

Manhattan Traders

Believe In Signs

NEW YORK, Apr. 26.—The Indians left Manhattan long ago, but many of its merchants are still doing business by the use of signs. Particularly window signs.

The city's barbers, traditionally talkative, are just as glib in sign language. One upper Broadway barber displays this ludicrous lithograph: "We Cut Hair Only. We Do Not Shave. (Must look untidy!) We Do Not Sell Any Tonics. We Do Not Sell Any Treatments. We Have No Boot-black or Manicurist. We Cut Hair To Your Features."

A barber shop near Radio City explains: "Due to the large patronage of stage and radio personalities, we feature the Haircut that does not look like a Haircut. We do not use clippers." If

GIFT BIKE CAUSES DEATH

Pittsburgh, Pa.—So anxious to ride his birthday bicycle, Carl Huff, Jr., who would have celebrated his ninth birthday on Friday, April 13th, took the bicycle out for a ride the day before. On his first ride, he was struck by a truck and killed.

Clinches the deal with this jaw-buster: "Physiognomical Haircutting, 75 cents."

A Columbus avenue restaurant bewails: "No sugar, no meat, no butter, no oil, no heat, and no profit. If you want a square meal, join the Army"—and here commerce triumphs over consistency—"Or Eat Here."

One cafeteria recently parked this sign on its tables: "Gentlemen, please remove your hats. You can help us create an atmosphere which will attract some very desirable lady customers."

SOCIETY

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM OF CONVENT CONDUCTED AT USO LAST EVENING

Last evening at the USO, 1021 Duval street, was held a very beautiful and impressive function—the Junior-Senior Prom of the Convent of Mary Immaculate.

"On Top of the World" was the title of this formal event. The hall was beautifully decorated in the school colors of blue and gold. Around the base of the stage, on a blue background, marigolds were entwined to make the monogram C. M. I. There was a profusion of gladioli arranged in baskets on the tables and on the stage. At either end of the hall was a representation of the world with a girl graduate table likewise, had a globe and graduate, with pretty blue flowers around the base, the whole being arranged, on a reflecting mirror.

The Cavaliers furnished the music, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

The chaperones were Rev. J. Johnson, S. J., Lt. and Mrs. E. G. Firkins, and Mrs. Goldberg, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Burgert, Mrs.

REGARDING LANDINGS

DETROIT. — Naval estimates are that 5,000 beachings by landing craft are required to put 250,000 men on a hostile shore.

the other day, and started practicing. They sure are good at signalling, and most of all, swimming.

Sylvia Albury and her friend are out almost every afternoon to study and to play a little basketball.

NOTES OF SOUTH BEACH

By PEDRO AGUILAR

Sue Cretella, the Connecticut Yankee, who has spent more than five years at the beach, is now a full fledged Conch, and thoroughly enjoys the activities at the sea shore.

G. S. Mabry of the Navy is out at the beach every time he gets a chance, which is pretty regular. He sure likes his sun tan, and the beautiful view at the beach.

Lloyd H. Smith, C. S. K. is also a regular caller at the beach, and evidently has some great attraction there.

Millard Keye is out every day, and he was seen presenting a young Miss at the beach with a corsage of beautiful orchids. Well, it must be orchids to you, Keye.

I wonder who the two beautiful sisters are that come out to the beach every day, and why they are so sad since Lee went away, and Larry also left. It is hoped that both will return soon and gladden the hearts of the dear girls.

WOULD RELIEVE OVER-CROWDING OF HOSPITAL

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26 (FNS). Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, veterans' administrator, told a Florida Congressional delegation this week that he will act immediately to relieve overcrowding at the Bay Pines Veterans' Hospital.

Hines told Representatives Peters, Sikes and Senator Pepper he will submit to the budget director estimates of the cost for constructing additional buildings at Bay Pines.
