Paris, Aug. 9.—The French Cabinet has addressed a note to the Prussian Government pointing out that the great changes in the political organization of Germany render it necessary that the French frontier should be rectified by an accession or territory to France.—The French Cabinet made yesterday a further communication to the Cabinet at Berlin, demanding a restoration of the French frontier as it existed in 1814.

Berlin, Aug. 9.—The semi-official Journal of to-day has an article in favor of leaving intact, as far as is convenient to the general interests of Prussia, the vital institutions peculiar to each country to be incorporated with Prussia, and especially the system of the administration of justice, the Provincial representation and the constitution, and administration of their communes.

The Prince and Princess Frederick William of Hesse, while on their way to Berlin, received a communication at Magdeburg, in consequence of which they discontinue their jourquence of which they discontinue their journey.

Florence, Aug. 9.—The suspension of hostilities between Italy and Austria it is expected will expire on the 11th inst., at 4 P. M.

The Italian troops have been withdrawn from Tyrol across the Aghaments. Breaust Cialdini declares the latter is a more defensible position, while others say it is the line of demarkation made by Austria before consenting to an armistice. Though the Italian troops in Venetia are being concentrated in their defenses, hopes are entertained that difficulties will soon be arranged. A perfect understanding exists between Italy and France with reference to the cession of Venetia.

Bucharest, Aug. 7.—The Turkish army of observation on the Danube is being gradually removed. It is believed Turkey has recognized Prince Charles of Holenzollen as hospador of the Principalities. Many of the Romagna soldiers are being disbanded.

A Paris dispatch of the 10th inst., states that Napoleon has returned from Vichy.

Another Paris dispatch of the 11th inst., states that the Moniteur says Gen. Lamarmara of Italy, and Arch-Duke Abrecht of Austria, are authorized to sign an armistice on the basis of the cession to Italy of Lombardy.

Florence, Aug. 11.—The negotiations for an amistice at Carmos are protracted by the diffi-ulty in fixing a line which the Commissioners culty in fixing a line which the Commissioners are to occupy. The suspension of hostilities is to be prolonged while negotiations continue.

A Vienna dispatch says it is to be believed that Paris will be the place where negotiations between Austria and Italy will take place.

A Cronstadt dispatch of the 10th says the United States squadron had a grand imperial and popular reception. The Czar visited the vessels at Cronstadt and took the chief officers to dinner with him. After dinner the Emperor toasted the propriety of the United States and an uninterrupted friendship with Russia.

A St. Petersburg dispatch of the 10th states that an Imperial decree has been promulgated for the immediate issue of fifteen millions roubles, to pay the interest on the foreign loan, and directing the use of the Russian language hereafter in addressing the Central authority.

London, Aug. 13—Noon.

London, Aug. 13-Noon. The armistice between Italy and Austria which expired on Saturday, has been renewed four weeks.

The official Berlin paper opposes the claim f France for an extension of its frontier. The Czar of Russia has visited the United States squadron at Cronstadt.

The Cholera.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 13.

There were fifty-four deaths by cholera on Saturday, and sixty-eight yesterday. There have been six hundred and ten deaths since August 1st from cholera.

At a meeting of the board of health yesterday, they decided that cholera was prevailing here as an epidemic. The number of sanitary police and district physicisms have been increased, and measures have been adopted for cleansing all tenement houses, streets, alleys, &c. Also directed that suitable medicines be prepared and furnished the poor gratuitously.

THE TAX ON SEGARS.

Washington, Aug. 13.

Gen. Grant has rescinded the order relative to sending newspapers printing disloyal sentiments, to his head quarters.

Col. Leavenworth, the Indian Agent in the country of the Kiowas and Camanches, has just arrived here, and states that the Cheyennes from the north, and those from the south, together with the Arapahoes and the Aquallala and Brule bands of Sioux, are meeting in the Smoky Hill country, to hold their great medicine lodge. The Cheyennes say the whites shall not make roads through the Smoky Hill country, as it is their territory ground. It is thought that much depends upon the result of the councils held at the medicine lodge, as to the attitude of these tribes towards the Government. If hostile influences should prevail, trouble may be anticipated from these Indians. The Kiowas and Camanches are quiet and peaceable and are in a prosperous condition.

The Second Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that arrears for pay and bounty cannot be paid to disloyal heirs, nor can such heirs be passed over and payment made to the next person in the order of inheritance.

The French Government will reject Santa Anna's proffered services.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 13.

The measures adopted by the Board of Health of Norfolk, imposing a quarantine of twelve days upon regular steamers and other vessels arriving from New York, have been reconsidered and others passed rendering it necessary that all such vessels leaving New York shall be provided with certificates from a duly appointed inspecting physician that there is no sickness on board, and that the vessel is in a cleanly and healthy condition.

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOT. The following extracts are taken from an article in the New Orleans Advocate, the organ of the Methodists In the fearful butchery that ensued severa things were plainly apparent:

1. The police and their leaders were all, so far as we know, ex-Confederates.

2. They were evidently animated by the same dark spirit that has brooded at Fort Pillow, Andersonville, and the fatal tregedy of the 14th of April, 1865.

3. Their irenzied rage always directed itself with unerring precision against Union self with unerring precision against Union men. Not there only, but all through the city, the cry was against the Yankee and the "nigger;" and but for the timely interference of the military a more general massacre was imminent. 4. There was intense satisfaction expressed that Northern ministers had been put out of the way. Some boasted that six had been

5. The most fiendish fury was manifested against the negroes. Men boasted of the number they had slaughtered, and seemed to feel a strange pleasure in their satanic butch-

6. While indulging in this hellish wine of intoxication, in worse than Belshazzar revelry, they praised "Andy Johnson" as the man after their own heart. His telegram, whatever may have been his purpose, had given them boldness, and to-day men who once wore the uniform of their country are lying cold and low, murdered by those who failed to vanquish them on the battle-field.

FACTS TO BE PONDERED. It has been FACTS TO BE PONDERED. It has been the cus om among certain people to deride the notion that when the Southern States are re-organized and put irrevocably into the hands of their own citizens, there is danger that the guarantees extorted from them by Mr. Johnson would eventually be repudiated. Mr. James Alcoru, of Mississippi, makes an address to his fellow-citizens in which he laughs at such a supposition and nours conlaughs at such a supposition and pours con-tempt on the meanness of soul which could harbor apprehension of that sort. Yet Chief-Justice Ruffin, whose legal abilitets and legal knowledge are venerated by every North Car-olianian, maintains, in a recently published letter, that the Reconstruction Convention of that State was in no proper sense a covern that State was in no proper sense a conve t. n, and that none of its acts are lawfu binding. It was a body of men, he thinks, which represented the will of Andrew Johnson, a military dictator, and did not represent the people of North Carolina. Judge Manly, a prominent member of the Convention, also supports this view. In fact, all the experience of the past year goes to show, what might have been known a priori, that whatever gains of the war are to be held permanently by the loyal people must be bound fast by ties which nothing but a new war can loosen. Amendments to the Coestitution of the Unit. Amendments to the Constitution of the Unit-ed States are better, apparently, than amend-ments to the constitution and changes in the

New Steamer on Saco River. A neat and beautiful craft has been built at Natural History, Mercantile Library Associa-

Hollis the present season by Messrs. Bradbury and Rideout, and is now plying regularly be-tween the terminus of the Portland & Roches ter railroad and the village of West Buxton. She is over a hundred feet long, a stern wheel, of light draft, staunch and safe, capable of carrying 400 passengers, and capitally fitted for river navigation. A track runs down from the railroad to the wharf.

The Saco, everywhere beautiful from its birth in the mountains to its final wild leap into the ocean tide, is peculiarly charming in its passage through Buxton and Hollis, giving here an alternation of picturesque falls and almost lake-like expanses. The route of the new boat is for about five miles along one of the latter.

WINDHAM.---John Webb, John C. Cobb, Alley Hawkes, H. H. Boody, S. M. Baker, Samuel Garland. UNDER WHICH KING? The issue between the two parties is practically made up. It is whether the Union shall be restored upon a just basis, with the rights of all sections and all citizens secured by impartial laws,—or whether it shall be restored as it was before the war, with one class of citizens permanently outlawed, and all civil and political power lodged in the hands of a privileged class, composed of the enemies of the Union and the authors of the war. One way leads to peace, unity, and enduring life; the other to discord, anarchy, and peril of certain death. The great mass of loyal people are in favor of the first way; every traitor and friend of traitors in the land is already hoarse with shouting for the second. Between the two there is ing for the second. Between the two there is no middle ground. If the President and his rebel host are right, as some recreant republi cans claim, then the war was in vain, the abo cans ciaim, then the war was in vain, the abolition of slavery was a high crime, and the party which supported the government through war can present no excuse for its existence. If, on the other hand, the great body of loyal party which has If, on the other hand, the great body of loyal people are right, then the party which has taken the President for its guide and triend is obviously wrong, and the triumph of its policy would be the signal for renewed war. For if "treason is a crime and not a mere difference of opinion," then those who have already taken treason and its champions into close political fellowship are sharers in the crime and to be shunned by all patriotic men. In this critical time every man who has influence or desires it, must show his colors. He cannot belong to both sides, nor march with safety between the two.—Worcester Spy.

The new constitution of Mis-

Q. Suppose Governor Fletcher, under pretence of carrying out the registry law, surrounds the polls with his militia and overawes the voters?

rounds the polls with his militia and overawes the voters?

A. Then apply to the Secretary of War.
Q. But our people will not apply to the Secretary of War.
A. Then apply to me. It is the duty of the President to protect citizens in their rights.

If the conflict thus foreshadowed is to be precipitated, it is evident we have not yet seen the worst usurpation of which Mr. Johnson is capable. For if it is a part of the "rights" of citizens to vote without regard to the conditions lawfully imposed by State authority, there is nothing to prevent the subversion of the elections in every State where these conditions exist; and New York, equally with Louisiana, may be set down as lost to the cause and republican government.

ORDERED OFF. Special Washington disatches of the 12th say; patches of the 12th say;

The legitimate results of the Johnson policy in New Orleans are developing themselves rapidly. A number of union refugees from that city have already reached here, having been compelled to leave their families and homes, in order to save their lives. They state that the Monroe-Johnson rebels have appointed a committee to notify union citizens to leave the city, and in proof thereof, exhibit the following printed notice, which is now being served on citizens suspected of loyalty to the Union:—

"To Mr.——:—Sir: You are hereby notified to leave this city within seventy-two hours. Your presence cannot be longer tolerated in this community.

STNATOR FESSENDEN. - Our distinguished enator has declined the invitation to addtess the citizens of Boston in Fancuil Hall, on account of his health. In a letter to the Republican City Committee, he says: "Debilitated by a long and most arduous session of Congress, and by repeated attacks of illness, I find myself under the necessity of suspending, as far as possible, all mental effort and avoiding excitement of any kiad. The recess is too short for attention to anything but my own physical improvement."

CAN'T REMEMBER. It has often been said figuratively that the South had forgotten the result of the war, and now it seems actually beginning to come to pass. The Mobile Register says, "When did Grant whip Lee? We recollect that he once smothered him to death with a quarter of a million of Irish and Dutch; but we never heard of Gen. Lee being whipped by anybody."

Grand Reunian

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS: I noticed in your issue of Saturday last, an article headed "Grand Plan for Literary and Artistic Re-union," over the signature of "Everett," about which I wish to say a word or two. The writer, whom I presume to be a member of one of the institutions, a part of whose property was destroyed by the late fire, proposes that the four corporate organizations in this city, known as the Athenaum, Society of tion and Maine Charitable Mechanic Associa-question, I wish briefly to examine the arrangements proposed in this "grand plan" Had this proposition been made before the fire, when each association had a house of its own, and each was in successful operation, it might have shown a greater degree of disinterested spirit and fairness; even now, it would be worthy their consideration did the plan as laid out, contemplate an equal interest in the benefits resulting therefrom, for all the institutions named. What, then, do we find? After parnamed, the Mechanic Association is to be asked to "donate" its large library to the concern, as a "nucleus" for a larger one, the benefits of which they are to be permitted to enjoy-"as citizens." In return for this charitable deed. they are very kindly to be allowed the privilege of "retaining all their other points of organization," and, it is to be hoped-managing their own vifairs as heretofore. (?) Now is not this a very generous and magnanimous proposition? "Everett" evidently nore could be desired?" Sure enough, what more? The Mechanic Association, the oldest of those named, and as respectable as any,holding more property, and having a greater fund than all the others combined, as well as in this "Grand Reunion," except that it may add to the general interest by donating its library for public use, but to have no hand whatever in its management. How very kind. The members of the Medo what they can to promote the interest of all classes in our city, but they are not, I apprehend, over desirous of occupying the posile," and all that; but it seems to me that the

Mr. Vallandigham's parlors at the Girard House have been well filled all the afternoon. He himself is in good spirits and a belligerent mood. He says that he is a regular delegate, offers to show his credentials to anybody wanting to see them, and swears that he will have a seat or break up the show. The anti-war faction is rallying around him, and anti-war faction is rallying around his as already said, the question of his ad of his admission is a leading subject Browning men declare in emphatic and some-what profane terms that he shall not be admit-ted, and several of the ex-soldier delegates say ted, and several of the ex-soldier delegates say they will protest and withdraw if he is. Mr. Blair and a majority of the Southern gentlemen seem somewhat non-committal on the matter. General Steedman, as the special friend of the President, has drawn up a resolution, which it is proposed to introduce as soon as the temporary presiding officer has taken his seat, the object of which is to exclude from participation all Southern men who were original secessionists and all Northern men who opposed the war. The history of thirty years answers. Its service consists in having strengthened, by every appeal to passion, ignorance and cowardice, the only aristocratic class in the United States, and an aristocracy founded upon the degradation of labor. Its service consists in a systematic debauchery of the national conscience; in a fierce denial of the fundamental principle of the Republic—the equality of rights; in an attempt, under the forms of law, and by means of blood and terror, to fasten slavery upon Kansas; and when the people, at last aroused to the fearful truth, constitutionally cast that party from power, its crowning service consists in rushing to arms, and seeking, by the most desperate and prolonged struggle, to overthrow the Government. The Democratic party, whose conspiracy against the equality of rights has been foiled both in the field and at the polls, now turns to the American people, who have been its spectators and victims, and informs them that it is the only safe and patriotic and conservative and conciliatory and Union-loving party in the land.

The Bangor Times is amusingly scornful over some comments in the Press on the origin of the New Orleans riot. In view of the enorthat that diabolical affair was the result of a pre-arranged and determined plan of the rebels, we think it will require more than the assertion of the Times to convince the people that the statements to that effect are "pure fabrications."
