LIFE IN WASHINGTON. The Reign of Crime and Rowdyism in the District.

Correspondent Bullimere Gar Crime and rowdyism are increase upon better terms than ever before ing in Washington to an extent almost unparalleled in the history of any other city the in country. Crimes which curdle one's blood are of such frequency that in the suburbs of the city mothers are afraid to trust their jewelry, watches, wood and willow daughters, even infants, beyond the ware, ever in Canton. protection of the parental roof. Notwi hstanding the swift justice which has lately followed the perpetration of such outrages, they are on the increase. In this week two cases are recorded, where white children, under twelve years of age, were the victims of negro outrage. Indeed. there is scarce a day passes in which for sale cheap, C. L.
