Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Donnovan, 2018 James avenue, entertained at dinner Wednesday Mr. James Hale Porter of Chicago and Lawyer Gale Hilyer. Covers were laid for six.

Bobby Marshall sprung quite a surprise on many of his friends last week by taking unto himself a wife in the charming person of Miss Irene Knott. Congratulations are still in order.

Miss Mildred Plummer was hostess at the meeting of the Y. G. B. C.'s when they met at her home on last Thursday. Business was discussed a program enjoyed and a very delightful luncheon served.

The Tenth Anniversary of Ames Lodge No. 106, I. B. P. O. E. W., on last Wednesday evening was celebrated with much eclat by the members that were out in full force and all had a good time at the splendid

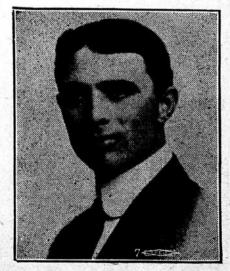

Mine host, Mr. J. E. Stewart of the Stewart Hotel, has secured three of the best entertainers to be had for his cafe, and they are pleasing the crowds that fill the spacious dining room nightly. They are: Mrs. Veela Hunter, pianist, late of New York and Chicago; Miss Esmaralda Spathan, also of New York and Chicago, and Miss Toy Brown of the Orpheum circuit. They are all very clever and are the "talk of the town."

There was a very delightful Halloween party given in honor of the Young Girls' Benefit club by Miss Eunice Smith at her home on Elliot avenue on Tuesday evening. There was about forty present and all danced and had a delightful time until the wee' hour. The house was very beautifully decorated for the occasion and after a number of games had been played the hostess lined her guests up and led them to a table laden with ice cream, cake, candies, etc. A delightful Halloweer was spent.

Otto S. Langum, the present sheriff of Hennepin county, is a candidate for mayor of Minneapolis. As sheriff he has shown he is devoid of color prejudice in all his official actions. He has retained Mr. John M. Allison as one of his deputies during all the time he has been sheriff, which is the "best evidence," as lawyers say. It is rea sonable to believe that he will not change his principles if he is elected mayor, which he undoubtedly will be next Tuesday. But each colored voter should do his duty and vote for him to show appreciation for what he has done and as evidence of faith in what he will do. Get in the band wagon and vote for Otto S. Langum for mayor of the mighty metropolis of

The social affair par excellence of the week was the grand concert and Hallowe'en ball given by Pride of Minnesota Lodge No. 5, K. P., at Arcadia hall, last Monday evening. To start with, the hall is the most beautiful in the city for a dancing party, and then the ladies, "Heaven bless 'em!" were superbly gowned and their beautiful faces wreathed with smiles; such a combination "can't be beat," and the result was all that could be wished for. There were upward of 300 per sons in the hall which speaks well for the popularity of the management committee and the effective work of its members. The excellent souvenir program was another striking evidence of the committee's work. There was a very delightful program furnished as follows: Piano solo. Miss Marienne Jeffrey; solo, Mr. D. W. Raynor; reading, Mr. Byron Holder: violin solo Miss Gracia Corneal; vocal solo, Mrs. Harriet Hall, and each number was a gem of purest ray serene, and won for each artist rapturous and deserved applause. Mr. U. R. Morris was master of ceremonies. Music by McCullough's orchestra.

The chairman of the organization was unable to be present and Mr. F. D. McCracken was selected to take charge of the meeting. Mr. Mc-Cracken seemed to be the right man in the right place and his timely remarks throughout the evening were so well received that he was complimented and congratulated by several of the old Republican leaders who were present. His introduction of our own Wm, T. Francis as a candidate for Representative was greatly applauded. Mr. Francis received quite an ovation when he stepped on the platform. His speech received careful attention and frequently he was interrupted by applause. At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Francis was enthusiastically applauded and assured by many of those present of their support. Messrs. E. M. Parish, Chas. He was a deputy under the late Matt Jensen and was unanimously chosen by the Judges of the District Court to fill the vacancy. The fact that he is going to win is not in my opinion sufficient, we should show that a good and efficient public servant is appreciated by all, and that his meritorious services in the past have not been forgotten. Several numbers had of a necessity to be omitted, Mr. Burleigh feeling. rightly, that his voice was in no condition to attempt the difficult passages. Assisted by Miss Albreta C.
