POLLS OPEN FROM 6 A. M. TO 9 P. M.

VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET STRAIGHT NEXT TUESDAY,

There is a letter at this office from Spokane, Wash., for Mrs. Lizzie Ogden.

FOR RENT—No. 574 Fuller street; four large rooms at reasonable rates. Splendid location.

Mrs. Archie Scott, of Cedar street, has been seriously ill with inflammation of the stomach, but is now improving.

Mr. R. E. Anderson, formerly deputy sheriff of Ramsey county but now residing in Marshall, Minn., was in the city this week on business.

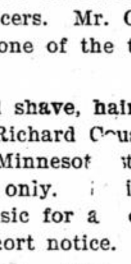
Mrs. F. M. Williams of Minneapolis passed through this city Wednesday enroute to Chicago, where she goes for medical treatment. Her condition is a very critical one.

Why does he smile? Because he is going to see 'Little Bo Peep' at St. James church May 17. You go and you'll smile too, for the little ones will render the cantata in a most charming manner.

Is your hair straight? If not send 50 cents to Ozonized Ox Marrow Co., a bottle of Ozonized Ox Marrow and 76 Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill., for you can easily straighten it.

The St. Paul Barbers' association and the Master Barbers' association formed a consolidation last Monday night and elected officers. Mr. O. D. Howard was elected one of the three trustees.

If you wish a good shave, hair cut or shampoo, call at Richard Crusby's neat shop, No. 374½ Minnesota street. First-class workmen only. Satisfaction guaranteed. Music for all occasions furnished on short notice.



Why does this poor old man weep? Because he cannot get to go to hear the beautiful cantata, "Little Bo Peep" which is to be given at St. James church May 17 under the direction of Mrs. R. C. Minor who will be ably assisted by Misses Hattie Grisson and Mae Williams. You may go, though, if you wish to, see!

Mr. J. H. Daubins is suing Albert Scheffer, the Allemania bank and others, in the district court to recover $500 on a stock subscription to the above mentioned bank, which he claims was never legally organized.

Those who wish to revel in repasts evidencing the highest style of culinary art in their preparation; or, in other words, those who wish to eat good, wholesome, home-cooked meals should try those furnished at John Godfrey's, No. 148 East Ninth street, near Jackson.

John Godfrey, No. 148 East Ninth street, between Robert and Jackson, is prepared to take care of a few roomers at reasonable rates. Transients accommodated. Board furnished when desired. Best home-cooked meals in the city. If you doubt it, try them once and you'll be convinced.

Odd Fellow's Sermon.

The G. U. O. of O. F. of the Twin Cities, together with the Households of Ruth anhd the Past Grand Masters Council, will have their annual sermon preached to them by Rev. J. C. Anderson of St. James A. M. E. church, St. Paul, at Bethesda Baptist church, Minneapolis,, at 2.30 p. m. Sunday, May 6. Special music is being prepared for the occasion. Mrs. Bertha Heathcock Wilson will sing a solo. The Past Grand Masters Council will turn out in a body in dress regalia for the first time. The exercises will be instructive and of unusual interest. The public generally is cordially invited to be present.

J. A. SCOTT,
W. R. MORRIS,
Committee.

VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET STRAIGHT NEXT TUESDAY,

CHESTER R. SMITH.

A Few Items of Interest Regarding Him.

It has been rumored about the city that Chester R. Smith, the Republican candidate for Mayor of St. Paul, is antagonistic to Afro-Americans, and, as a rental agent, will not rent to them. The story was started because a certain person who rented from the Taylor Rental Agency was not allowed to retain rooms in a building after the fact became known that the person was an Afro-American. The house in question was not on the list of the firm of Smith & Taylor, of which Mr. Smith is the senior member The two firms have been confounded. Mr. William Whitelow, who rents from Smith & Taylor, says: "I have rented from Mr. Smith for over a year and have always found him to be a plain, honest, straightforward man to deal with, who does not exhibit any prejudice on account of color."

Mr. Thomas Jefferson, who rented a house of Mr. Smith sometime ago, says he has known Mr. Smith for the past fifteen years and has had numerous business relations with him, always of a most pleasant character, and has always found him to be a perfect gentleman, with whom color cuts no figure.

Mr. W. S. Moffat, No. 931 Albemarle street, is a tenant of Mr. Smith's.

Mr. J. S. Harris, the candidate for constable on the Democratic ticket, is a tenant of Mr. Smith's.

Mr. Gus Banks was a tenant of Mr. Smith's.

Mr. P. E. Reid has been a tenant of Mr. Smith's.

The following letter explains itself:

Mr. Editor: I would like a short space in your paper to contradict a rumor that has gone forth to the effect that Chester R. Smith, the Republican candidate for Mayor, does not like to deal with Afro-Americans in a business way and will not rent them houses. I bought my house from Mr. Smith and have had business dealings with him for a number of years, and he has always treated me in a generous and courteous manner, and I would say to my friends that if there were more like him we would, as a race, be better for it. Yours for truth,
R. C. HOWARD.

It might be worth while to mention that Mr. Smith gave to the late Rev. R. Hickman the last $50 necessary to purchase the lot on which Pilgrim Baptist Church now stands, and, in the grand rally to reclaim the church, held at the Capitol last Monday night, Mr. Smith was present and gave $25.

When Smith & Lewis ran a wood yard they trusted Pilgrim Baptist Church for fuel until the bill ran up to over $300, and when Mr. Lewis refused to let them have any more wood Mr. Smith took it upon himself to do so.

This ought to be enough to prove that Mr. Smith does not cherish any harsh feelings toward Afro-Americans, but we may have more to say upon the subject in the future.

ROBERT A. SMITH,

And a few facts about him.

In view of the fact that the Democrats have taken especial pains in attempting to create adverse sentiments among the Afro-Americans against Chester R. Smith relative to his feelings and actions toward them, both by a contortion of facts as well as scandalous publications, it is but proper before this campaign closes to let the people know something about the character of Robert A. Smith and his attitude toward the Afro-Americans who attempt to elevate themselves. In 1890 he became the owner of a lot adjoining the home owned by Mr. Thomas H. Lyles, on Ashland avenue right in the heart of the residence portion of the Hill district. Mr. Lyles had opposed Mr. Smith as a candidate for Mayor and to get even he proposed to build a livery barn on his lot right close up to Mr. Lyles' house. Mr. Lyles tried to dissuade him, but to no purpose then the neighborhood took the matter up and succeded in getting the Council to refuse him a permit. In 1891 he again appeared before the Council with the false statement that the people in the neighborhood had withdrawn their objections and the permit was granted and the barn erected as afore stated. The building of the barn damaged Mr. Lyles' property very materially. He tried to get Mr. Smith to buy it or trade it, but he would do neither, and finally Mr. Lyles was forced to sell his property at a very great sacrifice. After Mr. Lyles had moved, the barn was very shortly closed under an injunction sued out by the people of the neighborhood. Now, in view of these facts, how can any self-respecting Afro-American vote for Robert A. Smith?

Notice.

There will be a meeting of the American Law Enforcement League of Minnesota at St. James A. M. E. Church, St. Paul, Sunday evening, April 29, at 8 p. m., which everybody is most cordially and urgently requested to be present. The object of the meeting is to raise funds to assist the Afro-Americans of Louisiana in testing the constitutionality of the law recently enacted disenfranchising them. Surely this is a matter of deep interest to every member of the race. The League appeals to all organizations to assist in this work; especially does it appeal to the several secret organizations, the Masons, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. May they respond nobly to the appeal of their Southern brethren in distress. Let each lodge contribute a substantial sum to this worthy and deserving cause. There will be short and pointed addresses by several speakers and matters of great import to our people discussed. Let every-one attend.

COMMITTE OF LAW ENFORCEMENT LEAGUE.

"HELLO BILL"

At the Grand Opera House, St. Paul.

"Hello Bill" which comes to the Grand Opera House next week is a musical comedy and promises to put on view one of the liveliest, brightest and funniest entertainments that the present season has given birth to. It is the joint work of Frank J. Halo and Mare Madison and the story of the piece is based upon the mistaken identity of twin brothers, who are exact counterparts in physical appearance but totally unlike in temperament and habits- one being a spiritualist fakir and the other a race track follower. The action of the comedy takes place in one day at a hotel in the Adirondacks. The twin brothers happen to be guests there, but do not meet during the day, each unaware of the others presence The other characters are the usual run of guests at a summer hotel. A country doctor of the David Harum type; a coquettish spinster and her pretty niece; several Casino girls on a vacation trip the wives of the twin brothers and others. The complications in which they become entangled, are said to be uproariously funny and in the denouement which exposes the wiles of the fake medium, furnish much mystification and more fun. The piece abounds in occasions for specialties and is filled with songs, dances and other contributions of this kind. The company that will engage in presenting "Hello Bill" includes Geo. Ober, John Hyams, Frederick Powers, Thomas Wood, Ada Deaves, Madeline Lack, Ada Bernard, Helen Brackett, Francis Kepplar and the "Hello Bill" quartette. It is not to much to say that seldom if ever, has so strong an organization been seen in farce comedy and its visit here should attract crowed houses.

You recall the Western cow-boy, who at dinner in the city, suddenly whipped out his revolver and shot the butter-dish into fragments. The landlady shrieked, "Why did you do that?" "Excuse me, ma'am, 'twas habit, my dear ma'am, habit! I saw the butter creep!" Gentle child of the west—he did not know that some butter was strong enough to run! Seriously, habit has a strong hold upon everyone. When one gets used to doing a thing he continues doing it. If you are in the habit of buying some particular brand of flour you probably keep on buying it—through habit. You do not realize that there may be a superior article knocking at your door for admission.

ORIENTAL NATIONAL FAIR.

Opens in Minneapolis next Tuesday Evening.

The long looked-for ORIENTAL NATIONAL FAIR of St. Peter's A. M. E. church, under the auspices of the Wayman Home Circle, will open next Tuesday, May 1st, at St. Peter's church. Twenty-second street and Ninth avenue South, Minneapolis. Mrs W. W. Tucker, the president, expects, by the assistance of God and her many friends to make this one of the grandest affairs both socially and financially that has ever taken place in this section of the country. The program for the first evening will consist of a brass band concert and a national drill. Five nations will be represented, both in costume and likeness. Every feature of the occasion will simply be grand and well prepared, from the fact that those in charge have on other occasions conducted National Fairs in various cities. The grocery booth will be operated on a high scale, and the managers say they can furnish every family in the city with groceries for one week if they will favor them with their patronage. You can purchase at the grocery booth, while the fair is in progress, everything in the grocery line. Come out, bring your baskets and supply yourselves each day with what you need.
