are in favor of asserting and maintaining the rights late rebel States shall be allowed to participate in the Congress to prescribe the conditions on which the place in nomination a candidate for Convention.

any other business that may properly come before it.

Never was there greater necessity on the first page of this issue. As a parliament so well and faithfully represented Minnesoagainst Lis honesty and uprightness, save stated by the New York.

Tbe most rigid scrutiny Mr. Collins served with distinction du-are confident that the people would accept, his past services to the couutry recommend him as a

The Union men know that he is from the southern portion of the State, and theiit thriftiness he is more proud than trees of his plantation where they grow too

Bob-Examiner;