Dr. and Mrs. Murphy were in Macon this week for several days. They returned to West Point Thursday morning, after making an unsuccessful attempt to go Wednesday afternoon. After getting a mile or two north of Artesia in their auto, they were forced to return by the heavy rains which had put the creeks over the roads and washed up several bridges.

DRAMATIC FESTIVAL
 HERE ALL NEXT WEEK.

The Russell Bros., are bringing to Macon the Paramount Players, a very high class dramatic and vaudeville company, composed of some of the world's best artists. They will be here all next week under their own waterproof tent theatre, which is well heated with ten army stoves. The show will be located on the lot next to the jail.

This company promises to put on some of the best and most attractive performances ever seen in Macon. They have a standing reputation of eleven years to back up their statements. This is the first time they have shown in Macon, and all the theatre-going people will do well to see these plays and vaudeville of excellence, which comes between each and every act.

The leading lady and others of the company have costumes that cannot be seen outside the large city theatres. Any one who wishes to see a good clean show will have their every wish gratified in next week's performance. A special added attraction is the famous Paramount Jazz orchestra.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE DEFEATED. Yankee, do the honors in asking them down.
HENRY MINOR.

Woman Suffrage was defeated in the lower rhine of representatives last Wednesday by a decisive vote. Mississippi thereby missed the opportunity to be the 36th State to vote for the adoption of the amendment. Senator Minor sent the following telegram to Noxubee's representatives in an effort to influence them to vote for the amendment:

"Mississippi has great chance to serve national democracy, the South and the Nation by being the hand that finally delivers the vote to the women of the country. We are dealing with a fast accomplished, in that many million women already vote. We are dealing with another fact certain of easy accomplishment, as the Nineteenth Amendment is sure of ultimate passage. The ladies, in spite of all we can do, are getting down from the pedestal. Let us, instead of some
