

F. A. LAZENBY IS CHOSEN AS HEAD OF NEW DAIRY CO.

Elected President Of Annapolis Dairy Products Co. At Yesterday's Meeting Of Stockholders—Two Local Men Will Serve On Board Of Directors.

CONTRACT FOR PLANT AWARDED BEAN BROS.

Francis A. Lazenby, of Baltimore, head of the Annapolis Creamery Company, was elected president of the newly organized Annapolis Dairy Products Company, at the stockholders' meeting of the latter corporation which was held yesterday afternoon in the office of Major John deP. Dowd, Church Circle. T. Roland Brown, of Annapolis, was chosen as treasurer of the new company, and F. M. Lazenby, also of Annapolis, was selected as secretary.

In addition to the above named officers, the following board of directors was elected: A. A. Chapin, Washington; Howard E. Atterbury, New York; Francis A. Lazenby, Baltimore; T. Roland Brown and Dr. George T. Feldmeyer, of Annapolis.

Plant To Cost $38,300
Other business to come before the meeting was the formal awarding of the contract to Bean Brothers, local contractors, for the construction of the company's large and modern plant which will be erected on West street. The bid of Bean Brothers, which was $38,300, was submitted in competition with several Baltimore contractors.

Work of clearing the ground for the new plant already has been started. It was announced today, and it is expected that all of the construction work will be wholly completed within about four months, or in plenty of time to take care of the firm's summer business. The plant will be built of concrete and steel and will be up-to-date in every respect.

NAVY RELIEF SOCIETY COMMITTEES APPOINTED

Mrs. Henry E. Wilson Announces Names Of Those Who Will Serve For The Year

DOES SPLENDID WORK

Mrs. Henry B. Wilson, president of the Naval Academy Auxiliary of the Navy Relief Society, has appointed the committees to serve for the year which began with the annual meeting of the Auxiliary on Monday last.

The financial committee has for its work the planning of the campaign for the raising of funds, during the winter. A meeting will soon be held for organization and appointment of sub-committees, after which the entire personnel of the Academy Auxiliary will rally to their standards as they set to work.

The Relief committee, as its name indicates, responds at once to all calls for assistance from any member, of a family in the Navy or Marine Corps in the State of Maryland.

Following are the committees appointed by Mrs. Wilson:

Finance Committee—Lieut. Commander M. D. Tisdale, chairman; Mrs. R. M. Kennedy, Mrs. B. P. Du Bois, Mrs. A. Claude, Mrs. H. E. Shoemaker, Mrs. W. D. Brereton, Jr., Mrs. J. Parker, Mrs. H. H. Forgas, Mrs. N. L. Walton, Capt. T. R. Kurtz, Comdr. I. C. Kidd, Lieut.-Comdr. G. B. Hoey, Lieut.-Comdr. D. A. McElduff, Major F. D. Kilgore, Lieut. W. M. Fechteler, Lieut. O. L. Downes, Lieut. R. E. Keating, Lieut. G. F. Chapline, Lieut. A. S. Wotherspoon, J. W. Crosley.

Relief Committee—Mrs. D. A. McElduff, Mrs. A. B. Clifford, Chaplain S. K. Evans.

Auxiliary delegate to meetings of the Board of Managers at Washington, D. C.—Mrs. B. P. Du Bois.

MEMBERSHIP CONTEST ON FOR BIBLE CLASS

Members are wanted for the Eastport Methodist Episcopal Church Men's Bible Class which meets every Sunday at 9:15. A membership contest is now on and three teams are competing in it. On Thursday, December 21, there will be a Bible Class social at 8 p. m.

JUDICIARY COMMISSION WILL BE ORGANIZED IN BALTIMORE TODAY

Organization of the Judiciary Commission, composed of 21 lawyers of Baltimore and Maryland, appointed by Governor Albert C. Ritchie by authority of the Legislature, to investigate as to the defects of the judicial system of the State, is to be perfected at the first meeting of the body today in the office of Attorney Charles F. Harley, in the Title Building, Baltimore.

One of the first acts of the Commission will be the election of a chairman. Mr. Harley's is the first name on the list of 21 lawyers named for the probe by the Governor and it is generally assumed that the members of the body will follow custom and elect him chairman.

The membership of the Judiciary Commission is as follows: Charles F. Harley, George Weems Williams, Samuel K. Dennis, Morris A. Soper, Charles McHenry Howard, Sylvan Hayes Lauchelmer, O. F. Hershey, John M. Reardon, Walter H. Buck, J. Craig McLanahan, Philip B. Perlman, Emerson C. Harrington, T. Hughless Henry, Thomas H. Robinson, N. Charles Burke, Alexander Armstrong, William C. Walsh, F. Neale Parke, Jacob Rohrbach, John B. Gray, Sr., Ridgely P. Melvin (Annapolis).

DAMP WEATHER CAUSES INCREASE OF "GRIPPE"

The damp and murky weather of the past few days has increased the prevalence in Annapolis and vicinity of colds, grippe and kindred ailments, so that a mild epidemic is on. Extra precautions are urged by the doctors to ward off any further spread of it, as "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" in this class of sickness especially.

Among those convalescing during the past week are Rev. Edward D. Johnson, Rector of St. Anne's; John M. Green, of the State Capital Bank; Charles F. Lee, John F. King and Ferdinand C. Latrofe.

ARMY-NOTRE DAME GAME IS ASSURED

A gridiron battle between the Army and Notre Dame for next season is an assured fact, it was announced at West Point. Knute Rockne's fast Hoosier eleven will come East on October 13 to play the Cadets. The site of the contest has not been definitely decided upon, but it is hoped to play the game in New York. Notre Dame usually gets a November date on the Army's schedule, but the playing date has been advanced to mid-October for next year's contest. Announcement was also made that Army will play Yale in the Bowl at New Haven next year on November 3.

CHRISTMAS SEALS FOR TUBERCULOSIS FIGHT

Annual Drive On To Raise Funds For Battle With White Plague

THOSE ON COMMITTEE

The following committee has been named for the Christmas drive of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association.

Doctor Thomas Fell, head of Anne Arundel county and Annapolis; Mrs. Arthur Owens, Greenock; Mrs. Anne Petheridge, Nutwell; Mrs. George Sheppard, Harwood; Miss Anna Grayshaw, Glen Burnie; Mrs. Melvin Stewart, Gambrills; Mrs. Beauregard Clarke, Jessups; Mrs. Joseph Bigelow, Jr., Riverview; Miss Isabel McNashy and Miss Sara Sutherland, Annapolis.

Seals will be sold at the banks and postoffice from now to Christmas. For those who do not care to invest in seals there are the Health Bonds which range in value from five to twenty-five dollars. Miss McNashy has charge of these. Contributions should be sent to the Anne Arundel and Annapolis Tuberculosis Committee, P. O. Box 136.

Excellent Christmas Investment
Judging from previous results, and only results count, a better Christmas investment would be hard to find. The Maryland Tuberculosis Association has kept many a child from becoming crippled or invalided for life and

REDS AND WHITES TIED FOR FIRST PLACE IN MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The membership contest of the Men's Bible Class of the Eastport M. E. Church is on in earnest. The Reds and Whites are tied for first place each having brought in 18 new members. The Blues are close behind with 16 new members, making the contest very interesting. The losing team, or the team bringing in the least members, will treat the entire class to sandwiches and coffee on January 4.

Next week will be an unusually busy one. On Tuesday night, a Community Sing will be given under the auspices of the Epworth League, and no admission will be charged. Wednesday night is Church Training Night and business meetings of Sunday School Board. Thursday afternoon and night Dr. Colt, District Superintendent will conduct an institute with the following to assist him. Doctors Rines and Costin and Brother Nagle of India.

On Friday night the young people will give a play entitled "The Fascinating Fanny Brown." The public is cordially invited to join us in all things spiritual as well as social.

$5,000 BEQUESTS TO HOSPITAL AND S. P. C. A. RECEIVED

Charitable Bequests under the will of the late Joseph R. Morris are now being distributed, included in which are two of special local interest.

These are one of $5,000 to the Emergency Hospital of Annapolis and another of $5,000 to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Annapolis Branch). The checks were delivered yesterday.

Mr. Morris was a retired business man of Chicago, who a few years ago took up his residence on Harness Creek, near South River, and stayed there most of the time, although he traveled extensively. He died in Paris last winter. Besides the generous bequests to local institutions he provided liberally for a number of others elsewhere, having no immediate family. His estate totalled approximately $200,000.

ANDREW T. STRIBLE BURIED THIS MORNING

The funeral of Andrew T. Strible, who died suddenly on Wednesday at the Emergency Hospital, took place this morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. Eliza Cannon, 18 East street, this city.

The Rev. Father Duke, of St. Mary's Catholic Parish, conducted the funeral services.

The pallbearers were chosen from the membership of three organizations to which the late Mr. Strible belonged. They were: Z. Davidson and Howard Armiger, of the Bricklayers' Union; Henry Wilkinson and William Weaver, of the local Lodge of Eagles, and Philip Mitchell and Charles Williams, of the Navy League.

Interment was in Cedar Bluff cemetery. The funeral arrangements were made by Taylor and Sons.

TO PREACH AT ST. ANNE'S CH. TOMORROW MORNING

The Rev. John Armistead Wellbourn, of Tokio, Japan, will be the preacher at 11 o'clock tomorrow in St. Anne's Church.

Though Mr. Wellbourn's entire ministry of twenty-three years has been spent in Japan, he has many friends in Annapolis and Maryland who look forward to his presence here with interest.

MRS. WM. WERTZ WINS ELEPHANT AT BAZAAR

The large gray elephant at the White Elephant booth of the Y. W. C. A. Bazaar was won by Mrs. William Wertz, who guessed the correct number, 299. The peanuts in the white elephant were counted at 9 o'clock Friday night by Robert Burwell, the County Engineer, at the Armory, who was selected as the man to count them by a disinterested person who did not know who Mr. Burwell was at the time. Up to the time of the counting no one knew how many peanuts were in the small elephant as it was filled by one person, then taken to a second person unknown to the first who took a handful of peanuts out and it was then sowed up to guess the count. There were 5 who guessed 300 and 4 who guessed 298 but Mrs. Wertz was the only one who guessed the correct number 299, as shown by the books.

WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN BURIED IN ST. ANNE'S

The funeral of Philip J. Miller, a well-known resident of Annapolis, took place yesterday at 1:30 o'clock from his late residence on Southgate avenue. The pallbearers, members of the Annapolis Masonic Lodge, to which the late Mr. Miller belonged, were: James Armstrong, Charles Russell, A. O. F. Larson, Eugene Griffin, Basil Moore and Charles Linderman.

The body was interred in St. Anne's cemetery. Taylor and Sons were the undertakers in charge of the funeral arrangements.

COUNTY'S HOME FOR POOR IS WELL KEPT

Nothing But Praise Given In Report Of Recent Grand Jury Committee

NOW HAS FOUR INMATES

How well the Anne Arundel County Home on South river, where the real poor and needy of the county are given refuge, is managed by the Board of Trustees, and the general conduct of affairs by the superintendent of the institution, is shown in the report of the committee of the recent October grand jury. The report reads:

"To the Foreman of the Anne Arundel Grand Jury.

"Dear Sir:
"We the Committee, appointed by you to visit the County Home, do hereby make the following report:
"We visited the Home on the morning of October 23, and found there seven inmates,—three males and four females.

Rooms Spotlessly Clean

"We first visited the Colored Home, and found there one inmate—an old colored man. The rooms were spotlessly clean and comfortable. The colored inmate is blind, and the Keeper has placed a guard around the stove to prevent his falling against it and getting burned. The two white men were out of doors, one chopping wood, the other sitting on the porch.

XMAS SPIRIT IS HERE: TRACES OF OLD SANTA SEEN

Shops Filled With Toys And Gifts For Good, Little Boys And Girls—Windows Depict Scenes That Abound Once A Year.

AND ST. NICH'S FRIENDS ARE BECOMING LEGION

That elusive something so frequently described as the "Christmas spirit," which has become a yearly visitor in all American cities and towns and households, is again putting in its appearance in and around Annapolis. Beginning several weeks ago, when so timid as to barely have nerve to show its head occasionally, it has rapidly outgrown its infancy and become a giant of monstrous proportions.

Shops Finely Decorated

Traces of this giant's tread are evident throughout the whole city—in display windows, where effective fireplaces, hung with Christmas stockings both large and small, call up visions of Santa's rotund self crawling down their wide-mouthed chimneys; in the toy shops where dolls with long, natural curls rub elbows with the mechanical "Mamma" dolls so popular with present-day youngsters; where toy trains and guns and ships for boys dispute the territory covered by displays of doll furniture, dishes and carriages for girls; in the numerous Christmas trees already playing their festive part in the decoration of many of the windows of local stores and restaurants; in the increased bustle and stir noticeable in the activities of our merchants; in the extra hours which many put in embroidering, sewing and preparing hand-made gifts and in the appetizing
