dun Front

BY UNITED PRESS.

PETROGRAD, June 30.—The Germans have begun a series of sudden violent attacks against General Kurapatkin's entire front from Riga through Jacobstadt to Ovinak. It is believed Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is launching a new offensive in an effort to divert Russian troops from the Galician and Volhynian campaign.

BY UNITED PRESS.

PARIS, June 30.—The newspaper Echo de Paris declared today that the Russians have captured the important Galician railway city of Kolomea.

PARIS, June 30.—The Germans last night shifted their attack back to the west bank of the Meuse and delivered several violent attacks preceded by liquid fire, between Avocourt and Hill 304, the war office announced.

All these attacks were repulsed, the enemy suffering frightful losses, but east of Hill 304 the Germans carried the first line of a fortified work in which all the French occupants had been buried. The French recaptured the work by a most brilliant counter-attack.

THAW IS GIVEN CROSS OF LEGION

American Aviator Highly Honored by French; Toledo Man Wounded

BY UNITED PRESS.

PARIS, June 30.—Lieut. William Thaw, American flyer with the Franco-American corps, has been decorated with the Legion of Honor, and Sergt. Kiffin Rockwell and Corp. Bert Hall awarded the military medal for bravery in action. The three Americans were officially commended for daring services.

William M. Barber, of Toledo, O., member of the American ambulance, has been wounded at the front.

Auto Workers to Hold Picnic.
More than 4,000 employees of the Detroit and Walkerville plants of the Studebaker corporation are expected to attend the annual picnic on Sugar Island Saturday. The Grayhound and Waukeeta have been chartered for the trip. The boats will leave Detroit at 8:30 o'clock, and returning, the first is scheduled to depart at 5:30 o'clock.

EL PASO, Tex., June 30.—Only the return of the horses and weapons belonging to the 25 released American prisoners was expected here today to close the Carrizal incident. However, the return of the Negro troopers, their reception by large crowds and their stories of Carranza soldiers killing the American wounded and robbing the captured still was the popular topic.

That he had passed several wounded and later saw them dead with fresh bullet wounds in their bodies was the statement of Trooper Archie Jones, supported by William Gibson and Luther Alexander, who also reported being robbed of several hundred dollars of their army savings and jewelry. Alexander, wounded in the shoulder, declared he did not receive prompt or proper medical attention.

In the transfer of the prisoners on the Santa Fe, international bridge to Gen. Bell, the return of another Carrizal here was almost entirely overlooked by El Pasoans.

When the Golden State limited from the west pulled into union station, an officer in soiled khaki alighted, his arm in a sling. With tears streaming down his cheeks and a cry of joy, a little woman in a dark blue traveling suit rushed up to the officer. They embraced, while scores of curious passengers hesitated as they hurried for their trains. Apparently pale and weak from hardships, the officer patted the little woman on the back while he kissed him.

He was Capt. Lewis S. Morey, of the Tenth cavalry. The little woman in blue was his wife, who was at first informed that her husband had probably been killed. They were driven to a hotel and acted like honeymooners. The Moreys expect to remain here several days before going to San Antonio.

Many Applications For Relief Received In Armory

News that the quartermaster's division of the war department had telephoned the Packard Motor Co., Thursday afternoon, to recruit a large number of motor truck drivers, mechanics and cooks for Mexican border service brought a swarm of applicants to J. H. Weller, superintendent of labor for the plant, Friday morning.

Before 8 o'clock 115 men eager to serve in one capacity or another had applied and they were still coming. Drivers were submitted to a test of their skill on the company's driveway, under expert supervision, and of the large number of applicants for service in the various departments, only four were rejected. Mr. Weller expects to have the required force in readiness to depart by Saturday night, 200 strong.

These recruits are not enlisted men. They are government employees, working under contract.

ties must be met, and contributions, which are preferred in the form of monthly pledges, will be received by Sergt. Maj. Erwin and Robert Clancy. They have headquarters in the armory.

Mayor Marx has volunteered a $10 per month contribution to the fund, and heads of departments, deputies and secretaries in the city hall will donate $5 per month. American flag buttons will be distributed among donors of the fund. Thomas E. Dolan, superintendent of the poor commission, will be in charge of the investigation of applications for relief, and Drs. W. O. Merrill and Alexander W. Blain have volunteered their services for such medical work as the relief committee may require. Large numbers of applicants still are applying for enlistment in Battery C, the officers of which greatly appreciate the voluntary service of Drs. J. B. McMillan, Carr, Myll, Larsen, Eugene Smith, Jr., Brinkmann, Spitzley, Grimes, Clark and Wallenberg. Dr. McMillan has supervision of examinations.

President Accepts Invitation to Make Speech In Detroit

BY UNITED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—President Wilson sent a telegram accepting an invitation to speak before the Salesmanship congress at Detroit, Mich., July 10. The only thing that would cause him to break the engagement would be a fresh outbreak in the Mexican situation.

Another large section of western Canada is to be added to the "dry" column at midnight tonight when Province-wide prohibition will become effective in Alberta.

BISHOP LAYS CORNERSTONE

New Head of Detroit Methodists Is Tendered Ovation
At Tabernacle

More than 300 laymen and a large number of Methodist ministers attended the ceremony of laying the cornerstone of the $125,000 church house of Simpson Tabernacle church Thursday evening. Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, newly-ordained head of the Detroit area of the Methodist church, assumed the dedicatory function, this being his first official act in the diocese.

In the receptacle for documents was placed a copy of the Detroit Times. The program included a short address by the Rev. Dr. D. H. Ramdell, of Ann Arbor; a prayer by the Rev. Charles Bronson Allen, of Detroit; a talk by the Rev. Howard Field, of Flint, formerly pastor of Simpson church, and an address by the Rev. E. D. Dimond, present incumbent.

Thursday night, at the banquet of the Methodist union, held in the tabernacle, Bishop Henderson, who made a brief address, in which he complimented the members of the union upon the many fine properties owned in the city, was accorded an ovation. He made a strong plea for evangelism on the part of the Methodist laymen, and boosted the fall engagement of Billy Sunday. After the banquet he left for his summer home in Sugar Hill, N. H. He will take up his residence in Detroit in the early fall.

LONDON, June 30.—Counsel for Sir Roger Casement, yesterday condemned to death for treasonable activities in Ireland and Germany, last night announced that Sir Roger, if appeal fails, will ask to be beheaded rather than hanged.

Sir Roger's dramatic address to the court, made after the jury had found him guilty, is the subject of considerable comment here, some of which is sympathetic.

Some of the prisoner's most striking remarks follow:
"If true religion rests on love, it is equally true that loyalty rests on love. The law I am charged under has no parentage in love and claims that allegiance of today on the ignorance and blindness of the past. I am being tried in truth, not by my peers of the living present, but by the fears of the dead past; not by the civilization of the twentieth century, but by the brutality of the fourteenth; not even by a statute framed in the language of the land (Continued on Page Two)

Washington Believes

MILITIA STILL

By ROBERT J. BENDER.

(Staff Correspondent United Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Danger of war with Mexico is waning fast, officials believed today, as President Wilson awaited the reply from Gen. Carranza to his note threatening "grave consequences" if the American expedition was attacked.

But, despite this belief, militiamen continued to pour steadily southward toward the border. The administration is by no means certain that it may not have early need for the troops.

A United Press dispatch from Mexico City, stating that Carranza's reply was about completed, was read with interest at the White House. The president hopes to have the communication in his hands possibly before he addresses the New York City Press club tonight.

The Mexico City dispatches, reporting the belief there that the Carranza reply will avert war, buoyed up hopes for a peaceful settlement. The arrival of the American prisoners in El Paso and the (Continued on Page Two)

MEXICO CITY, June 30.—The foreign office has practically completed the reply to the last American note. It may be given out within a few hours. The general belief is that the reply will be conciliatory and will relieve the possibility of war between Mexico and the United States.

The majority of well informed persons in the capital believe that there will be no hostilities. They base this belief not only on their knowledge of developments here, but on the attitude of Wall-st. and London financial interests likely to be affected by war.

Belief in a peaceable outcome is strengthened by Gen. Trevino's report that the American troops have evacuated Nampulpa, which had been their base, and other points in Mexico, retiring northward. These places were immediately occupied by constitutional troops.

As further evidence of the desire on the part of Mexican officials for friendly relations, it was pointed out that the American application for the delivery of bodies of soldiers killed at Carrizal met with an (Continued on Page Two)

Troopers in Mexico Breaking Camp for a Move

Uncle Sam's troopers in Mexico, breaking camp preparatory to a move. It would seem there would be much confusion with so much to be done, but camp is broken systematically, each soldier having a certain duty to perform and a certain way to pack his equipment. The picture shows the soldiers, when they are to remain at one camp any length of time, pitch their tents over foundations they build of adobe mud and stones.
