FREER.

All kinds of weather for the last ten days.

William Mitchell called at the post office Tuesday morning.

Messrs Crooks and Riester made a business trip to Foreston last week.

Mr. Cox from Rutledge, was calling on Luther Jones one day last week.

G. W. Freer has moved his family to the forty just west of his old homestead.

Henry Peterson, Aaron Rister and John Humphrey left for the pineries last Sunday where they expect to get work for the winter.

Judge Freer, of Princeton, and another gentleman called on us Monday. Mr. Freer was on his way to visit his son, G. W. Freer.

Mr. W. F. Bechdel has moved on to the farm he bought of G. W.
Freer. He brought a man along with him from the city to assist him.

Messrs Carlson, and Selander made a trip to Minneapolis last week for repairs for their mill.
They report but few idle men in the city. What is the matter?

The Norwegian Ladies society held their annual sale of fancy articles at Andrew Hommes' one week ago last Saturday night and when they counted up their cash it amounted to over $40.

The dance given by Jas. Robison in his hall on Thanksgiving night is reported to have been a success and the supper served by Mr. Vernon's people, could not be excelled. So say the boys.

J. P. Selander, of Princeton, passed through our town last Saturday afternoon on his way west and returned Sunday afternoon on his way home. We will not tell you what his business west was.

F. B. Jones, of Pease, was down last week to make arrangements with the boys to build an addition to their building, and as soon as it is finished Mr. and Mrs. Jones will move down and relieve the boys of having to cook their own meals, although the boys are good cooks.

BOGUS BROOK.

Judging from our nice summer weather, the almanac must be considerable ahead of time.

Miss Hilda Larson, of Minneapolis, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson since Friday last.

Quite a few minks and muskrats are suffering the loss of their fur.
Trappers in this vicinity report good success.

Several complaints of the grip has been made lately, but so far none of the cases have been of very dangerous form.

The use of dynamite in extracting the stumps from the earth is getting quite common now. The reports of the explosive stuff are heard from all directions.

Some interesting and instructive facts bearing upon the subject of immigration have been brought by the investigations of the industrial commission in New York city recently. One of these was the statement of an immigration official that during the years 1880 to 1890 45 per cent of the arrivals at the port of New York, or nearly 2,000, 000 persons, announced their destination as the metropolis itself. This of course could not be true, for the population of New York increased only 400, 000 in the years stated, but there was enough truth in it to show the tendency of immigration. It was also stated by the immigration officers that the pa-drene system is still a feature of Italian immigration in spite of all efforts to break it up, and that assisted immigration is still an evil that shows signs of no material abatement. To these sources we owe, it was said, a large and continuous infusion of the pauper and criminal classes in our population.
