

Matchless Stock of School Supplies

Every year our trade on school supplies grows larger. Stock has grown as fast or faster than the trade, so that now we buy these items in extremely large quantities.

TWO ADVANTAGES

Many of the items of school supplies are trifling taken separately, yet there is no reason why you should not get most and best for your money. Our large stock affords the widest possible choice and there is some saving on almost everything—either better goods or smaller price. Tablets will afford a good illustration. You will find that in each instance you will get better paper or more sheets for the money than can be had elsewhere. Same differences in almost every other item of school supplies. The saving may be small but its worth saving.

Millinery Opening.

On Wednesday next, Sept. 12, my fall opening day, will be displayed in my millinery establishment all the latest shapes in ladies' and children's hats for the season's wear. I would greatly appreciate upon this occasion a call from the ladies of Princeton and vicinity. Respectfully, Mrs. E. F. Griffith.

Change of Possession.

Miss D. LeMieux has purchased the entire stock of millinery from Mrs. R. D. Patterson and will leave Miss N. M. Lindbloom in charge of the store until she returns with an entire line of new goods. She kindly solicits the patronage of the people and will endeavor to please them both in price and quality.

Every Farmer Knows

THAT THE

DE LAVAL Cream Separators

are in a class by themselves as the best separators. But many have the mistaken idea, which competitors help to magnify, that they are "expensive" and that something "cheaper" will do in their stead.

The Facts Are That The

are not only the best but at the same time by far the cheapest—in proportion to the actual capacity and the actual life of the machine.

These are simple facts easily capable of proof to any buyer who will take the trouble to get at them and who need only apply to the nearest DE LAVAL agent or send for a catalogue to do so.
