THE HOODOO CLUB.
Of Pilgrim Baptist Church to Present a Photo Play.
Friday and 13 have long been considered unlucky by the foolishly superstitious people, but there is nothing in it, and the "Hoodoo Club" of Pilgrim Baptist church proposes to prove it by presenting a photoplay by the Lincoln Moving Picture Co., of Los Angeles, entitled, "The Trooper of Tenth Cavalry," the great film parts and featuring the great colored movie actor, Noble M. Johnson.
FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 13TH.
There will be two shows, one at 8:00 for the special benefit of the children, and the other at 9:30 o'clock.
Noble M. Johnson is one of the incorporators and president of the Lincoln Motion Picture Co., of Los Angeles, Cal., and he not only is experienced in the business but is at present one of the prominent figures in "Universal City," the great film center. Mr. Johnson was seen in "Intolerance," "Kincade," "Gambler,"
"Fighting for Love," "Jimmy Dolan, Prince," and "The Terrier," etc.
He has written a three reel story,
"The Law of Nature," which was shown at Los Angeles last week.
All movie fans be on the look out for this stellar attraction. Tickets, 25 cents.

In this play there will also be seen besides Mr. Noble M. Johnson, as "Shifles" Joe, Miss Beulah Hall, as Clara Holmes, Jimmy Smith as Jimmy Warner.

He flinched not when the treacherous foe assailed him.
Red-hot on flanks and front with hidden guns.
His great, courageous spirit never laid him
Though trapped by Montezuma's murderous sons.
He fought with valor led by Boyd and Morey, Till back to back beleagured with his pal,
He won his way into the ranks of glory.
The Trooper of the Tenth at Carri-zal.

There are 300 performers seen in this play and this is the first time that a photoplay in which colored movie actors are specially featured.
