A Mexican who had killed eight men was killed, the other day, in Monterey while trying to get away with the ninth. Some men want the earth.—The Drummer.

This is the season when the saloon keeper scatters a pound of sawdust and a few old cigar-stubs in his backyard and calls it a beer-park.—Philadelphia Chronicle-Herald.

Sanford's Ginger for weak nerves. The dirtiest man that you will encounter is the one that leaves a box of soap at your house for a few days. "Is it real good?" asked a lady of one of these soap-venders; and then, looking at him reflectively, she added, "But of course you wouldn't know anything about it."—Cincinnati Saturday Night.

POPULAR CLERGYMAN UNDER A

MULE. It was in the Yosemite, on a steep and rugged nountain road. The party numbered about a dozen, and the jolliest of all was a well-known dominie. Somehow or other his mule stumbled and rolled over and over, the dominie clinging fast to him. When they came to a stop the mule was on top. Both the dominie and the mule were badly brussed. One of the party happened to have a bottle of PERRY DAVIS'S PAIN KILLER. In a few hours they were ready to proceed on their journey.

Wednesday is tree-planting day and a holiday in Nebraska, and the governor of that State asks every citizen to set out at least one tree. After setting out one tree the theory is that, according to holiday custom, the average etizen will get full enough to make one look like an entire row.—Lowell Citizen.

No. 7. PINO-PALMINE About the most dangerous time of tho year for children. Strong ones get sick. Weak ones die. "Let them sleep all they will,"say the doctors. Good advice. But on what? Now you all say, "on a cool, dry, pure, invigorating bed." But neither feathers nor hair answers this description. They only irritate children and children's complaints. What then?

Let Mr. A. J. Cushing, 103 Oiney St., Providence, cak. Ehe says: "I bought a Fino Mattrees for by crib. She was troubled with Catarth. In less an a wock her breathing became casy and natural." Thousands of children just fret and pine away. They would grow fat in a pine woods. Well, take them there; or, which them. This is what

Mrs. J. N. Collard, of Chiconee, Mass., d'd. Sherites: "My little daughter suffered from debility and night-sweats. She grew weaker end thinner, bought one of your Pino mettresses for her. Sho icow well and hearty, which Lattribute to your clean y, fragrant, dry mattress. I recommend it to parents with foeble children." don't put it back into musty feathers and ted hair. Keep it healthy by nightly doses of aroma from a Pino-Palmine bed. Keep yourself well, too. There is no use contracting doctor bills when you can get along without them, by paying a little at-tion to your bed.

If there is no secret near you, send orders, with length and broadin of bed, to Agent Pine-Palmine Co. 115 Water St., Besten, Elass.
