There are only a few places of business in St. Paul, owned and operated by Colored people; but these few do not get the patronage of the Colored people as they should. Why not spend your money with Colored people, if you can possibly find any who can furnish what you wish. Help one another, and in so doing, you help yourself.

On Sunday February 7, Rev. L. H. Reynolds, of St. Stephens Church, Chicago, will take charge of St. James A. M. E. Church. Rev. D. P. Brown assumes the pastorate of St. Stephens. Rev. Reynolds is well and favorably known in this city, having been in charge of St. Peter Church, Minneapolis, for two years and he will be gladly welcomed by the people.

Mr. and Mrs. Drew will commence an engagement of four performances at the Metropolitan Opera House Sunday night in "That Girl From Mexico." The play is mirth-provoking, dashing and full of vigorous action, tells a story of love and sympathy, of hate and revenge, which gives to all of the higher dramas their prominent points for enlisting the varied feelings in the hearts of the people composing the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McGhee returned from their trip to Chicago, Washington, Philadelphia and New York, last Sunday. PICTORIAL ADVERTISING.

BERRINGTON BERRYS, Author. Dear Sir: I devoured your last novel, "Why Are We?" with great pleasure. It was quite to my taste. Yours truly, Wm. Goetz. —Judge.

The entertainment which was given by Mars Lodge last Monday evening was a very enjoyable one for those who remained to indulge in the terpsichorean excursions. There was however, considerable disappointment on account of the failure in the musical program. The committee is unanimous in the opinion that the artist who caused the disappointment will not be given another opportunity to do the like. The music and supper furnished were both very fine, and the affair was a financial success.

The following appeared in the local items of the Pioneer Press, Thursday: "An effort is being made to secure the appointment of a Colored delegate from Minnesota to the national Republican convention, which will be held in Minneapolis next summer. The names of Fred McGhee and John Quincy Adams of this city and A. R. Miles of Duluth are among those mentioned as being the choice of the Colored people of the state for that position."

It would, perhaps, be the fair thing to do, to send an Afro-American to the Republican national convention as a delegate at large from Minnesota, as one is credited with having a great deal to do with securing the holding of the convention in Minneapolis.

STILL IN IT.

Bill Guthrie—Say, mister, what's the name of this yer town?
Mr. Jackson Park—This is Chicago.
Bill Guthrie—Chicago yet? A man told me two days ago I was in Chicago, and I've been drivin' right along.
Mr. Jackson Park—That's right—Puck.

Great sympathy seems to be felt for Mrs. Kate Davis who killed Sam Blackstone Nov. 8, by willfully shooting him while he was endeavoring to carry out an order of his employer. She was taken from the jail to the hospital Thursday to have an operation performed on her ear. It has been stated that Mrs. Davis is on all around tough and that she was considerably surprised that she, a white woman, should have to be locked up for shooting a "nigger." Judge Oleson would not issue an order for her removal but Sheriff Bean took the responsibility. In order that she might be properly guarded Sheriff Bean assigned the master of the jail to attend her at the hospital. It is hoped for the sake of the sheriff that she may not escape while at the hospital.

Remember White's Jubilee Chorus.

Monday and Friday Nights at The Church of Good Shepherd, Corner of Cedar and 12 streets.

The Fat Men's Club.

Everybody knows that everybody goes to see the funny "Fat Men's Club," which is beyond the shadow of a doubt one of the funniest of musical far comedies. It is more than a vehicle for carrying specialties and contains much merit. It produces joyous, hearty laughter of that contagious order that fills the house from top to bottom with a cyclone of merriment, and when at last the curtain falls on the final scene, you go home and laugh all over again at the doings of the funny comedians. J. C. Stewart and his large company unequalled in its strength of individual members, unexcelled in its power to amuse will be at the Grand all of next week, beginning with the Sunday night performance.

Among the special people engaged, besides the jolly mountain of flesh, "Fattie" Stewart, are Charlie Ernest, the popular topical vocalist, in a budget of entirely new songs; Lillie Allyn in her boy specialties and in duets with Georgia Lingard, who does the longest endurance skipping rope dance on stage; the Tally Ho Trio in glees, songs and medleys; the three Albion Brothers in acrobatic and contortion feats; Nellie Stow in popular songs of the day, and a dozen others in varied portions of the funny entertainment. The Grand should have a good week of it with "The Fat Men's Club."

Capital City Inevitables.

The Capital City Inevitables comprising considerable musical and literary talent among their members and friends have set on foot a plan of giving a series of monthly entertainments which must prove of great pleasure and benefit to all parties interested. The idea is an admirable one which will undoubtedly meet the approval and patronage of the generous public. The first entertainment will be given at the Twin City Hall corner Rice and University avenue, Thursday evening, Feb. 9th, on which occasion the following program will be presented,

PROGRAM:
Overture, Miss Laura Adams.
Solo, Miss Minnie Selig.
Recitation, Miss S. Howell.
Duet, Misses Williams and Jefferson.
Solo, Miss F. Buckle.
Character Sketch, Mr. W. Drew Bloom.
Song with guitar accompaniment, Miss M. Conway.
Solo, Mr. C. Washington.
Select Reading, Miss F. French.
Violin and piano duet, Misses A. and M. Berry.
Quartette, "Inevitables."

ADMISSION 10 CENTS.

Remember White's Jubilee Chorus, Monday and Friday Nights at The Church of Good Shepherd, Corner of Cedar and 12 streets.

Mr. Zion A. M. E. Mission.

Corner Chicago and Eaton avenues. The series of meetings commencing with prayer week continuing three weeks and two days, are now closed. Eight precious souls exclaimed: "We have passed from death unto life." Most of whom, have united with us. May the Father of Light keep them until the perfect day. On Wednesday night Mr. S. C. White, the chorist, organized a club at the Mission with officers as follows: President, Mrs. M. J. Byrd; secretary, Mrs. L. Burnett; treasurer, Mr. Seth Austin. Quite a number signed their names as members. All seemed well pleased with the beginning. The pastor, members and friends will meet Friday evening to organize a Bible study class. All are welcome. The pastor will preach Sunday evening on "The exceeding great and precious promises by which we partake of the Divine nature."

Losing Your Head.

For many years after 1849 the service of the English Church on every recurring 30th day of January was devoted to commemoration of what was called the martyrdom of Charles the First. Charles lost his head, and England was ruled for many years after by Oliver Cromwell because Charles Stuart would not keep any promise made to his people. Other people have lost their heads for the same reason. The phrase "losing your head" in these days has not such a serious meaning as two hundred and fifty years ago, but implies becoming confused getting rattled, so that a man's head, as the seat of his reasoning faculties, is of no use to him. A good way to avoid losing your head in the conduct of your daily affairs is to do business only with concerns that are reliable, and conduct their affairs with system and regularity. Any promises they make you can rely on. In the same way, when you take a journey, place yourself in the hands of such a first-class railroad as The Burlington, and you lose neither your head, your connections, your sleep, your baggage, your time, nor your temper. For rates, tickets, timetables and any information about this line, call on your nearest ticket agent, or write to W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, St. Paul, Minn.

The Pence Opera House.

Rather than play a bad company, Manager Hilton has closed his house for this week. If all managers did this, business would be better when their houses were open for then the public would have every confidence in their statements and the results would soon show the wisdom of the excellent idea. For one solid week consisting of seven nights and three matinees, opening with the Sunday matinee, January 31st, the celebrated "Night Hawks" Burlesque Co., will be at the popular Pence. This company is one that has played in all the leading novelty theaters of the East with emphatic success and great pecuniary benefit and is sure to please. They have one of the most novel first parts seen in Minneapolis, an olio composed of the greatest of vaudeville stars and a burlesque filled with laughter and pretty girls and a cast composed of ladies and gentlemen who can and will act. Seats are now on sale and should be obtained in advance as the "standing room only" sign is frequently seen, by late comers at the Pence now-a-days.

MINNEAPOLIS.

A Record of the Doings in and About the Great "Flour City."

Matters Social, Religious and General Which Have Happened and are to Happen Among the People of the City on the Falls.

All of our churches were well filled last Sunday.

THE APPEAL is the boldest most progressive and most enterprising newspaper of its class.

Prof. J. Watson's chorus class will henceforth meet every Friday evening at Bethesda Baptist church.

The children of St. James A. M. E. church will give a concert for the benefit of St. James church Feb. 4, 1892.

Rev. D. A. Graham of St. Peter's church was called to Chicago last Sunday night by the death of his sister. THE APPEAL extends sympathy.

Don't forget Dr. Nelson, 236 and 238, Washington avenue South. He has no equal in all kinds of chronic diseases. Persons with long standing trouble cured at once.

The Pride of Minnesota lodge No. 3, K. P., is meeting every week and has had several new members under the supervision of Sir F. D. Parker. This order is growing rapidly.

Remember the Big Brighton Store, the number is 519 and 521 Washington avenue S. Prices to suit every class of people. Great fall stock of all kinds of woolen goods at bottom prices.

FOR SALE—Horses, Carriages, Wagons, harness, etc.; furniture and second hand goods of all kinds. Call and see our stock. Lowest prices in the city. A. Heath, 2002 Second Street N.

Don't forget the Big Brighton Store 519 and 521 Washington avenue S. This store is doing a great business and offers to the public the very best bargains obtained in the city. Call and save your money.

The Glass Black and S. E. Olsen have the largest Colored trade of any dry goods house in the city. We believe these two houses more richly deserve our trade than any other because they are the most liberal to us in every way.

Boutell Bros., corner Washington avenue South and 2nd avenue, is the place in the city to get bargains in all kinds of stoves, furniture carpets and crockery. All goods on easy instalments. These gentlemen are affable and pleasant to all.

The ladies of Bethesda Baptist church will give a Leap Year Party at their new church, 8th street S., between 11th and 12th avenues S. on February 3d. All are cordially invited to attend. The ladies are expected to escort the gentlemen.

STILL SCRAPING AWAY.

"Ah, by the way, Mr. Brown, your home is in Cincinnati, I understand. Do you know Mr. De Smythe of that place—Mr. Algonquin De Smythe? I had such a delightful time with him a few days last summer at Long Branch. Met him on the train and somehow we managed to scrape an acquaintance. What is the dear fellow doing now?"
"Well, he's still at it, I believe."
"What! Still flirting?"
"Oh, no; still scraping acquaintances." —Chicago Mail.

The curiosity antique supper given by the ladies of St. Peter's church last Tuesday night was a grand success both as to its novelty and to its financial features. It is understood the ladies cleared quite a large sum. All present seemed to greatly enjoy themselves.

NOTICE—All news, notices and other matter for THE APPEAL will receive prompt attention if left at 227 6th street S. We promise to make the Minneapolis department better than ever before. All communications must be left at 227 6th street S. W. J. DUNJEE, MANAGER.

MONEY LOANED—On Horses, Wagons, household goods, musical instruments or any good security without removal. Also on watches, diamonds etc. No delay. Private room for ladies. Lowest rates in the city; open evenings. V. Heath, successor to W. H. Adanson, 27 Washington Ave. S.

Your attention is called to the programme of the dedicatory exercises of the new Bethesda Baptist church next Sunday. Rev. L. C. Sheafe of St. Paul will preach at 11 A. M. At 3 P. M. a large number of city pastors will take part and the services will be exceedingly interesting. At 8 P. M. the Rev. J. F. Thomas pastor of Olivet Baptist church of Chicago, will preach.

The funeral of Mr. Jordan Stought was preached from Bethesda Baptist church last Sunday at 3 P. M. by Rev. J. W. Dunjee. Mr. Stought had been sick a very short time of brain fever. He lost a brother only four months ago.

Mr. Stought was an honorable member of the brotherhood of Masons. The order turned out in full force. During the sickness of the deceased his brother Masons gave him every needed attention. He was buried in one of the most beautiful caskets that could be furnished by P. Olson Earl of Franklin avenue S. Bro. T. A. Jackson had charge of the ritualistic services. The Masons acquitted themselves creditably.

She Would Have Advertised.

"I have lost my heart," he whispered, gazing into her lovely eyes; "but the maiden calmly answered, 'Why don't you advertise?'"

Not So Funny, Either.
ST. PAUL, Jan. 16.—To the Editor: The following comment appeared in the Pioneer Press a few days ago:
A colored barber at Philadelphia has refused to have Dr. John Thompson, colored, formerly United States minister to San Domingo, because he can a shop for "white gent only." Here would be a chance for an injury a civil rights act as for the situation only.
All of which only proves that there are as pitiable colored men as there are white men. Being black, coffee-colored or simply cross-colored, does not insure one against the ill-mental or moral which all at white humanity.

I colored barbers who run shops for "white gentlemen only" refuse to have colored men, it is because "white gentlemen" insist that it shall be so as the price of their patronage; therefore, it is usually the case—the insubstantial black man, whose bread and butter hangs upon his compliance with the degrading demand, has to bear the reproach of the whole business, while as a matter of fact he is guilty of nothing but moral cowardice. I say one doubts this statement. Let him ask his colored barber why no colored man is ever seen among his patrons—not even his own father or brother. Is this because he objects to them on the score of color? Not at all. The white man believes it to be so; but he objects to believe it, thus adding insult to injury.

The truth is, white men—the better (or) class—object to patronizing shops that accommodate colored men, no matter whether the proprietors be white or black. The colored proprietor knows this; so do his colored friends. They do not think it necessary to apply and be refused, and the score that the shop is run for "white gentlemen only." They know in advance that such a line cannot and has never been drawn about physical contact as being at the bottom of their prejudice. Physical moonshining! The same man will object to a colored man as guest at a hotel, but accept him as waiter; objects to him in the same railway coach (in a hotel) unless he be the porter; cannot endure him in the street car (in a railway) unless he be the driver; daughter beside him on the carriage seat—oh, he but war-liverly.

In fact, to make a long story short, white men are so fond of proclaiming the inferiority of the colored race (vide Standard Ingle's), and inferiority which in case of individual members of the race is not always sufficiently obvious that it often becomes necessary to accentuate the difference by some arbitrary ruling in order to make it distinguishable. "An imaginary line" answers all the purposes of an equality; why should not exclusion from barber shops run for "white gentlemen only" establish the inferiority of a race? As we have before intimated: We consider any colored man a coward who permits any case of him to compel him to insult his own race—I we know any strong epithet we would apply it to the men who once him into such an attitude, affecting unconsciousness as unwholesome and then say the climax by adding the responsibility upon the shoulders of the victim.

We cannot say in such a case, "Have the courage of your convictions" his dignity, but in the name of consistency we implore you—have the courage of your convictions.

Portland, Oregon.
Zion church started protracted meetings last week.
Bethel church is holding revival meetings and will continue this week.
Mr. Wm. Glasco left for Frisco last Tuesday evening on the Columbia.
The K. of P. will give their grand entertainment on the 19th of Feb. instead of the 10th.
The Oregonian building will soon be completed. It is a handsome structure and adds greatly to the looks of the city.
There is quite a bit of sickness here among our people. Mesdames Jenkins and Hattie Sykes and Mr. C. A. Ritter are among the number.

Died at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ritter, their little daughter Lulu of consumption aged 7 years and some months. She was a sweet child and very bright for her age. The flowers were profuse, the singing was led by her Sabbath school friends of the white Baptist school. Mr. Ritter was so ill he could not attend the services of his child. The friends of the family all sympathize with them.

To Old Mexico.

Are you going South this winter? Old Mexico is rapidly coming to the front as a winter resort and offers attractions to be found nowhere else in the world. Did you ever see a bull-fight. Perhaps the quaint manners and customs of the Mexican people are of more interest to you? "The Burlington" will sell you Excursion tickets at low rates good for six months. If you are bound for California you can make a side trip to the Republic, thus enabling you to take in all the sights at a slight additional cost. Ask your nearest agent, or write to W. J. C. Kenyon, G. P. A., St. Paul, for literature descriptive of Mexico and its inhabitants, and also for rates and full information in regard to the trip.
