It reads: "Upon the conclusion of the war in authorized to invite all the great governments of the world to send represents tives to a conference which shall be charged with the duty of suggesting as organization, a court of arbitration of ther body, to which disputed questio between nations shall be referred for adjudication and peaceful settlement and to consider the question of disarma ment and submit their recommendations to their respective governments for approval.

Thus this may become a great univer sal peace measure, for one may fairly ssume that European nations at the onclusion of the war may have an oper ear for a policy of economy and recup

Baltimore dairymen on Friday form ally refused to grant the raise in price of milk asked for by the Maryland and Pennsylvania Milk Producers' Associa tion. The refusal was based on the ground that only the eight larger dairymen would be bound by such an agree ment and the dozens of smaller dis tributors would be able to go into the market and buy cheaper, thus making it possible for them to undersell their mpetitors.

Undaunted by their temporary defeat officers of the association are actively engaged in perfecting and enlarging the organization so it may be able to do nore effective work later. Every milk shipper should join the organization be fore its next meeting. The officers feel in the comparatively near future.

Havre de Grace News.

Havre de Grace. Sept. 12th.—The fall race meet which began on Tuesday promises to be one of the largest which has been held here. There are many sutomobiles passing to and from the track that the dust is a serious nuisance.

Miss Stewart, of Baltimore, addressed an audience composed largely of women in the Baptist Church on Tuesday evening in the interests of the movement to abolish saloons. An organization was formed to help in the local work.

Dr. Joseph M. M. Grey, of St. Louis, was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Seneca. Dr. Grey, a few years ago, was pastor of the M. E. Church here, but went Westin response to a call. Kindergartners did a little better that any one else. The number taking part
