was: Killed, 381; injured, 11,556.

Many thoughtful people provide themselves with accident insurance policies before starting on a trip to the mainland. The Trent Trust Co., Ltd., sells policies which protect man and wife as well as a single person.

platform on which they are to go before the people and for which they must apologize if they wish to secure a baker's dozen of votes. They had to get their nominations subject to the approval of the Boss, who has been paying the expenses of delegates attending the bossed convention.

Consequently it follows as surely as the night follows the day that the creatures of a bossed convention and a bossed organization will be, can be, nothing more than bossed puppets, if placed in control of any department of the Government.

If there is one thing that the citizens of the Territory of Hawaii will not have, it is government by the Boss.

That's why the very excellent gentlemen, and others, who are named on the Democratic ticket will not and should not receive the votes of the majority of the electorate.

You may have a watch now. But is it a good one—one that tells the time correctly? Most watches don't.

HAWAII COUNTY PROGRESSIVES.

The Bulletin of September 6 has another strong editorial on "Hawaii County Road Policy," that is as gospel-true as it is spicy reading.—Kohala Midget.

What the people of Hawaii County should also realize is that the Gospel truth isn't worth a "whoop" unless it is followed up with enthusiastic united and determined practice on the part of the people.

Hawaii County voters have a magnificent opportunity to retrieve the fallen fortunes of their roads and their civic spirit. To improve the opportunity they must join the forces of progress in every section of the County and work like Trojans for the Progressive candidates.

Hawaii County's best people are afflicted with a combination of blind funk and inability to sacrifice some of their opinions sufficiently to allow all progressive elements of all districts to meet on a common ground. They ought to get over the habit of thinking that they must be beaten every year, and begin to realize that they have been defeating themselves by lack of courageous and intelligent cooperation.

Six weeks remains for the progressive citizens of Hawaii County to get together and prepare to present a united voting phalanx at the polls. The prize to be won is worth the undivided attention of every man in the County who boasts of an average amount of public spirit.

It is not only necessary that the crooks and the incompetents should be shown up. The able men and the honorable must get out and work to preserve the good name that has been so long soured.

COL. BULLARD'S WORK.

Hawaii is to be congratulated, the Nation is fortunate, in the assignment of Lieut.-Col. R. L. Bullard to the duty of conducting the school of instruction for the Hawaii National Guard.

Col. Bullard is a thorough soldier. He is more. He understands the need for and the means of arousing public interest in the activities of the soldier, an interest that reacts and inspires the soldier with more enthusiasm and helps him to not only to do better work but keep at it.

Col. Bullard has taken the trouble to state that he is glad to have the public know what is being done by the men of the Army and National Guard, and that publicity is welcome. The Bulletin is ready to cooperate; the Colonel has the right idea.

Honolulu, of all cities under the Flag, is a community that should be enthusiastic in its support of the army and the National Guard. At present it accepts the Army as mana from Heaven and manages to tolerate the National Guard when the appropriation bills are passed.

Patriotism and selfish interest as well should stir the people to give more of their attention to the work and purpose of the National and the Territorial branch of the armed service to make this outpost impregnable, a unit capable of taking care of itself and by so doing protecting the vast population and property of the west.

OUNCE OF DIVORCE PREVENTION.

Men and women marry in haste now as much as ever, but it is seldom they repent at leisure. Divorce courts are too easy of access, and the list of causes for legal separations is too exhaustive to make this state of affairs any longer obtain to any general extent.

This condition does not meet with the approval of the Commission on Uniform State Laws, that met at Chattanooga. That body, as thousands of other organizations and individuals have done before it, is at work to find a remedy.

This time, however, the subject is being gone into rather more deeply than usual. The cure for the divorce evil should be begun before the wedding ceremony is performed, it believes. The need is not so much for improved statutes covering divorce, as for better marriage laws.

If all unions were happy, it is easy enough to realize how the divorce problem would automatically solve itself. Most of the marital unrest is due to hasty and ill considered rushing into matrimony, the Commission believes. It urges that men and women be required to take time for thought, by the publishing of banns for a certain time to be fixed by legislation.

Legislating people into wedded bliss looks like a pretty hopeless proposition, but at least the further deliberations of the Commission on the subject will be watched with general and sympathetic interest.
