KATHERINE WATTS WEDS CLENTLE JACKSON AT WAYMAN A.M.E. CHURCH

Wayman A.M.E. church was the setting, Saturday, Feb. 15, for the marriage of Miss Katherine Ann Watts, sister of Mr. Lester Watts, 619 Fremont Ave. N., and Mr. Clentle Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dealahay, 317 Bryant Ave. N.

Rev. N. P. Patterson performed the ceremony. Two large baskets of assorted flowers decorated the altar and on either side were tall candelabras holding eight tapers. Mr. W. H. Williams, soloist, sang "Because," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Elise Lyle. Miss Gwendolyn Morrow played the traditional wedding march.

Miss Watts entered the church on the arm of her brother. Her gown of white net and satin was fashioned with a full skirt and lace bodice, long tight fitting sleeves and she carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations. Her finger tip veil of illusion net was secured to a cap of white satin and crown of pearls.

Mrs. Fern Watts, matron of honor, wore a gown of pale pink faille with rhinestones and carried an arm bouquet of mixed flowers.

A reception was held in the parsonage immediately following the ceremony. The centerpiece for the table which was set with a white linen cloth, was a three tier wedding cake with crystal candelsticks on either end.

The bride and groom received many beautiful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are at home at 507 20th Ave. S.

BURNING HOLES THROUGH ROCK

THE SIX-INCH BLAST HOLE Clyde Helmer is pointing to was burned through this section of hard taconite rock. A jet-piercing machine, like a giant blow-torch, bores through more than 30 feet of rock an hour. Holes are then loaded with dynamite and the taconite blasted out—this section miraculously survived such a blast. With reserves of good ore decreasing, Minnesota's mining industry is doing everything it can to develop low-grade ore and taconite production. If successful, America will have an ore supply for generations to come—with increasing prosperity for Minnesota. A fair deal for Minnesota's iron mining industry means a good deal for you.
