Conch JV's Down Miami Tech 15-0 For 3rd Win

Key West Is Unscored On For Season

The Key West High School Jay Vee football team maintained its unbeaten and unscored on record Saturday night, when they defeated the Miami Tech B squad, 15-0, in the high school stadium.

In a game marked by fast offensive action, the Conchs gained a verdict by a wider margin than the score would indicate.

Earlier, the Conchs had scored 19-0 and 25-0 victories over Hialeah and Miami Beach respectively.

The clubs battled it out on even terms the closing moments of the first period when Paul Higgs faded back to the Tech 48 and tossed a running pass to end Earl Weech who caught it on the 23 and went who caught it the as an well-over standing up for the first Key West score. Another pass, from Higgs to Wayne Albury, was good for the extra point and the Conchs had a 7-0 lead.

The teams battled back and forth in the second quarter with neither squad giving much ground until shortly before the halftime whistle when the Conchs got a 60 yard drive underway. Doug Allen and tiny Johnny Williams paced the Conch running assault. Higgs finally broke off tackle from the nine vard line for the second Key West
