

HONOLULU YACHT CLUB'S OUTING

The members of the Honolulu Yacht Club and their friends of the fair sex had a royal good time on a cruise to Pearl Harbor and the chowder party that followed it, yesterday. Three yachts, the Kamehameha, Helene and Charlotte C. made the run, and all were loaded with holiday fun-seekers.

Only one race was held at the harbor, the Florence, sailed by Campbell Crozier, winning with the Ivy, sailed by Max Britz, and the Elizabeth, sailed by The Man Friday, coming in second and third respectively.

H. Bailey prepared a chowder that was a masterpiece of seashore cookery, which was much appreciated. There were other good things to eat, but the chowder was prominent.

The Charlotte C. was the only one of the three yachts to return last night, the Helene and Kamehameha remaining at the harbor, where they will be until the time for the Maui race. Most of the clubmen returned to the city by rail.

SHRINER'S FAREWELL WILL BE SHOWN IN BONINE'S PICTURES

After working all day on undeveloped films taken of recent events, R. K. Bonine yesterday decided to enlarge his program of Hawaiian moving pictures at Charles R. Bishop Hall tomorrow night by adding a reproduction of the Shriners' farewell on leaving for the Los Angeles convention and high jinks. The Motion picture expert on the stand for the picture expert on the wharf, where he had a fine view of the Wilhelmine and her besonnetted rail.

All the films that Bonine will show will be made from the negatives between this morning and the time the program opens, and thus will be going through the machine for the first time outside of whatever test the expert makes of them.

CLEAN-UP DAY MUCH DIRT FOUND

According to reports which have been handed in by inspectors as a result of Saturday's inspection, it is very evident that it is not only the Orientals and other foreigners who inhabit the tenement districts, who need to clean up. A number of written reports from the Punahou district, supposed to be faultless from a standpoint of physical cleanliness, have been quite a surprise to all who have seen them. Notices are being sent out in accordance with these reports to the owners of property indicated, and it is intended that after the inspection to be made next Saturday, a list will be published of those who fail to heed the committee's request.

Cartage Is Short.
 The cartage committee of the Clean-Up Day campaign is having some difficulty in getting enough horses and vehicles to handle the dirt of one kind or another which it is estimated will be collected on Thursday. Chairman Berndt states that business has been so brisk in all lines lately that business houses are loath to let their teams go out of the stable on any holiday, and for their horses' sakes are glad to get an extra holiday in order that the overworked animals may have the time for rest and recuperation.

Chairman Berndt is very anxious that owners of teams and vehicles who receive reply postcards from his committee in regard to helping out on Clean-Up Day, attend to this at once. If they do not care to donate their property gratis, the committee is prepared to hire the same, but it is carts and teams that are needed.

Work Already Begun.
 The city and county road supervisor's and the garbage department's forces of men are working today in getting the dumping places about the city ready to take care of the refuse which will be hauled to them on Thursday. District captains are still carrying out their inspections, and most of them have turned in requisitions for men and equipment which they will need; and these demands are in turn keeping the headquarters staff exceedingly busy.

EXCURSIONS NOW ARRANGED

Honoluluans who are not satisfied with participating in the real smon-pure, blown-in-the-bottle Independence Day celebration, as planned by the local committee, will not lack for an opportunity to visit the other island ports where the great American eagle is scheduled to flap his wings and let loose a few spasms of patriotism.

The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company made announcement this morning that at least two steamers of the coasting fleet would be employed in running excursions to Maui and to Hawaii.

The flagship Mauna Kea has been placed at the disposal of intending travelers to make a special low-priced round trip to Hilo for the Fourth of July.

The steamer is to leave Honolulu at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, July 2, and is scheduled to return to Honolulu at daybreak on Friday, July 5. The Mauna Kea will steam direct to the Hawaii port, and her schedule will permit of a whole day at the Hawaii metropolis, where all sorts of sports and postimes are on the tapis.

Hundreds are expected to avail themselves of the chance to participate in Hilo's Fourth of July program of sports, a rate of $29 being made for the round trip.

The Claudine is to be dispatched on a special trip to Kahului, leaving here on the evening of July 2 and also returning early Friday morning. The Claudine can accommodate a large crowd who annually make pilgrimages to the Valley Isle, where horse racing or high order is the rule.

The Maui excursion in the Claudine has been fixed at $8 for the round trip.

MARINE SOUTHWICK GETS SIX MONTHS

A Southwick, a Marine, who stole a watch while he was in a state of intoxication, was sentenced to the penitentiary for six months by Judge Monarrat this morning.

Southwick visited Iwilei last Saturday night and after loading up on Hawaiian beverages, entered the house of Aomi and stole a gold watch. Mrs. Aomi, who was cooking at the time, saw the Marine enter the room and later on discovered that the watch was missing. She then called for a policeman and Officer Poaha arrived and arrested the Marine.

When asked by the Magistrate this morning why he did it, Southwick said he was drunk at the time and did not know what he was doing. He was sentenced to six months, as told before.

PUNAHOU GRADUATES HEAR ANNUAL SERMON

Commencement at Punahou was ushered in this year with the annual sermon to the graduates, delivered last night at Central Union church by the Rev. Robert E. Smith, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. "Let no man despise thy youth," was the text the eloquent divine took, with its corollary, "Neglect not the gift that is in thee," from Timothy, I, 4:12-14.

The glow club from Punahou rendered several appropriate selections, and many floral decorations were used.

The button is enjoying great popularity, and it assumes all sorts of forms. On the tailor-made, it is colored—bright malachite balls on navy blue, cornelian on green, crystal on everything, paste, enamel and carved ivory in a hundred graceful shapes.

Big! Bang! Wow!
 Just like that.
 Mr. Paul Stanhope and Mr. Bert Le Blanc hurried through the scenery on to the stage at the Bijou last Saturday night, and the return engagement of the Hughes Musical Comedy Co. was on with much eclat, as society writers say.

One of the biggest crowds that ever jammed the big playhouse yelled with delight when the familiar Teutonic features, broad smile and capacious ebullient of Mr. Paul Stanhope provided themselves into vision, and when Mr. LeBlanc's Hebrew accent trickled over the footlights there was joy and laughter.

The show brings back to Honolulu most of the favorites who made such a following some months ago before they essayed the Orient. The two chief comedians are back with their ill-hand-pleckle effect undiminished; Miss Fritzee de Guy is back, having added the "de" somewhere en route, for if memory serves correctly she didn't have it here. However, she dances just as well, sings as sweetly and looks as pretty as ever. Madame Pearl Lloyd has the bulk of the real singing to do, and did it Saturday with the fluttering tribute of hearty and sincere encores.

"The Speculators" was the title of Saturday night's offering, but the plot wasn't heavy enough to hurt and the title doesn't count, anyway. Those who made friends with the "Hughes show" when it was here before will all be out again, for the show is much the same and there will be new friends garnered in its local time.

The chorus, it should be said, is as lively and pulchritudinally shapely as of yore, and the musical numbers go with plenty of ginger.

"Fiddle Dee Dee" is the bill for tonight, with the Texas Tommy featured.

MYLOTT CONCERT TONIGHT

The program which is to be given by Miss Eva Mylott, the famous Australian contralto, at the Hawaiian Opera House this evening, has been arranged as follows:

Caro Mio Ben, G. Giordana; Recit and Aria (the fair), Gluck; Ovation, Fontaine; Dies Mol. Nevin; Printemp qui Commence, Saint-Saens; In the Time of Rome, Reichardt; Oh, That We Two Were Maying, Nevin; Still wie die Nacht, Bohm; Wenn ich Frueh in den Garten geh (folk-song), Schumann; Der Schindler (the force), Brahms; In Herbat, Gounod; Ballad, Kashmiri Song, Woodford; Pindem; Ballad of Klises, Somervell; Meeting of the Waters, Moore; Will o' the Wisp, Spross; The Cry of Rachel, Psalter.

The program includes many of the selections which were heard during the Kubelik tour, in which she was the soloist for the great violinist. Her voice is of rich quality and is well adapted to the selections chosen. Miss Mylott, who is registered at the Young Hotel, is resting this week.

The sale of seats which opened at the Promotion Committee rooms is gratifying and there is assurance of a large audience at the only concert Miss Mylott will give in Honolulu.

BOSTONIANS IN LAST BILL

With tonight's performance the local engagement of the clever Juvenile Bostonians will come to a close at the Liberty Theater, and that their last performance is to be a memorable one is the opinion of the company's management. Although an opera will be presented, it is really, in the excuse of an opportunity to offer the various song and dance successes of the Bostonians' engagement here, and the biggest hits from their entire repertoire will be blended into one opera for this, their last, performance.

The kiddies have proven a success, both on and off the stage, and negotiations are under way between Messrs. Lang and McGree for a return engagement of the Bostonians next year.

Tomorrow the youngsters leave for Maui, where they are booked to play four nights, then going to Hilo for July Fourth week.

Beginning tomorrow the Liberty Theater will revert to vaudeville and moving pictures for a season of three weeks, and as the vaudeville talent is said to be of an excellent quality, this will no doubt be a pleasing change for many of the big theater's patrons.
