Some of the people to whom THE APPEAL is as regularly sent as it is issued—and that is every Saturday—act as though they are under no other legal or moral obligations to pay for it; when, as a matter of fact, they are under both. There is no law compelling any one to receive THE APPEAL, but there is law to compel any one to pay for it who receives it, upon the principle of law that one must pay for anything he receives. Ordering a paper discontinued does not pay any amount that may be due and unpaid, and the publisher has the right to continue to send his paper until whatever may be due for it is fully paid; then an order to discontinue must be obeyed. It is hoped that every one who reads this, that is indebted to the paper, will bring or send to the office the amount due. Every one who receives THE APPEAL is expected to pay for it.

"TEN NIGHTS IN A BAR ROOM."

Which Will be Seen at the Grand Next Week.

For the fourth week of the Grand's supplementary spring season, commencing Sunday matinee, May 28th, and will include a special matinee on Decoration Day, the Lewis-Oliver Players will present a grand revival of the great temperance drama "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." This play has not been presented in this city for many years and the coming presentation of this great temperance story strong dramatic scenes and situations in the play which include "The Great Bar-Room scene," "The Terrific Explosion," "The Old Mill in Operation," "The Duel to Death," "Joe Morgan's Reformation," "The Famous Gambling Den" and the "Grand Transformation Scene." Messrs. Lewis and Oliver promise an entire new scenic outfit and all the scenic effects used in the original production years ago will be given. The producing cast will in every way meet the requirements of the characters. A new series of motion pictures will be shown as usual between the acts. Otis L. Oliver will be seen as Joe Morgan and Jack Lewis as Sample Switchell.

Prices on everything seems to be going up, and the newspaper publisher is among the sufferers. The price for setting type has been advanced ONE-THIRD, therefore a higher price must be charged for advertisements and articles published in the papers. Don't forget this.

Dr. H. I. Williams, our dentist, has moved his office from the Phillipsburg building to Room 64 Medical Block, corner of Seventh and Robert streets, over Mansur's Drug Store, where he will be pleased to see all old as well as new patrons.

Ladies you can get just as good "French Dry Cleaning" done by the Valet Tailoring Co., 156 E. Sixth street as anywhere in the city. Why not let them do it for you?
