

MILACA ZEPHYRS.

MILACA, Sept. 8, 1891.

A case of diphtheria is reported at Mrs. Jay's house.

Miss Mabel Knapp is visiting friends at Monticello.

G. O. Jahr returned from the lake, on a short visit, yesterday.

Mr. F. Henderickson is building a neat little residence on B avenue.

Mrs. A. Rudquist is very sick at present and not expected to live.

Mannul Waldhoff, of Foreston, passed through town last Monday.

Rev. Taylor is the proud father of a boy, born last Tuesday morning.

Mrs. H. C. Hines is enjoying a visit to her old home in North Dakota.

Miss Mary Wilts, of Oak Park, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Sylvester.

Wm. E. Lee is now travelling salesman for the Mille Lacs Lumber Co., and a Mr. Whitback is now manager here.

The upper room in the school house is being thoroughly finished and hereafter we will have a graded school, which is sadly needed.

We were glad to meet Frank Libby, sr., one of the solid home-steaders of the lake region, upon our streets yesterday. He was on his way to attend court in Princeton.

We are glad to notice that the firm of Wood Bros. have established a permanent business as eye and ear specialists, in Fergus Falls. Louis Wood of our town is one of the company.

The people of Milaca sadly feel the need of a mail route between here and the lake region, and nothing we are sure would accommodate more people for little money than this.

A magic lantern entertainment was given by a couple young men at the church last Friday and Saturday nights. Views from the old world. Everyone speaks well of these two gentlemen and their views.

John Scretting, postmaster of Opstead, this county, was in town yesterday. He brought a few bushels of wheat which he raised on his claim which is as fine a grade of wheat as we have seen for some time.

A "tribe" of Indians are exhibiting grotesque capers in front of the Milaca House, nightly. They have medicine to sell, and by the number of patrons they have it would seem that a certain class of people are not yet dead.

M. P. Meigs admits that his band does need a little more practice, but he says that just as soon as he gets the howl out of his mouth he can sing very sweetly. He wishes us to say, however, that he never turns to the "title page" of a music book to finish his song.

The Mille Lacs Lumber Co. have sold about 40 farms to old country people, who are now on their way here. The Company will build houses for these people upon their farms and are now doing so. In about ten days the population of Mille Lacs county will be augmented by about 300 Scandinavian settlers.

SPENCER BROOK ITEMS.

SPENCER BROOK, Sept. 8, 1891.

The prairie wolves are numerous here and can be heard howling almost any night.

Walker Bros. and Will Barton joined drives on a car load of cattle and hogs last Monday.

Charlie Merrill is in this vicinity threshing, also Andrew Lundeen. They are good men for that business.

Miss Ida King commenced a term of school in district No. 12, last Monday, and Miss Emma Chapman the same day in the German settlement.

A. G. Nicholas, Chas. Cleverly, Sid Chilson and Will Nicholas were up river hunting bee's last week. Don't know what success they had. The woods are full of bees and hunters.

Mike Dean, proprietor of the Central Hotel at Hinkley, and two Swede men were here chicken hunting two days last week, also Charley Johnson and Mr. Hopwood from Minneapolis. They got a fine lot of the feathery tribe.

Freeland Bockoven, John Ole-son, J. Chapman and Gus Smith went up on Bogus Brook last week hunting bees, and found five bee trees and had a royal good time. While there they found a number of sections of land with beautiful hay meadows. The up-land is well adapted to tame hay.

If some of our young men that are roaming around or spending their time in the city would settle on such lands they could in a few years become independent.

J. R.

SOUTH HARBOR NOTES.

SOUTH HARBOR, Sept. 3, 1891.

Frost has made its appearance back from the lake.

Messrs. VanCourt and Baker have gone to Princeton to prove up on their fine claims.

A. C. Wilkes and family have gone to Milaca. Mr. Wilkes is called to attend court in Princeton.

Messrs. Kelly and Degan have finished haying, having put up about thirty tons of splendid hay.

H. H. Mansur, the Elk River photographer, has been spending a few days around the lake taking views.

The odd section question seems to be the only drawback that retards extensive improvements around here.

It is expected that before cold weather South Harbor can boast of a steam saw mill, as preparations are now being made to secure one.

The Robbins' correspondent has been misinformed in regard to the burning of the haying camp on the big meadow. No supplies were burned to amount to anything, neither was the crew obliged to quit on account of the burning of the camp, they worked six days after the camp was burned.

BACH-E-LOR.

I have opened my photograph gallery in Princeton and am prepared to do work equal to the best. Baby photos a specialty. Copying, enlarging, ink, oil and water colors done to order. Prices reasonable and good work guaranteed, rain or shine. Give me a trial.
