

Mort Captures Victory Saturday Night In Key West Kennel Club Action

Tenny C. To Seek Fifth Win Of Current Meeting Tonight

R. K. Hutchings' Mort, a heavy favorite among the fans, regained his winning ways Saturday night when he captured an easy, six and a half length victory in the feature race at the Key West Kennel Club.

The win marked the seventh of the season for the four year old speedster. He was satisfied with running second throughout the greater part of the race and then forged into the lead at the three-quarter pole and won going away with a tremendous burst of speed.

Maynard and Spring Festival, both put forth good efforts to finish second and third respectively.

The winner paid 3.80, 2.60 and 2.20. Maynard returned 4.00 and 2.80 while Spring Festival paid 3.80.

Renegade came through with a win in the second feature of the evening, a Marathon over the 3-8 mile distance.

The winner was pulling at the finish to edge Tumble Time and Forward.

The Daily Double Saturday night, paid $2.40 while the first race Quiniela returned 119.00.

In tonight's feature, Tenny C., who ran a good second last week in the Key West Medley Stakes, will go to the post in what promises to be a three-cornered duel between Hazy Moon and Julianne.

Owned by the Ed Wulf Kennel, which has produced a host of winners to date, Tenny C. will be seeking her fifth win of the campaign.

Other entries include Exciting, Hour, Foot Hill, Brindle Comer, and Navy Diver.

Robinson Lauds His Replacement

By JACK HAND
SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—The kid who chased Jackie Robinson off second base is a 24-year-old Negro from Nashville by the name of James (Junior) Gilliam, fresh from the Montreal farm.

In fact, Gilliam still is on the Montreal roster, pending final action by the Brooklyn brass. They want to be sure before they make their move.

Manager Charley Dressen is almost as sure as you can be at this stage of a spring training season.

"If he continues as he has up to now, he's got to play second base," said Dressen. "Hitting is the only question. If he can hit .260, he can help us. He looks like a fine leadoff man."

Robinson, moved out of his regular job by Gilliam, has this to say about the newcomer:

"He can get balls that I can't touch any more. If he hits .275, I think the club will be strongest with him at second base. He is fast. He has a good arm. The only question to me is the double play man—yet."

Gilliam, a switch hitter, is getting his big chance after only two years of organized ball—both at Montreal. Last year he hit .301 and was named the most valuable player in the International League. He isn't exactly a novice at the game, having played in the Negro leagues since 1945, when he was only 16.

"It seemed like I always was fooling around a ball park," he said. "Down home in Nashville, us kids always were hanging around Sulphur Dell. That's where I started with Nashville in the Negro Southern League in 1945. "Next year I went up to Baltimore, where I live now, and played with the Elite Giants. I was there for five years until Brooklyn bought me."

Patty Berg Faces Tough Battle

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Veteran Patty Berg faces the final round of the $3,500 New Orleans Women's Open golf tournament today with her one-stroke lead threatened by a wrist ailment and a formidable field.

The St. Andrews, Ill., campaigner took over top spot in yesterday's second round with a par 77, giving her a 36-hole total of 151.

Babe Zaharias of Tampa, Fla., pulled into second place with 152 after yesterday's one-under par 76. Jackie Pung, the buxom Hawaiian playing out of Glasgow, Ky., went into the final round of the 54-hole tournament determined to regain the lead she held after the first round.

Mrs. Pung, who held a two-stroke lead over Miss Berg and Mrs. Alice Bauer Hagge with a first-round 72, saw her margin vanish in the second round. She finished with an 81 for a two-round total of 153.

The tournament is being played over the flat, 6,476-yard City Park Course No. 1. The women are playing from men's tees on all but two holes and are playing against a par 77, five more than men's.

Indian, Giant Pennant Wins Seen By Scribes

By ED CORRIGAN
AP Sportswriter

If you want to take the word of the experts, the Cleveland Indians and the New York Giants are the teams that will win the major league pennants if the New York Yankees and the Brooklyn Dodgers falter.

The Indians this spring have been playing the kind of baseball one would expect of a pennant contender. But then, the Indians had many observers convinced they would take the Yankees last spring.

They always seem to look good in the training season. But there's always that one year that would be the one. Al Lopez' team now has won six in a row from major league opposition, including yesterday's 15-3 slaughter of the Giants. They also hold a 6-2 lead in the series with Leo Durocher's operations.

The Giants, on the other hand are fair game for the viewers with alarm. They've been playing poorly as the statistics will show. There's no need to go through the entire list. Suffice it to say they have lost their last five games and 10 of their last 12 against major league opposition.

And Durocher doesn't even have his lineup set. He still had Hank Thompson in center field yesterday, and it's pretty generally agreed that Hank can't make the grade. Bobby Hofman played second base and Davey Williams pinch hit.

The Giants pulled out of Phoenix today and they play the Indians in eight states before arriving at the Polo Grounds.

Durocher, who has been spending most of the spring denying that he was worried about the performance of the Giants, made no bones about being displeased with the barrage to which three of his pitchers were subjected. All told, Al Corwin, Hoyt Wilhelm and Reuben Gomez were pounded for 17 hits, including two home runs, two triples and three doubles. They also gave up nine bases on balls.

The Dodgers and Yanks, meanwhile, went at each other as though the World Series were at stake in St. Petersburg, with the Brooks winning out, 1-0, to pull even in the exhibition series, 2-all. Johnny Podres and Joe Black held the world champions to five singles while Jim McDonald went all the way for the Yanks.

The Dodgers made only four hits and their one run came about in the second inning when Jackie Robinson walked, went to third on a double by George Shuba and scored when Roy Campanella grounded out.

The Detroit Tigers, who are playing like anything but tailenders, defeated the Boston Red Sox, 11-7, for their 11th victory against five defeats in Grapefruit League competition.

The Washington Senators, with Jackie Jensen hitting a home run and two singles to raise his batting average to .407, defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 10-7.

It took an assist in the form of four errors, but the St. Louis Cardinals, who have been having their troubles all spring, stopped the Cincinnati Reds, 9-4.

Harry Byrd, who is trying to work his way out of the Philadelphia A's doghouse, took a step in the wrong direction when he went all the way against the Philadelphia Phils and was clubbed for a 10-7 loss.

The Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Browns divided a doubleheader. The Browns won the first, 6-4, on three runs in the ninth, while the Pale Hoos, behind Tommy Byrnes' six-hit pitching took the nightcap—a seven-inning affair—5-3.

Tramp Athlete Passes From American Scene

By HAL BOYLE

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—The tramp athlete is passing out of the sports picture.

The top professional athletes today often have business brains as well as muscle, and when old Father Time finally forces them out of competition they can retire gracefully with a nice nest egg to start a fresh career.

Typical of these new businessmen-athletes is Otto Graham, 31-year-old star quarterback of the Cleveland Browns football team, who is vacationing here with his pretty wife, Beverly.

Tossing touchdown passes is Otto's specialty — he has thrown more than 100 in his seven-year career as a pro—and they net him about $20,000 a season.

Some athletes with an income like that would be content to spend the rest of the year fishing—or just plain resting. But not Otto. He is active in a food packaging concern and acts as assistant branch manager in Cleveland for a life insurance company.

"When I do drop out of professional football, I'll just go a little deeper into life insurance," he said.

"I figure you can't compete in football much after 35 at the latest, and I don't want to play after I've passed my peak."

Otto already has outlasted the ordinary athlete's competitive lifetime because he takes almost religious care to keep in shape.

"I don't drink or smoke, and never have," he said. "I don't say that drinking or smoking in moderation hurts an adult athlete—but they can't possibly do him any good either."

Graham is so sold on the virtues of proper conditioning that he makes 40 to 50 speeches a year on the subject to high school groups.

A six-foot 200 pounder, Graham keeps fit with golf during the off season. He is handsome, boyish looking, and despite his size resembles the music teacher he once wanted to be more than a professional athlete.

His passion for keeping in perfect condition has paid off. He rarely has been hurt, never has missed playing in a game during his seven years as a pro.

"Of course, a quarterback does not have to take as many knocks as some of the other players," he said, grinning.

"Athletics has been very good to me. It keeps a man down to earth. And playing a sport really teaches you the things you have to know in business—how to get along with people, how to cooperate with the other fellow."
