James S. Morrison is among the cattle celebrities in from the range. Mr. Morrison is a well posted and entertaining gentleman, and it is pleasant to have him come around.

Reports from the leased lands are to the e ffect that fencing is progressing rapidly and satisfactorily. Large forces of men with Indian helpers are pushing ahead with the work, and it is hoped the tenees will be completed in time to hold the cattle this winter.

The eattle brands are commencing to crowd in upon us in a way we appreciate. It is no longer the policy of cattlemen to conceal their brands, but to have them known everywhere and by everybody. The actual saving by this policy has already been proved. We are prepared to take care of all brands entrusted to us, and will enlarge the paper if necessary to accommodate them.

We visited the Arapahoe school on Monday evening last and passed a few pleasant hours dividing our time in witnessing the different exercises. In study hour we noticed that the large group of young Indian children there assembled are pushing forward upon the highway of knowledge, and we must say that as a whole they evinced a degree of understanding and aptitude in their studies that would do honor to a school of white pupils. It is im-Mr. and Mrs. H. F.
