BIJOU GETS MORE GOOD ATTRACTIONS

With the closing of the Novelty theater last evening the Honolulu Amusement Company was enabled to distribute the remaining talent at that theater to other playhouses.

The Bijou theater tonight will present Conchita Carranze, a Spanish dancer who hails from Madrid, and gives a dance of unusual grace and attractiveness. Hasson Ben Abdie, the Moroccan hercules, a tower of strength, will present feats of muscle. He is an old performer. These are the very newest people at the Bijou, although the house has had several additions to its program lately—all of them good.

Burke and Burke are an exceptional comedy team, one of the Burkes as a messenger boy calling for laughs with every breath. The other Burke, a winsome young woman, fills the opposite role to perfection. Joe Carroll, comedian and dancer; Jones and Greiner, very comical comedians; the Little Aflague Sisters of Honolulu, petite singers and dancers, and Richard Kipling, singing illustrated songs, complete an unusual bill. Amateur night tomorrow.

PARK GETS A MUSICAL COMEDY TEAM

The Park theater tonight presents a new program and new people. The latter are the De Marest Brothers, whose eccentric musical ability is shown in many ways. One of them does a topsyturvy piano act. He stands on his head, his feet resting on the piano top and his back against the keyboard and in this position he plays many selections. It is not freak playing, but good.

Harding and Wasson sing their own compositions and dance their own original steps, and Winnie Baldwin, of charming stage personality, sings several selections. There are new motion pictures and a new program by Cunha's orchestra. The Park has its own standard of shows and this is one of the best the management has produced.

SAVOY PRESENTS AN ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM

With the regular mid-week change of program the Savoy will tonight present the Doric Trio, which have made such a phenomenal success since their first appearance less than a week ago. These three young men, Shriners from Toronto, are the rage of goodness for that—who cares for the vaudeville stage of Honolulu and turkey, now?

their encores run from three to six every night. Curtain calls are numerous and the applause is wildly enthusiastic at times. Packed houses have greeted them nightly. As a musical team they are not excelled here.

The two acrobatic dancers—Dolliver and Rogers—are also hits of the week. Their graceful dancing and pretty singing have won them a host of admirers. The Great Laredos are combining most of their contortion feats into one act for the remainder of the week.

The Savoy will continue its regular amateur night on Tuesday.

EMPIRE'S STRONG BILL BRINGS GOOD HOUSES

Large houses are just a habit at the Empire these days and nights. The program is good throughout. The Musical Bentleys continue as favorites, as their playing on the Marimbaxylophone has lost none of its attractiveness. Their long repertoire has enabled them to make two changes of program each week, and to their repertoire they are gradually adding Hawaiian selections. The Bentleys will tonight dedicate "The Papaya Rag," their own composition, to that popular Hawaiian fruit, the favorite among tourists. They will also play the "Lion du Bal" (sounds from the ballroom), "La Paloma," by request, and a medley of popular airs.

Gertrude Eulalie and her four pretty singing soubrettes, will present new songs and dances. Eulalie is a graceful danseuse and particularly good as a toe dancer. Crawford and Meeker, the comedians, have a lot of new jokes and songs, and George Stanley more ballads.

The amateur nights will be discontinued at the Empire.

BAND CONCERT.

The Royal Hawaiian Band will play this evening at half-past seven o'clock on the Young Hotel roof garden, presenting the following selections:

- March—The Navy.....Pether
- Overture—Anna Bolena.....Donizetti
- Ballad—Alice, Where Art Thou.....Asher
- Selection—Madame Sherry.....Hoschna
- Vocal—Popular Songs...Ar. by Berger
- Selection—Bright Eyes.....Hoschna
- Waltz—May I Have the Pleasure.....Lincke
- Finale—The Gigglers.....Haines
- The Star Spangled Banner.

Reports from the State are that sauerkraut will be plentiful. Thank Shriners from Toronto, are the rage of goodness for that—who cares for the vaudeville stage of Honolulu and turkey, now?

MISS BURKE, Comedian at Bijou.

FAMOUS DANCERS FOR ELKS' HULA

Most Graceful Girls in Islands Preparing to Make Appearance in Carnival.

Jimmie Lynch, Harry Murray, Ed. Quinn and Ed. Lord are the Elks in charge of one of the most entertaining features to be presented at the approaching Elks' carnival on the Alakea wharf on February 21 and 22. The two former, Lynch and Murray are not quite decided which is chairman of the committee, but nevertheless both are working in that capacity. A half dozen of the most famous dancers have been engaged and are rehearsing for the big day. They are Mary Pimodu, Irene Keeleni, Agnes Hiram, Lily Kealoha, Abbie Klein and Kullii Hiram.

These girls will execute the old Hawaiian hula in its most approved form under the direct tutelage of Madame Aji whose fame extends to great cities of the mainland, she having danced the graceful Hawaiian dance before thousands upon thousands at the Chicago World's Fair, at the San Francisco mid-winter fair and at the Buffalo Exposition.

NEW VOLCANO HOTEL IS PLANNED BY LEE

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.) HILO, Jan. 23.—Peter Lee, the well known kamaaina who at one time was in charge of the Volcano House in the olden days, is getting busy with his efforts to float a new hotel corporation for the purpose of operating a family hotel near the volcano.

The "Peter Lee short cut," the new piece of road which Lee had built from the government road at 29 1/2 miles for a distance of 1250 feet to a junction with the new automobile road to the pit, was completed on Dec. 31. It will shorten the trip to the volcano about three miles each way, and this fact is one of the attractions for the new hotel, which will be located at 29 1/2 miles.

Lee states that he has for years thought that this spot would be the ideal one for an hotel, and he wishes to place there a family hostelry where good accommodations will be given at a low figure. He proposes to float a corporation having a capital stock of $10,000, with the privilege of increasing it to $20,000, the shares having a par value of $20 each. Many of his friends in Honolulu and in Hilo have promised to subscribe, and Lee has every hope that he will succeed in securing the necessary subscriptions. In such case he expects to be able to open his hotel by June 1, in order that it may be ready for the summer trade. The building will be erected on a lot, 432 acres in extent, which Lee has leased from the Bishop Estate for 21 years from Oct. 1, 1906.

SPORTS

HALEIWA RACE PROMOTED BY JACK SCULLY IN MARCH

Cash Prizes to Be Given the Winners of Events This Year.

After all, the Haleiwa race will be pulled off as planned, and Jack Scully will be sponsor for the big event in the sporting world of Honolulu for the year 1911.

Jackson had planned to pull off the race, but there seemed so little interest in the event that he announced some time ago that there was nothing doing.

He called two meetings and at those there were present one or two runners and the sporting writers of the dailies only.

The prizes given will be cash ones, and then the winners can buy any sort of a trophy they wish or—hush!—put the money in the bank.

Jack believes that there will be many entries, and, in fact, as soon as the news was whispered that the promoter of the first race was on the game again, the runners and others began to prick up their ears.

Besides the running race there will be bicycle and motorcycle races, and the special train will go down to beautiful Haleiwa as in years past.

Kimball at Haleiwa will do everything at that end possible to make the day a success, and when the fateful day—sometime in March—arrives, there will be hundreds on their way by train and auto to see the finish of the events.

SPORTS WILL BE HELD ON LEAGUE GROUNDS

Athletic Park Too Wet For Chinese New Year Celebration.

It has been decided that the athletic events for next Sunday, which are being arranged in celebration of the Chinese New Year, will be held at the league grounds instead of at the Athletic Park as first planned.

The track at Moiliili is in far better shape than that at the other side of the city, and although farther out, will probably draw as large a crowd as would the other.

Merchants have donated a fine cup for the winners of the ball game, and the races scheduled promise to be worth watching.

Henry Chillingworth will be umpire of the game, and Mayor Fern has been invited to grace the day with his presence.

After the races are over there will be a big dinner given the officials and others.

CLUB MEMBERS TO BALLOT

Results of Vote For Federation Up For Consideration Tomorrow Morning.

Whether or not the clubs of the city shall unite in a federation as proposed by the Kiuhana Art League some time ago, is to be decided tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, when the Kiuhana Art League's committee meets to go over the results of the postal card canvass.

The returns from the postal card vote, in which practically all of the city's club-members have participated, are almost unanimous in favor of the federation, and it is probable that the federation plan will be adopted and carried into effect.

Each club represented in the federation is to have representation on the board of directors. The following clubs are proposed for the federation: Kiuhana Art League, College Club Moring Music Club, Honolulu Branch of the Woman's National Rivers and Harbors Congress, Sons of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Revolution, Symphony Club, Public Question Club and Social Science Association.

The committee of the Art League which drew up the plans for the federation is as follows: Mrs. Theodore Richards chairman; Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mrs. Herman M. von Moll, Mrs. Sanford B. Doie, Mrs. William D. Westervelt, Mrs. Anna B. Tucker, Mrs. Henry Bickness, Mrs. Lincoln L. McCandless, Mrs. Harmon Hendricks, Mrs. Isaac M. Cox, D. Howard Hitchcock, A. R. Gurrey, Sr., E. A. P. Newcomb and Miss Francis Lawrence.

AEA PASSES AWAY IN PEACE

Royalist And Faithful Attendant to the Queen Is Dead.

Joseph Aea, a well-known Hawaiian, who for many years was one of the faithful attendants of her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, died at his home at Pauoa last night at 10 o'clock, at the age of 52. He leaves a widow, two sons, two daughters and grandchildren to mourn him.

Aea was one of the first Hawaiian musicians to join the band during the monarchy. He was a solo viola player, and was a good musician. After the overthrow of the monarchy, Aea became one of the regular attendants of Queen Liliuokalani. When she went to Washington to press her claims for the crown lands before Congress, in 1903, she appointed Aea as her private secretary. His wife went along with the royal party as personal attendant to the Queen.

When the late J. O. Carter died, in 1907, Aea was appointed as business agent to the Liliuokalani Trust and was subsequently supplanted by Col. C. P. Inoué, W. O. Smith and A. S. Cleghorn, whose place is now filled by S. M. Damon. Politically, Aea was a Democrat. He was a delegate to the Territorial Democratic convention in 1900, and was nominated to the Legislature by the Home Rule party in 1902. During the monarchy he was deputy warden of the Oahu Prison, under Captain Trippe, the present assistant harbormaster.

The funeral services over the remains will be held tomorrow afternoon, interment being at Manoa.

Nelle—"Which has the most money?"
Belle—"Say, if I knew that do you think I'd be asking for advice?"
