SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1918.

THE APPEAL
WISHES ALL ITS READERS
A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Mrs. Cleat Oliver of St. Paul was the guest of her sister Mrs. Donald Brady last Sunday.

On Sunday, Dec. 29th, the Forum will hold its meeting at Bethesda Baptist church and will dedicate its service flag.

Lovers of a good time should go over to St. Paul on Monday evening, Dec. 30, and attend the Shriner's Ball at Union Hall.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 John 4:10.—Selected by E. W. Gilles.

Ames Lodge No. 106, Elks, is preparing to give a grand installation ball at Arcadia Dancing Academy on Monday, Jan. 6th, 1919. First ball of the year. Get ready!

Don't forget the Grand Military Ball by Cos. C and D, 16th B'n. M. H. G. at Arcadia Dancing Palace next Thursday evening. McCullough Orchestra. Everybody invited.

Mrs. M. Moseley Withers, who has been confined to her bed for the past two weeks with a slight attack of influenza, is improving rapidly under the care of Dr. J. H. Redd.

Be sure to attend the Public Installation and Big Ball of Ames Lodge, 106 Elks, at South Side Auditorium, 12th Ave. S. and 3rd street, on Monday evening, Jan. 6. See ad. elsewhere.

Atty. W. T. Francis of St. Paul will address the Twin City Baptist Minister's Association in the Evanston Building at 11:00 o'clock Monday morning. His subject will be: "The Progress of the American Negro."

Rev. O. A. Lawrence has returned from Camp Zackery Taylor, Louisville, Ky., where he attended the Chaplains' Training School, where he graduated and was appointed to a chaplaincy with the rank of First Lieutenant.

Mrs. Madames Price and Smeddler, of the Hair Shop, 715 Sixth Ave. N., have originated a new electric pressing comb that is superior to those now on the market and they cordially invite the ladies to call and test its merits.

Mrs. Madames Price and Smeddler, of the Hair Shop, 715 Sixth Avenue North, now have a splendid display of Kashmir toilet goods in a show window of a large store adjoining their place of business. See their new hygienic sanitary hair brushes and Royal Rouge.

Ames Lodge 106 I. B. P. O. E. W. did itself proud in celebrating its 12th anniversary of its lodge hall last Monday evening. There were several scores of the members of Ames and Gopher lodges and their friends present, and the banquet table fairly groaned under the weight of the excellent menu that was furnished. Past Exalted Ruler, W. R. Morris was toastmaster and performed in a most admirable manner. There was invocation by P. E. R., Geo. W. Stewart of St. Paul, singing of America, speeches by Rev. T. R. Stovall, Charles Sumner Smith, Geo. W. Stewart, P. H. Southall, B. S. Smith, Geo. W. Holbert, Lieut. L. Hatchett, and others. It was a very delightful affair.

MISS CLARA MAE DIGGS.
Granddaughter of the Late Hon. Richard Douglass, in Minneapolis.

Miss Clara Mae Diggs, school teacher at Huntington, Ark., and graduate of the A. & M. College, Huntsville, Ala., is the guest of Mrs. M. Moseley Withers, of 2406 17th Ave. So. Mrs. Withers and Miss Diggs are childhood friends, and Mrs. Withers is also a graduate of the above college.

Miss Diggs is here on a year's leave of absence from her school work, to pursue a post-graduate course in domestic science at the University of Minnesota.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Minnie Douglass Diggs, also a graduate of the A. & M. College, and was Mrs. Withers' first teacher, when a child in the kindergarten.

Miss Clara Mae is also the niece of the Rev. Robert Langford, pastor of Mt. Olivet C. M. E. Church, Memphis, Tenn.

Both Miss Diggs and Mrs. Withers come from old and distinguished families of Alabama; Miss Diggs being the granddaughter of the late Hon. Richard Douglass, former Justice of the Peace of Madison, Ala., and Mrs. Mary M. Withers being the granddaughter of the late Officer David McCullough, the first and only colored police officer of Madison, Ala., who served in this legal capacity for a great number of years. Officer McCullough was also a brave soldier of the U. S. Volunteer Corps of the Civil War, and is a pension drawer, and was famed in Madison for his wealth of property.

Miss Diggs comes to the University of Minnesota highly recommended from her native home, Madison, Ala., Arkansas, and Prof. Walter S. Buchanan, Pres. of the A. & M. College, Huntsville, Ala. She is a young woman of the highest moral character.

FREEDOM FOR ALL FOREVER.
PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS!
Mrs. C. W. Wigington, 1020 Rondo street, entertained the E. T. I. Club Thursday of last week. A very delicious lunch was served by the hostess after the business session. Mrs. Hazel Williams of Minneapolis was a guest of the club.
The Welcome Ball that was given by Co. B, 16th B'n. M. H. G., at Union Hall last Wednesday evening, despite the rain, was quite largely attended, and was a very pleasant affair. There were several of the returned soldiers present who also enjoyed the occasion.

The wedding of Mr. Walter B. Smith of Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Cornelia Gordon was solemnized at Pilgrim Baptist Church, Rev. D. E. Beasley officiating, last Tuesday evening, followed by a reception at the bride's residence, 761 Rondo street. The newly-weds will make their future home in Cleveland.

Have you been down to the Model Cafe lately? They have had Mrs. Amelia Parker, as cook, for several weeks, and she do say, she is some cook. They serve a splendid regular dinner every day for 35 cents and special turkey dinner on Sunday for 50 cents. Call and see for yourself, 289 Robert street, just below Third.

Postmaster Otto N. Rath has proven himself to be the fairest minded man, so far as colored people are concerned, that ever filled that office. There are now more colored employees in the St. Paul postoffice than ever before. The recent appointments are: Messrs. Moss Williams, Grant Bush, Jas. H. Butler, Samuel B. Douglas, and Win. B. Walker.

Mr. Henry Pryor, the famous chef, has purchased the cafe near the corner of Kent street and St. Anthony avenue, where his many friends may find him from early morn until midnight ready to satisfy their gastronomic desires in style on short notice. If you are wanting strictly first class home cooking you may find it at PRYOR'S CAFE. Nothing but the best will be served. Call and be convinced.

Mr. R. M. Johnson, secretary of Gopher Lodge, 105 I. B. P. O. E. W., received a letter from Mr. Salem Tutt Whitney, of the Smarter Set Company, 35 members, informing him that his company is booked for the week of Jan. 12 at the Metropolitan Opera House. Mr. Whitney has been a member in good standing of Gopher Lodge for eleven years, and has never had a chance to visit his Lodge. Plans are in progress to give the Smarter Set in general, and Mr. Whitney in particular, a royal welcome. Watch for further particulars. Mr. L. N. Scott, manager of the Metropolitan, when in Chicago a short time ago, saw the show and was so favorably impressed that he immediately booked it.
