ECCLESIASTICAL COUNCIL. The Council called by the Third Parish Church, to consider the expediency of installng Rev. Jeremiah E. Walton as pastor of said church, convened yesterday afternoon in the vestry of the church. The place was crowded to its utmost capacity, evincing the interest felt upon this matter.

Rev. Henry D. Moore, of the Central Church, Portland, called the meeting to order and read the letter missive from the 3d Church. Prof. Egbert Smyth, of Andover Theological Seminary, a delegate from the church in Brunswick, was chosen Moderator. He declined, as did also Rev. Dr. Carruthers and Judge Davis, who were successively elected.—
Rev. Uriah Balkam, of Lewiston, was then elected Moderator, and Rev. Geo. A. Tewksbury, of West Chapel, Portland, was elected

After prayer by the Moderator, the list of churches invited was called over, and the following were represented:

2d Church, Portland—Rev. J. J. Carruthers, D. D.; N. J. Gilman, delegate. High Street, Portland—Brown Thurston delegate. State Street, Portland—Hon. Woodbury Davis, delcentral, Portland-Rev. Henry D. Moore; Sylvan St. Lawrence, Portland—Robert R. Perkins, dele-West Chapel, Portland—Rev. George A. Tewksbury; Wm. Campbell, delegate.

cate. hurch in Kennebunk-Rev. Mr. Fellowes; J. M. e. Centre St. Church, Haverhill, Mass.—Sam'l Chase,

Rev. Dr. Carruthers offered to read a paper which he had prepared, but which the Moderator ruled to be out of order. By vote of the Council he was permitted to proceed. It was Council. The document complains that the tter missive of the 3d Church entirely ignores the proceedings of the Council of July 7th, 1864, and no mention is made of their roceedings, which, it is contended, is a great rror on the part of the 3d Church.

Judge Davis then offered a motion that furher proceedings of the Council be postponed for two weeks, on the ground that many of the churches invited were not represented in the Council. He thought the proceedings of the Council would be more satisfactory with a full representation of pastors, than if they proceeded to-day with only nine pastors pres-

The postponement was opposed by Rev. Mr. Moore, of the Central Church, Mr. Chase, of Haverhill, Mr. Stone, of Kennebunk, and Mr. Lee, of New Ipswich, the latter of whom said he was in favor of throwing more responsibility upon the laity in these cases.

Rev. Mr. Walton remarked that if he could see anything was to be gained by a postponement, he should certainly favor it. But Dr. Carruthers had stated that whatever might be the result of this Council, it would be received with dissatisfaction by many of the Churches. The motion of Judge Davis was then amended on motion of Dr. Carruthers, so as to read VOTED—That we adjourn to meet at this place in two weeks from to-morrow; and that this church be requested, in the mean time, to invite the churches and their pastors, invited to act upon the previous Conneil, and not invited to act upon this, to be represented upon this Council at that time.

A long discussion then ensued, in which the speakers touched upon principles of Congregational polity.

Mr. Lee, of New Ipswich, contended that the 3d church had the perfect right to invite whom they pleased to form the Council,-that it was in full fellowship with the other churche. in this city, and would be until it was dealt with by a council called for the purpose. Rev. Mr. Moore, of Portland, and Rev. Mr.

Fellowes, of Kennebunk, opposed postpone-

Rev. Mr. Richardson, of Robbinston, said he was undecided how to vote. If he could think a postponement for two weeks would promote the fellowship of the church he would cheerfully vote for it. Deacon Gould, by permission, stated the reasons that governed the 3d Church in selecting the churches to be represented in the

After some further remarks from Mr. Lee, Mr. Stone, Rev. Mr. Fellowes and Rev. Mr. Balkam in opposition to postponement, Rev. Dr. Carruthers took the floor, and argued in favor of postponement and of inviting the churches that were represented in the old Council to be represented in this. The question was then taken upon postponement and decided in the negative.

Judge Davis then offered a resolution which would virtually dissolve the Council, and made some remarks in support of it. He was replied to by Mr. Lee. A motion was made to lay the resolution on the table.

Before the vote could be taken the motio was withdrawn, and Judge Davis temporarily withdrew his resolution in order that a reconideration of the vote, rejecting the proposition for postponemant, might be offered.

The motion to reconsider the vote was carried, and then the question was upon the adoption of the resolution to adjourn for two business for which it was called. The records of the Church and Parish which resulted in calling Rev. Mr. Walton to settle over them as pastor, were read. The Council then proceeded to the examination of the candidate. The questions were sharp, embracing the various points of doctrine entertained by the Orthodox Congregationalist The examination lasted until after 9 o'clock, and without its being concluded the Council adjourned to 9 o'clock this morning, to resume the examination, in the Church.

This city was excited yesterday by a gang of roughs and thieves, who accompanied the excursion of the Emmet guard from Albany. The scoundrels spread all over the city, robbing and knocking down citizens to their heart's content. For a long time they kept this up, for there was no one to make them afraid. When starting to return to the boat they commenced a series of most brutal and devlish outrages, and were still allowed to have their own way. They amused themselves by firing stones, revolvers and guns at the people, varying this order of things occasionally by striking them with clubs, and fists, and maltreating them in various other ways. The leaden balls flew like hall stones. Roughdom held perfect carnival. A young man named Pace was shot in the leg. A boy named Berry had an arm broken. Another boy was badly beaten over the head with a club. Officer Salsbaugh, aged seventy years, was pounded almost to a jelly. Many other persons were badly beaten and injured.

Saloons and drinking places were completely cleaned out, and the occupants abused in the most shameful manner.

The petition represents that he is a good and loyal citizen, that he is wrongfully and illegally restrained of his liberty, and that he is not in the military or naval service of the U. S. Judge Wylie declined to issue the writ on the ground that a military offense was among those charged, but he remarked that if the military authorities would dismiss that portion of the charge he would issue the writ as regards the other charges.
