

State News.

The business men of Moorhead are organizing a commercial club.

Breckenridge has built a new hospital and will dedicate it on May 3.

Six majority for license out of a vote of 1,005 was the result of the election in Little Falls.

Mrs. J. H. Kessler of Breckenridge was burned by the explosion of a lamp and died a few days ago.

The hospital for the insane at Fergus Falls will be supplied with water from a new well 42 feet deep.

St. Cloud is infected with governorship seeds. Senator Ripley P. Brower is the first sprig to start this spring.

A new postoffice has been established at Moose Island, Stevens county, Minnesota, and Ernest H. Pusher appointed postmaster.

An immense dam is being built at International Falls, on Rainy lake river to preserve the depth of water in the lake and improve navigation of the river.

Conditions are favorable all over the State for seeding operations. This is especially the case in the Red River valley, where it was too wet last year.

Breckenridge has voted $3,500 bonds to pay off the indebtedness incurred for waterworks and electric lights. Public improvements come cheap at four per cent interest.

Partridge Bros. dry goods store at Tracy, Minn., was broken into last week and robbed of $500 worth of silk. It is supposed that the thieves took refuge in the twin cities.

An Anoka man has agreed to build a starch factory at Henning, Otter Tail county, on condition that a bonus of $3,500 be given him and contracts made for 700 acres of potatoes.

On the 14th inst. a fire of unknown origin destroyed the downtown warehouse of the Keller Manufacturing Co. Several thousand dollars' worth of cutters and fine lumber was consumed. Partial insurance was carried.

Julius Kieck of Turtle Lake, charged with threatening to kill his family, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid rather than fall into the sheriff's hands. Kieck was the father of sixteen children, only eight of whom are living.

J. M. Haven, the Big Lake banker, is receiving many flattering suggestions of a possible candidacy for vice president of the Minnesota Bankers' association, at its next annual meeting, to be held at Lake Minnetonka this summer.

Action has been brought in the district court for $20,000 damages by Thomas Daly against the Northwestern Telephone company and C. B. & Q. company. Daly alleging that he had been injured by loose wires that pulled him from his wagon.

A rural telephone company has been organized at Big Lake, with a capital stock of $50,000. The officers are as follows: President, J. M. Haven; vice-presidents, J. C. Jacobson, George Patterson; secretary and treasurer, Chas. F. Knapp; manager, J. A. Gutzler.

Work will soon begin on the rebuilding of the government dam on Pine river near Cross lake. It is expected that it will take 250 to 300 men from two to three years to complete the work. The new structure will be of concrete and steel and will be made larger than the old one and built to withstand the ravages of centuries.

Warrants have been issued by County Attorney Loud of Bemidji, for five men accused of timber stealing from State lands. The issuance of the warrants is the result of the quiet work of Attorney H. T. Bevans of St. Paul, special attorney for the State auditor's office, and D. E. Elliot, Robert Wilson and Lafayette Shaw, State cruisers.

William Fairburn, a deputy game warden went to Spicer to protect the fish in Green lake and had made several arrests when the tables were turned and he was arrested by the sheriff, charged with carrying concealed weapons. It is claimed that the deputy was attacked by several men with shot guns and that he drew a revolver to protect himself.

The State game and fish commission has secured seventy-five ring-necked or Mongolian grouse for propagation purposes. It is proposed to turn the birds loose in different sections of the State and have a closed season of five years. These grouse multiply rapidly and will furnish a large amount of game. The same plan has been worked successfully in the state of Oregon.

There is something of consternation among the traders on the Indian reservations who have been selling fish and game by virtue of traders' licenses, issued by the Indian department at Washington, by reason of the announcement from Washington that the new commissioner of Indian affairs, Mr. Leupp, has issued an order forbidding the purchase of venison, partridges and fish from the Indians, and also forbidding the reds to sell their game and fish and the superintendents of Indian schools are by virtue of the same order told to discontinue furnishing the inmates of the schools with venison and fish bought in this manner. It has been the custom of the government, for several years past, to buy game and fish from the Indian and trader, under contract.

The westward movement of homeseekers is said to be considerably lighter than it was a year ago. Inquiries for settlers' and homeseekers' rates are few at the offices of the transcontinental lines and it is thought that many are waiting for the reduction of rates which will take place May 23, on account of the Lewis and Clark exposition at Portland, Oregon, which opens June 1.

Labor disturbances throughout the iron ranges are becoming serious and business depression has followed the closing of the mines. Incendiary literature is being circulated by the Socialists and C. G. Kennington, the first miner imprisoned during the Colorado strike, addressed a mass meeting, appealing to the strikers to continue the fight. Political capital was made of the refusal of the authorities to grant the use of the city hall. The government and authorities were heavily scored.

Henry Heck, a prisoner in the county jail at Long Prairie committed from Staples on the charge of highway robbery, escaped from the building, and no trace of him yet has been discovered. The sheriff had permitted him to go out into the corridor to take a bath, and while the prisoner was thus engaged, the sheriff went to the postoffice for his mail. When he returned the man had gone. The door leading to the jail part of the building was locked with the key on the inside, as Heck had left it when he departed.

The discovery of the body of a baby a month old, buried in the sawdust near a saw mill at Sauk Rapids, has created something of a sensation in that little town. The discovery was made by men working about the mill one day last week. The men said nothing about the discovery, but instead dug a hole in the ground and buried the body. The superintendent of the mill learned of the finding of the body. He questioned the workmen who found it and was considerably excited when he learned what they had done with it. They pointed out the spot to him where the body is buried, and it is now covered by a huge pile of green lumber.

Bethel settlement of Minneapolis is to have a new building, fully equipped, as the gift of Charles S. and John S. Pillsbury. The new building will be a memorial to Charles A. and Mary A. Pillsbury, parents of the donors. The Messrs. Pillsbury in their letter offering the gift, said they would wish to place a tablet with a suitable inscription in the building and that they would be pleased to have the family name incorporated in the name of the institution. The Pillsbury offer is of $40,000 to purchase a site and erect and equip a building. It is conditioned on the raising of a permanent trust fund of $20,000 for the maintenance and repair of the building. It is provided that the plant shall be operated as a social settlement by Plymouth church alone or in co-operation with other Congregational churches of the city. A majority of the board of managers is to be chosen from Plymouth.

A Great Railroad Station.
The plans for the New York Central's new station in New York city have just been made public. They involve the use of an area equal to over nineteen city blocks, between Forty-second and Fifty-seventh streets Madison and Lexington avenues. There will be three levels, the suburban trains entering on the lowest level. At first the station will have something like fifty-two railroad tracks. We are getting so used to things on a big scale that we are not surprised at anything, yet the achievements of golden grain belt here in building up strong bodies and strong minds are truly astonishing. If you haven't a case in your home, better order to-day of your nearest dealer or be supplied by Henry Veidt, Princeton.

Read This to the Girls.
The author is unknown to us, but he certainly knew what to say: "Don't hang around the depot unless you are going away or are there to meet friends. Don't go to the postoffice and shove around in a miscellaneous crowd. Don't go to church and take a back seat with your escort and whisper and giggle throughout the sermon. Don't be loud and boisterous and slangy. Stand on your dignity and don't form acquaintances too quickly. Don't carry your heart on your sleeve. Be womanly, modest and thoughtful at all times. Don't lose woman's sweetest charms."

PERTAINING TO EDUCATION.

A Few Matters of Interest to the Progressive Educational Worker.

A full-fledged school of pedagogy, headed by a dean and completely equipped for the teaching of all branches of pedagogical work will be established at the university next year. This addition to the curriculum will be made in accordance with a bill passed by the legislature. There has been a department of pedagogy in connection with the academic course where upperclassmen could take courses in the theory of teaching, but there has been no practical work. The agitation which resulted in the bill was begun at the last convention of the State teachers' association when a protest was made against the inadequate training offered at the university. The teachers have been supported in their efforts by the university authorities. The organization of the school will be taken up at the next meeting of the regents and a dean may be elected this spring.

Applications for loans of State money to school districts were lately considered by the investment board, which decided to loan $113,000. No loans were made in Mille Lacs county. There seems to be an urgent demand all over the State for school houses, so urgent that the smaller districts, where the valuation is as yet low, cannot borrow enough money from the State to meet the demand for new and larger school houses. The amendment to the State constitution, allowing the districts to borrow a greater percentage of their property valuation, has extended to many new districts the privilege of borrowing money from the State. The largest loan passed on goes to Rushford, Independent District No. 16, Fillmore county. The board passed on a loan of $26,000 to this district.

The following recently appeared in a leading daily newspaper and is worthy the attention of educational boards: Recently Carleton college orators won the State oratorical contest—to my mind the greatest and most honorable victory within the reach of a seat of learning. Yet how many people in the State have heard of it? The great dailies devoted less space to this victory than would generally be accorded a game-cock fight at a poultry show. When brawn and brute force of the State university succeeds in maiming or killing a few young men and a great football game is won the daily papers are not big enough to tell the news, but when intellect, culture and acquired knowledge, set forth by the most ancient and honorable art developed by man—oratory—scores a great victory the news of the event is generally chronicled as of importance on a plane with a dog fight or a street brawl.

Prof. H. S. Baker, St. Paul, for the past eight years a member of the State examining board for teachers, has tendered his resignation to J. W. Olsen, superintendent of public instruction. P. P. Kennedy, superintendent of public schools at Fairmont, was appointed.

At a recent meeting of the Chicago Principals' association a resolution was passed in favor of an optional slant for writing, not to exceed twenty-two and one-half degrees. It has been found so-called vertical writers usually slant their letters backward and it was considered that a slight forward slant was preferable to the backward into which the vertical is so apt to degenerate.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.
"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman of Montmorency, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." Sold by C. A. Jack.
