SATURDAY AUGUST 2, 1913.
The St. Louis City Council has passed an ordinance to end tipping. The bill provides for a fine of from $10 to $50 for each offense and both the tipper and tippee are liable. An informer of an infraction of the ordinance will receive half of the fine. Ain't it awful, Mabel! In Calcutta, India, recently the natives attacked a wedding procession and beat to death the bridegroom because he failed to distribute the customary tips of bakshesh. And it is probably that this caused the St. Louis city fathers to get busy.

Great credit is due to Hon. James C. Napier, of Nashville, Tenn., for the manly stand he took in resigning his office of Register of the Treasury when he found that he could not get an order rescinded which segregated the Afro-American clerks in his department. The different races and colors have gotten along peaceably and amicably together for scores of years. Where is the need for segregation now? It is absolutely wrong, uncalled for and unnecessary.

The fools are not all dead yet, but one of them died on the 13th inst. near Tucson, Ariz. It was an unlucky day for him. Alejandro Ramirez, a miner, was amusing himself by trying to step on the fingers of a fellow miner who was preceding him going down on a ladder in the shaft of the Twin mine. Ramirez lost his footing and fell 300 feet to his death. Some folks trifle with death once too often.

To escape a prison sentence, C. H. Holt, a white man of Kansas City, claims to be an Afro-American. Then he went to Memphis and held up an Afro-American for $200, and was caught and identified.

THIS MEANS YOU. If there is a one cent postage stamp on your paper, that means that you have not paid your subscription for more than a year, and the Government compels us to pay one cent each to send the papers to delinquent subscribers. Now if you are honorable and square, you will come and pay what you owe. It certainly does not reflect any credit on you to have us pay one cent on each paper we send to you and for which you have not paid. Is this fair and square?

HOT TIME FOR DELINQUENTS.
We clip the following from one of our exchanges to warn our delinquent subscribers what a hot time they will have if they fail to pay their newspaper bills. The same fate awaits our slow-paying advertisers:
"An editor who died of starvation was being escorted to Heaven by an angel sent for that purpose. 'May I just glance in at the other place before we ascend to eternal happiness?' So they went below and skimming around, taking in the sights. It so happened that the angel lost track of the editor and went around Hades hunting him. He found him sitting upon an enormous furnace, fanning himself and gazing with rapture upon a crowd of lost souls in the fire. Over the furnace was a sign bearing the words, 'Delinquent subscribers.' 'Come,' said the angel, 'we must be going now.' 'You go on,' said the

OATH FOR AFRO-AMERICAN YOUTH.
I will never bring disgrace upon my race by any unworthy deed or dishonorable act. I will live a clean, decent, manly life; and will ever respect and defend the virtue and honor of womanhood; I will uphold and obey the just laws of my country and of the community in which I live and will encourage others to do likewise; I will not allow prejudice, injustice, insult or outrage to cover my spirit or humiliate my soul; but will ever preserve the inner freedom of heart and conscience; I will not allow myself to be overcome by evil; but will strive to overcome evil with good; I will endeavor to develop and exert the best powers within me for my own personal improvement; and will strive unceasingly to quicken the sense of racial duty and responsibility; I will in all these ways aim to uplift my race so that, to everyone's honor and by ties of blood; it shall become a bond of ennoblement, and not a byword of reproach.

WANTED, A SAMARITAN.
Prone in the road he lay,
Wounded and sore bestead;
Priests, Levites past that way,
And turned aside the head.
They were not hardened men
In human service slack;
His need was great: but then
His face, you see, was black.
