TONIGHT'S MEETING IN THE STATE HOUSE

As repeatedly set forth in these columns during the past several weeks, the campaign of the Maryland Tobacco Growers' Association to increase its membership to 85 per cent of the total number of tobacco planters in Anne Arundel is of the utmost importance to every citizen of the city and county. While the membership campaign now being conducted here is meeting with a good degree of success, it is undoubtedly true that even greater results will be accomplished if every citizen will put his shoulder to the wheel and do everything possible to help put the campaign "over the top."

In this connection it may not be amiss to again direct attention to the meeting which is scheduled to be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the House of Delegates Chamber of the State House under the auspices of the local Chamber of Commerce. This meeting, which will be addressed by well-known speakers, is for the purpose of stimulating even greater interest in the Maryland Tobacco Growers' Association membership campaign, and it is hoped that every merchant in the city and everyone else vitally interested in the material welfare of the county will show appreciation of the whole movement by attending it.

Practical experience has demonstrated time and time again the splendid effectiveness of co-operative marketing associations and the benefits that accrue to the growers and to the communities where they are solidly organized. The co-operative marketing movement, in fact, has long since passed the experimental stage, and it is significant that failures have been recorded only in those instances where wholehearted support was lacking.

The Maryland Tobacco Growers' Association has been instrumental in advancing the interest of the planters in many ways, but it will be practically impossible for the association to carry out its extensive plans for betterment of the tobacco situation in Maryland unless it is enabled to materially increase its membership. And this end undoubtedly will be greatly aided through the loyal support of the whole citizenry.

THE DAILY MIRACLE

Time is one of the most valuable of human possessions. It abides after friends are gone and wealth has vanished. Time is priceless because it is changeless. Of all other things one must say: "This, too, shall pass away." Time is the only thing that never ceases to be.

The most precious thing in life is the 24 hours allotted to mankind each day. Time is the changeless possession, and the more time one has the wealthier one is. And, in this, Youth is the wealthiest of all.

Time is the equal possession of mankind. Without time nothing is possible; with it, all things are. Rich man, poor man, beggar man and thief, all are equally blessed by the daily miracle.

Said Emerson: "Give me health, and a day, and I will make the pomp of emperors ridiculous." Said Franklin: "If thou wouldst lay hold of life, save time, for time is the stuff that life is made of."

Arnold Bennett, in his brochure, "How to Live on 24 Hours per Day," says: "You wake up in the morning and your purse is magically filled with 24 hours of the manufactured tissue of the universe of your life. Waste your infinitely precious commodity as much as you will, and the supply will never be withheld from you. You cannot draw on the future. It is impossible to get into debt. You can only waste the passing moment."

What a singularly inept race we are to have invented the phrase, "killing time!" After all, that is the real race suicide problem in a nutshell.

"Topsy-Turvy," Name Of The Play

"Topsy-Turvy," was the play which was going on when the fire started and the blaze began as we were shifting the scenery between the second and third acts. T. C. Bruce, 19 years old, who played the part of "Ned" in the comedy, which the Cleveland school was presenting as part of its graduating exercises, told the Associated Press today.

"It was all so terrible that I can hardly realize it. Four of the eight who were on the stage are now dead. And the tragedy of it all was that the building had been condemned and that this was the last graduation to be held there. Next year the boys and girls of Cleveland school were to graduate in a new hall.

Stairway Collapsed

"Then everyone acted panicky and began to rush for the stairway, the only exit and a very narrow and rickety one. There were about 300 people in the hall.

"The men tried to keep the crowd from pushing each other down the steps but could not control them as the flames were licking closer on all sides. Soon some of the people began going to the windows and jumping out. Mothers threw their children to those below and some jumped after them. I got out by jumping across the banisters and down to the first floor instead of using the steps.

Cries Of Dying Add To Horror

"I pulled at those in the doorway until I saw it was useless and many of us stood under the windows trying to catch the children who were thrown out and to break the fall of those who jumped. Automobiles were placed under the windows to break the fall as much as possible, but few who did not get out early by the doorway escaped with less than a broken wrist or ankle.

"Soon the clothing of those yet inside began to catch fire and the cries and groans of the dying added to the horrors of the scene. Then, the building collapsed and, well, I guess you know the rest—I'll never forget it."

14,000,000 War Medals

LONDON, May 18.—More than 14,000,000 medals have been awarded by the British government to men and women who served the country with distinction during the Great War. The total length of ribbon on these medals would extend 1,800 miles.

Among the decorations awarded are 360,000 1914 Stars, 145,000 clasps to the 1914 Star, 1,780,000 1914-15 Stars, 4,700,000 British War Medals, and 2,550,000 Victory Medals.

Huge quantities of medals were sent to Canada and the Dominions to soldiers and nurses who distinguished themselves.

SYRACUSE AND NAVY OARSMEN PREP. FOR RACES

The Syracuse Varsity eight will outweigh the rival middies by an average of nearly six pounds to the man, according to the weights announced today. Six of the men in the Orange boat tip the scales at 150 pounds or better, and the average for the crew, exclusive of coxswain, is 179 3-8 an especially husky crew. Navy's average is 173 1/2.

UNIVERSITY CLUBMEN IN FUN AND FROLIC

The whole assemblage, led by Clarence L. Clemson, joined in singing "Old Black Joe."

Passing from the ridiculous to the dignified, a unanimous vote of thanks was passed to St. John's College for its gracious hospitality in the loan of its rooms for the Club's meetings.

A fitting and impressive touch was given when Dr. Fell arose and in a brief but heartfelt address, bade farewell to the club as the retiring President of St. John's.

Judge Robert Moss, President of the Board of Visitors, followed with a glowing tribute to Dr. Fell, and a cordial assurance that the college doors are always open for the use of the club.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.
