The country to the south and west is Prairie and Timber in the finest proportion while to the North and East there extends an unbroken body of Woodland, the greater portion of it being of good size and quality.

The Prairies and Lakes in the vicinity deserve particular mention. "Eden Prairie" is ten miles long, and from one to one and a-half miles wide, with timber along the sides and is well watered. It offers superior facilities to Farmers and at many points along are beautiful building spots on the shore of a beautiful lake. "Garden Door" and "Sedge" Prairies are also worth the attention of Farmers, being of moderate size; high upland; and entirely enclosed with timber. These Prairies all dienclosed with timber.
