

Just as Bad as Ever.

The Boy's Pa Becomes an Inventor, and Only a Pair of Cold Water Saves Him from Becoming a Bunter Offering.

[Puck's Sun.]

"Ha! ha! Now I have got you," said the grocer, as he looked at the other morning, as he came in and jumped upon the counter and tied the end of a ball of twine to the tail of a dog, and "sicked" the dog on another dog that was following a passing salver, causing the wine to pay out until the whole ball was scattered along the block.

"Cadenus you! I've a notion to choke the liver out of you. Who tied that twine to the dog's tail?"

The boy looked up with emotion, and the tears came into his eyes, and he said he didn't know anything about the twine or the dog. He said he noticed the dog come in and wag his tail round the twine, but he supposed he was a friend of the family, and did not disturb him.

"Everybody says everything that is done to me," said the boy, as he looked at the grocer's nose. "And they will be sorry for it when I die. I have a good notion to poison myself by eating some of your glucose sugar."

"Yes, and you do about everything else that is mean. The other day a lady came in and told me to send up to her house some of my country sausages, done up in muslin bags, and while she was examining them she noticed something hard inside the bags, and asked me what it was, and I opened one and I hope to die if there wasn't a little brass candle and a piece of red morocco dog collar imbedded in the sausage. Now, how do you suppose they got in there?" and the grocer man looked savage.

The boy looked interested, and put on an expression as though in deep thought, and finally said, "I suppose the grocer man that put up the sausage did not strain the dog's nose."

The grocer man looked at the boy for a half a minute, and then he said, "I have a good notion to poison myself by eating some of your glucose sugar."

He had a very robust look, suggestive of a displaced lion. As he was walking up the street a gentleman remarked: "That fellow is so highly colored that he reminds me of a 'chromo.'" "He reminds me of an engraving on a chromo," remarked a bystander. "How so?" "Well, you see, an engraving always has a glass in front of it and a chromo hasn't." -Texas Sitings.

No other preparation possesses such remarkable properties for embellishing and strengthening the hair and rendering it glossy. It cures baldness and eradicates dandruff. Burnett's Flavoring Extracts are the best.

A bank president left a Southern town the other day forever, without a cent of the bank's money with him. He died. -The Drummer.

The government must have taken a lesson from the Superior Courts of the Metropolitan Police. "Trust the warden," he said. "Not to do it wrong."

What is Diphtheria?
The name is comparatively new, but the disease is as old as itself. It is a condition of the throat something like croup, only worse, because it attacks the sufferer with such rapidity and in such a fatal manner. It is a disease which is violently inflamed, and a tough membrane, like leather, is very rapidly formed. PERRY DAVIS'S PAIN KILLER has cured thousands of cases of diphtheria. It acts promptly, and so efficiently, that no family can afford to be without it.

A remarkable honest Chicago doctor sent a certificate of death the other day with his name signed in the space reserved for "Cause of Death." It was "New Orleans Plague."

Congress Yeast Powder contains no alum ammonia, terra alba, or any other injurious ingredient, but is made from absolutely pure Oaking Tartar. It has the largest sale of any baking powder in Portland.
