Dr. Fridley had to remain here nearly two weeks on his last trip owing to the accumulation of work. He has given efficient service in dentistry.

A public demonstration over the signing of the truce was given by the ladies and children here on Monday afternoon and was highly appreciated by the sterner sex. A parade, in which all the available tubs, tin pans, and kettles, old horns, etc., had been commandeered, started down main street, in the midst of which was the de-throned, much despised Kaiser Bill, dragged through the mud in unceremonious style amidst the jeering and yelling of the crowd. After promeneading awhile the rope was thrown over a cross wire and the figure was suspended in mid-air and burned, while the crowd cheered and sang "The Star Spangled Banner." The paraders then continued marching and cheering for several hours. A sum of money was raised and a big feed is staged for Saturday evening, to which all are invited. Ladies are requested to bring cake, sandwiches and coffee. The public is rejoicing in every way over the downfall of the ruler of Germany and the victory of our own dear U. S. A. Might is not right, but right is might. Long wave Old Glory, emblem of Liberty and Victory.

Mrs. Nial Neumann and little girl are both ill with the flu at the Merve Kilmartin home south of town.

Tom Johnson had the misfortune to lose two valuable horses one day last week.

John Johnson was an Isle visitor on Monday.

On account of the recent rains the Isle-Opstead road is almost impassable. Those owning autos should go via Redtop, as the roads are somewhat better that way.

Reports came on Monday that the war is now at an end for sure. There should be one week of celebrating in honor of the great event.

BACK GIVES OUT.

Plenty of Princeton Readers Have This Experience.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them— They can't keep up the continual strain. The back may give out—it may ache and pain; Urinary troubles may set in. Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills. Princeton people tell you how they act.

Mrs. H. Lind, Princeton, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have helped me and I am glad to recommend them. My back used to cause me a great deal of misery. When I had been sitting down awhile, it was awfully hard to get up. I had frequent dizzy spells and a dull ache in my back tormented me for hours. Doan's Kidney Pills soon gave me fine relief. They rid me of the lameness in my back, and the dull, tiring ache and made me feel better in every way.

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Lind had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y. Adv.

E. C. Thompson, owner; T. J. Kalher, auctioneer; G. A. Eaton, clerk. 46-1c

Influence of Woman.

You cannot think that the buckling on of the knight's armor by his lady's hand was a mere caprice of romantic fashion. It is the type of an eternal truth—that the soul's armor is never well set to the heart unless a woman's hand has traced it, and it is only when she braces it loosely that the honor of manhood falls.—John Ruskin.
