Offers Cooperation

In Cancer Campaign

TAMPA, Fla. — (FNS) — Malcolm Smith, State Commander of the Florida Division of the Field Army of the American Cancer Society, now conducting a nationwide drive for funds, announced this week that by special order of the Postmaster General, every Post Office in the country has been authorized to act as a receiving office for contributions to this worthy cause.

Anyone desiring to contribute, may do so by simply placing their contribution in an envelope addressed "Cancer" c/o your local post office and it will be promptly delivered to the State Headquarters of the American Cancer Society. It is necessary, however, to place a 3c stamp on your envelope when mailing.

Cancer is a much more dangerous national enemy than tuberculosis, infantile paralysis or any of the known contagious diseases. Thousands now doomed to die of cancer can be saved if funds are provided for educational and research work. A few dollars given to this cause may save the life of a loved one or even your own.

Leagues Reorganized

At a meeting of softball managers at the City Recreation Department Office last night the City League was reorganized and a Service Men's League set up. This is expected to result in a much better brand of softball than that which has been played at Bayview Park during March and April.

The City and Naval Civilian's League was represented by Petty McCullough of the American Legion, P. H. Higgs of Porter Place, J. M. Sartain of the Industrial Electric Shop, Lt. Dubbs of the Marines, Charles Patterson of the Panthers, "Buddy" Villarreal of the Miami Daily News, and Wayne Sheppard of the Aviation Civilians. The Service Teams were represented by Sgt. Harrison of Key West Barracks, E. G. Farley of the Navy Chiefs, J. B. Delaney of the NAS Enlisted, Lt. Commander Beswick of the Boca Chica Officers, Lt. G. W. Steuber of NAS Operations, Chief Flannery of the Naval All Stars from Boca Chica, and Corporal Manganello of the Army Battery "B."

A MAN FROM MARS, DEEP IN BRETTON WOODS

BY BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD.—When I chatted with Orson Welles on the "Tomorrow is Forever" set, it was not with Welles the actor, director, scenarist, producer or popular frightener, I addressed myself to Welles the columnist. Welles the columnist is a very earnest guy, dedicated to the chore of producing 600 readable words five times a week. He finds the job difficult.

"I wish I could write about people like you do," he said. "That would be easy." "What do you write about?" "Lately I have been concerned with the Bretton Woods and San Francisco Conferences." "Don't you have to do a lot of research on such subjects?" "Fortunately I have that done for me. That's where all the money goes. I could make a living from columning if I had time to do the research myself. But I have to spend too much of my time in this." He gestured to the movie set.

"Would you like to give up your other interests and merely write a column?"

"You don't merely write a column. It's hard work. But it is very satisfying work. Heaven knows I don't get any satisfaction from acting."

"No. There's no pleasure in standing for an hour while they focus the lights and cameras on you and then delivering your lines into a machine. Acting is not so bad on the stage because you have an audience to play to. But the camera acts like a blotter, soaking up any acting ability you might have."

He continued in the usual Wellesian non-stop manner. "I know of more good actors and actresses in Hollywood who are becoming worse and worse. No, thanks, I don't care to name them. But you take Margaret O'Brien. She is wonderful now. But by the time she's 60, she will have forgotten every good thing about acting she ever knew."

"I don't care for acting and, as a matter of fact, I have never been a success as an actor." "You'll find that the only good notices I ever got were for my work as director or writer. And those were the only things I got any pleasure from." "But columning—that is very satisfying." "I didn't want to disillusion him, so I sneaked away quietly."

AFTER V-E DAY: WAR ON OPTIMISM

By JACK STINNETT (City Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The Army, Navy, OPA, WPB, the White House and a dozen other government agencies have the war's biggest job of salesmanship to do. It is to sell the American home front on the fact that the end of war in Europe won't mean the end of the home front struggle.

This very day, officials in these departments and agencies are scurrying around to find convincing arguments that V-E Day will not dissolve price controls, manpower, regulations, shortages, Selective Service—all the host of wartime inconveniences.

Most of the pains for putting this argument over still are under the wraps of secrecy. I haven't found one official in any department or agency who will discuss them openly. I can only tell you that many of these officials are gnawed by fear that when the battle of Europe is won, home front energy will collapse.

There certainly is some basis for their fear. After the Normandy breakthrough the pressure for reconversion to civilian production was terrific. War workers quit jobs. Key men in agencies here started a retreat to civilian posts. War bond sales dropped. Enlistments in the WAC and other voluntary services hit a new low.

Then, not since Pearl Harbor had the home front had to do a greater flip-flop. The Nazis mounted a counter-offensive that threatened the whole western front. Stories of shortages of certain types of ammunition began to drift through. Reconversion not only had to be brought to a standstill, but abandoned war plants were reopened. Manpower shortages became so acute that for the first

HARRY M. LONES TAKING COURSE

(Special to The Citizen)

CHICAGO, April 26. — Harry M. Lones, Jr., seaman, second class, USNR, of Key West, is now stationed at the Atlantic Fleet's Amphibious Training Base at Little Creek, Va., taking the specialized invasion course for duty as boatswain's mate aboard a new LSM.

LSMs are powerful, 208-foot tank carriers which can speed through the vast stretches of the Pacific and roll their war machines directly onto the enemy's shores. Lones and his mates will soon take over one of the new landing ships and sail to join the Pacific onslaught.

Lones, whose wife lives at 1009 Watson street, entered the Navy in September, 1944, and went through recruit training at Great Lakes, Ill. He is the son of Harry M. Lones of 1119 Petronia street, Key West.

REVEALS STATE HAS 123 SEPARATE UNITS

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 26 (FNS). J. A. Murray, special Tampa Tribune correspondent at Tallahassee, in a feature article published in last Sunday's Tribune, reveals that Florida, now has in operation 123 separate state boards.

"So numerous have these separate organizations become," he states, "that one occasionally stumbles over another and well meaning servants of the people get into disputes with other well meaning servants of the people over their particular duties and privileges." "Occasionally," he points out, "the numerous employees of these independent bureaus and agencies, especially those that are somewhat politically minded, find it difficult to tell where one job ends and another begins."

NOW SHE SHOPS "CASH AND CARRY"

Without Painful Backache Many suffer relief from backache quickly once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be lined kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function prevents the kidneys from removing the acids, they may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, grinding up nights, swelling, pitiless under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait for your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney troubles flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Growers' WINES

NO BETTER WINE at any price!

Why? BECAUSE

- 1 The men who own the vineyards own the winery. The wine is our wine.
- 2 We grow the grapes best suited for desert wines—Port, Sherry and Muscatel—in the fertile valley of central San Joaquin, California.
- 3 We pick them when sun-ripened and fully matured—nature's assurance of flavor, aroma and bouquet.
- 4 We bottle all our wines at our winery in California.

Your satisfaction means our continued success.
