on all my follies, from my first not beed plaster things wit upn's face on the lea-pe a "crary quilt."

tonity of personally thanking him.
Crofton at first poon-poohed the idea of being thus made a hero of, but there chandler, in Resper's Bunar.

WANTED, A WIFE,

uby, of Brazenface College, d just finished his usual after kfast pipe, on the last day of the essted by a sharp rap at his door, lately followed by the entrance well-dressed person of his coilege ng in," said Hornby, "and ourself a pipe."

A thank ye, can't stop," replied sen, "as I have a lot to do this sing; but I thought I would just aross and tell you a bit of news. I cross and tell you a bit of news. I just arranged a glorious hoax, at spense, I need hardly say, of old chest and a basin of gruet by his said, probably thinking the d. owning would have been infinitely pre'erable to the doctoring.

Of course Crofton was invited to stay to dinner, so as to meet Mr. West, who did not return from business till ofter six. About that time he arrived, and a tiser, who was handsome, rich and six. About that time he arrived, and a that sort of thing, desired to meet fine cheery fellow he was, and right all that sort of thing, desired to meet with a pretty and accomplished girl with a view to matrimony. All applicants were to send their photographs:

the replies to be sent to H. C., No. 151

St. Giles', Oxford that's the house where my scout lives, and so, of course, I told him to bring me my letters thus iddressed. I got no reply for a day. I told him to bring me may letters thus addressed. I got no reply for a day or so, but four days ago I received a letter from a certain damsed, who described berself as young, handsome and accomplished, inclosed me the photograph of a very pretty girl, ended by asking as when and where I should meet her town, and signed herself Miss L. Bernard, Piccavilly Circus Post-office; she also expressed a desire to have the advertiser's photograph, so I promptly es that of old Crofton, which he her; so my scheme is, to somehow ink it is an informal sho s more, I have half a mind to go ad tell the kangaroo of the hoar."

"Oh, come now," sa'd Methven, you'd nover do that, Jack, I know.

by, don't you think that a mag-

"Oh, come now," and Methven, on'd never do that, Jack, I know, ell! I can't stay any longer, so gooder for the present."

There is not the very slightest doubt at, if the fates had not intervened, ornby would have gone straight to ofton and warned him of the impendig hoax, and this story would never two been written; but, as it happened, sooner had Methven gone out of ornby's rocks it an in rushed the Section of the party) the feeling seemed to pass away, and soon gave piace to a sincere regard. Sunday afternoon rambles through the heather, cozycleats in the gloaming after dinner, lessons in the mysteries of "gobang" and chess, have been written; but, as it happened, sooner had Methven gone out of ornby's rocks it an in rushed the Section of the party) the feeling seemed to pass away, and soon gave piace to a sincere regard. Sunday afternoon rambles through the heather, cozycleats in the gloaming after dinner, lessons in the mysteries of "gobang" and chess, hear through the heather, cozycleats in the gloaming after dinner, lessons in the mysteries of "gobang" and chess, hear through the heather, cozycleats of the party) the feeling seemed to pass away. and soon gave piace to a sincere regard. Sunday afternoon rambles through the heather, cozycleats of the party) the feeling seemed to pass away. and soon gave piace to a sincere regard. Sunday afternoon rambles through the heather, cozycleats in the gloaming after dinner, lessons in the mysteries of "gobang" and chess, hear through the mysteries of "gobang" and t and several attempts having lately reputation as a joker, had con-packing his traps ready for going the next day. After chatting a ent or two the tempter began "As you're going to town to-morrow, ton; "that's mine, sure enough; but want you to do me a little favor. I who on earth could have sent it, and to meet a girl, a consin of why to you of all people!"

-morrow. We each had got "Oh," said Lilian, "Pa erder for the House of Commons, will think me very silly, but when I night—the smallest crescent I have ever seen.

plan he had just disclosed to aby. He found the genial giant

Why, yes; Is he a friend of yours? note to Miss I. Bernard that H. C. "Oh, I only met him when staying in ould meet her at the Westminster the country last Christmas; and I think, ridge pier, at a quarter past two Harry, he liked me better than I did , and that she must come up him.

and speak to him if she saw him first.

The next morning Crofton, having undergone that dread ordeal called "collections," having been bullien alternately by the principal, the dean and the senior tutor, hurried off to the "But, tell me, how were you to know practical jokes he is always playing."
"But, tell me, how were you to know station and just managed to eatch the this young lady. Harry?" said Lilian. mid-day express to town. On his ar-mid-day express to town. On his arrival, leaving his traps at a hotel, he rushed off to Westminster Bridge landing pier and arrived there within a large hat and feather, with a fan in her tte or two of the appointed time. hand?" said Lilian with a smile.

"The very same." said Crofton

There were but few people on it when he arrived, and certainly no one resembling in the slightest degree the photograph of Mr. Methver a consin. He looked up and down, but no—there mysterious Mr. H. C. And now, Harry dear, it's not a bit of use getting angry was only one young lady there, and she wasn't in the least like the photograph. She was standing close to the ticket-office, holding the hand of a little boy of ten or so—and she seemed to watch Crofton with an amused smile as he important the latter of the parts we have each played in the patiently widked up and down, looking strange little 'Comedy of Errors.'" now at her watch and now at the ParliaI need hardly say Crofton scaled the new at her watch and now at the Parliament clock tower. The little boy, getting tired of waiting, had slipped away under the protecting chains around the side and began to play with a little dog that was vaguely roaming about. The young lady did not miss him, and when Crofton happened to turn he saw the child, in trying to avoid a sudden bound of the dog, stumble and fall over the pier into the river. The child yelled, the girl shricked, and the dog barked to the girl shricked, and the dog barked to the five the five to the five the five pier into the river. The child yelled, the girl shricked, and the dog barked for sympathy, but Crofton, who fortunately had plenty of presence of mind and was a good strong swimmer, dived quietly into the water, caught up the child in a couple of strokes, and in a very short time had restored his dripping burden to the young lady. She ping burden to the young lady. She ping burden to the young lady. She was of course most grateful to him for having saved the life of her little brother (for so the child turned out to

was a pleasing look in her pretty eyes which quite overcame his acruples; and, having ascertained that her father face Methyen had never seen before, and what's more, dich't like ft. Cavendish Square, he promised to call there the following afternoon. And, as there was still no sign of Miss Bernard, and as he was dripping wet, he halled a passing cab and returned to his "Now, look here," said Crofton, quietly-and there was an ugly look in The next day according to his prom-his eyes, and a firmness in his jaw that ise, he called at No. 136 Cavendish made Methyen unconsciously creep Methyen unconsciously creep square, and was received most kindly by Miss West, his acquaintance of yesterday, and her mother, an old lady, who thanked him moss volubly for havnear the door-"I don't want to have a ing saved dear Bertie's life, who, she take advantage of my good-nature in added, was none the worse for the ducking, and was at that moment in for the future, if you like a whole skin, ducking, and was at that moment in bed, with a mustard plaster on his chest and a basin of gruel by his side, probably thinking the d. owning would have been infinitely pre'erable to the nicest little girl in England."

"Really," said Methven with a sneer,
"then I think the least you can do is to introduce us, as she may possibly like to make the acquaintance of the unconscious author of her happiness.

"Perhaps she might," replied Crof-ton, quietly, "if she hadn't unfortu-nately made it before. Good-night, Jack," and so saying he left the room. "There Methyen," said Hornby, "I knew quite well some row world come ed to sport, snapped re that of old Crofton, which he at the offer; and so it was arranged bely given me, and said I would that he should go up to Mr. West a conight when and where I should shooting lodge, in Cromarty, on the looking around saw Methyen as white the street of the shooting lodge, in Cromarty, on the looking around saw Methyen as white the street of the shooting lodge, in Cromarty, on the looking around saw Methyen as white the street of the shooting lodge, in Cromarty, on the looking around saw Methyen as white the should go up to Mr. West a looking around saw Methyen as white the should go up to Mr. West a looking around saw Methyen as white the should go up to Mr. West a looking around saw Methyen as a sheet, with his head furied in his

If he defined in his seed buried in his considerably supprised him by the seed service was the happiest time of his life—good sport, nice men in the house, and, ah! far best of all, the society of the service was the happiest time of his life—good sport, nice men in the house, and, ah! far best of all, the society of the service was the section of the service was the section of the section of went on, and she had plenty of oppor-tunity of seeing what a modest sterling fellow he was (besides being the best is now the wife of Henry Crofton, B. A. of Brazenface College, Oxford. And pointing the place and time of meeting. looking off at the sky over the bay. I "Most certainly not, it's not a bit look, also, but see nothing. I move on like my handwriting. Couldn't write further, until I come in sight of the so well if I tried for a month." sea-shore, when I discover thousands of "Well, Harry, you must at least own blank, cloudiess sky. I ferret out a speak English), and he explains it all to me. This is the first day of the Hiudoo that this your photograph. '

"Good gracious, yes.' replied Crofnew year, and it is a great National

"Oh," said Lilian, "I'm afraid you much looking I discover the queen of we meant to have a little lunch together at Lucas' before we went in, we had arranged to meet at a quarter past two at the Westminster Bridge landing pier, that being a piece where we could a possibly miss each other. Now, as had luck will have it the dean has sent for me to see him after collections, so that I can't let the girl know, because she's away on a visit for a day or two to some friends, whose address I have forgotten.

The streets are thronged with men, women and children, all attired in costumes that are more showy than any I have ever seen elsewhere in the world. A series of terrible shrieks now rise above the babel of street cries. I elbow my way along to the scene of operations, and find that a Hindeo is piereing the nose of one of his daughters, aged perhaps ten years. This is, of course, a part of every girl's riends, whose address I have forgotten, eclived the photograph and letter you have just seen. So, with Bertie as my clie's been to the House. Now, I don't companion, feeling sure that the adversal appreciated in the taking. The means want the poor child to wait an hour for me, so would you mind going there at a quarter past two and telling her I can't come, because of that beastly dean? And so that you can't mistake her, I've brought you her photograph. Bythe-by, her name's Miss Bernard.

Now will this be too much trouble for

"Oh, not a bit," said Crofton, "I would not go to meet me, why in the world did you go to the pier at that world did you go to the extent of a fifty-dol ar bounct. He says good morn ing now.

"I went on a commission," said he.

"I went on a commission," said he.

"I went on a commission," said he.

"I went on a commission of the pier at that world down to his other in a short time. It is a valuable thing to know wherein and how foods differ in respect to their nights and carbonaceous character, for much of their value in feeding depends on the world how for a college friend of mine, named how for a college friend of mine, named how foods differ in respect to their nights a valuable thing to know wherein and how foods differ in respect to their nights a valuable thing to know wherein and how foods differ in respect to their nights a valuable thing to know wherein and how foods of the val you did not go to meet me, why in the he started down to his office in the HOME, FARM AND GARDEN.

-Do not let the weeds get a day ahead of you. Sprinkle hellebore and water rose bushes to kill the insects .- N. K. It is in the man, and not the place, al-

-- Every bunch of grass or weeds that -Every garden should contain a few rows of small fruits, not only for useful purposes, but for ornamental. On rich rden soils the product is sometimes arge enough to supply a family from a very small area with all they require.-Cleveland Leader.

vantura-Chicago Times.

mals, especially during warm summer stock, the most improved implements, days, the backs of the cattle should be next farm buildings, substantial fences, of ten years' wear than the cheap up-holstered colored furniture, of which so enjoyment in life.

has been made for several years, as the master and a cruel tyrant over him.

an orange custards: Boil the rind of an orange till it is tender, pound it in a clean mortar and add to it the juice of two oranges, eight ounces of loaf sugar, the yelks of four eggs and the whites of chroc, beat altogether for ten minutes, then add a pint of milk, stir over the prospect pleases and only man is vile."

-Exchange.

ground, the better it is for their growth.

Mistakes are often made by neglecting to stir the soil until the weeds get well

A few rules of conduct thoughtfully made and consistently kept will do started, neder the belief that the object wonders in this reformation. For inof cultivation is principally to kill the stance, let a careless farmer determine weeks; but a neglect for one or two weeks to break the crust, and pulverize finish everything he undertakes in a has been supposed that it is the dust in the hay which produces the disease by irritating the sensitive lining mem-brane of the bronehial tubes. This susposition is probably a mistake. Clover hav is not necessarily dusty, not nearly so much so as timothy cut before it is ripe, in which the immature blossom exists in the form of fine dust, which, being partly pollen, has a very irritating effect upon the membranes. only timothy hay to horses and keep the clover hay for cows. Now, heaves is a nervous disorder, and does not them and consequent obstruction of the air passages, produces the disorder wn as roaring, or wheezy, noisy respiration, but not the heaving of the danks, which is the effect of the spasmod e action of the disphragm, produced disordered nervous action, and thich is known as heaves. It is more probable that the nitrogenous quality the clover hay is the real cause of disorder, as food rich in nitrogen timulates the nervous system, while food rich in starch, as potatoes, for instance, has a very favorable effect upon a horse that is troubled with heaves. Let us have all the sweet sounds we Cotton-seed-meal and peas are also highly nitrogenous foods, and these, if tools.—W. D. Boynton, in American AgOATS-No. 2. their use is persisted in will cause rientlurist.

The Reformed Farmer.

The reform of the farmer is prelimi nary to any improvement in the farm A man makes his own environments ways, that success of failure Just as in a moral sense "a change grows in the garden is just so much nu-triment taken from the vegetables -- character, so it is in regard to a man's character, so it is in regard to a man's conduct of his farm—the farmer must the artificial food, corn and cake, being Baked Milk: Put a half gallon of milk in a jar and tie it down with writing paper. Let it stand in a moderate oven eight or ten hours. It will be like cream, and is very nutritious.—Baptist Weekly. instinctively and practically unclean, or of neatness and order to a careless man, or of of regularity and promptness to one who is constitutionally averse to exertion either of body or mind. There are men who are utterly incapable of the sense of gratitude, who are meanly dishonest, who are so incapable of a sense of shame as to steal the products of a man's work, whether it be of his hands one pint in every twenty-five head of sheep or lambs, one-quarter pint per —In sowing seeds in the garden it is or brain, so long as they are in no fear breel to remember that though the soil of punishment, and what can change well to remember that though the soil should be deep and finely pulverized, yet a loose condition is unfavorable to gas I growth. After the seeds are sown a heavy rolling would be a great adpunishment, and what can change ese vicious habits excepting a total arrangement of the man's moral narrangement of the man's moral nare? It is precisely the same in regard a man's work on the farm. What artling contrasts may be found it ar neighbors! Here, for instance, we fortify against diseases, the dose should startling contrasts may be found it To prevent the ox-fly or gad-fly near neighbors! Here, for instance, we from depositing its eggs on cattle, see a farmer surrounded by every evidence of thrift, with the best kind of tays, the backs of the cattle should be sponged every forenoon with a solution of penny-royal or walnut leaves.—Ez-change. -If a room is in very general use have materials that will bear usage. Hair-cloth and cane furniture are not very fashionable now, yet if one has them, they will look better at the end of ten years were then the end of ten years. able and happy, and to securing every him uncorking a bottle of college port, and over this bottle, soothed by the fagrant weed, Harry Crofton told brother (for so the child turned out to be), and as Crofton put them into a cab, she asked him to call on them at home and give her parents an opportunity of personally thanking him. Crofton at first pooh-poohed the idea of being thus made a hero of, but there was a pleasing look in her pretty eyes was a pleasing look in her pretty eyes.

In part of the colled turned out to be the child turned out to take how it had happened, and what a very lucky dog he was. He had just finished his narrative, when a knock add time bread-crumbs and fry in hot lard on a graddle, dropping from a spoon. If you have no stale bread use four or cracker crumbs.—N. Y. Post.

The part of the very opposite of all this, and a weary farmer struggling with his work, which enfolds and grips him in s close and crushing embrace like that of the serpent colled about Laccoon and his sons, as told in the old fable. He is a slave, driven by his work, which goes all arniss, because it is his master and when a man is mastered by his work he has a hard, relentless taskmaster and a cruel tyrant over him.

The part of the very opposite of all this, and a weary farmer struggling with his work, which enfolds and grips him in s close and crushing embrace like that of the serpent colled about Laccoon and his sons, as told in the old fable. He is a slave, driven by his work, which goes all arniss, because it is his master.

Figure of being the part of the very opposite of all this, and a weary farmer struggling with his work, which enfolds and grips him in s close and crushing embrace like that of the serpent colled about Laccoon and his sons, as told in the old fable. He is a slave, driven by his work, which enfolds and grips him in som store of the very opposite of all this and a weary farmer struggling with his and severy opposite of all this.

Across the iane of the very opposite of all this and a weary farmer struggling with his and severy hea has been made for several years, as the longer it has lain unwashed the better it will wear, the paint being harder. Never scrub. Sweep with a soft hairbrush, and wash with a soft cloth dipped in milk and water. Don't use seap. Rub dry with a handful of rags.

—Betroit Pos:

master and a cruel tyrant over him. Such cases are to be seen on every hand and by every one who uses his eyes. What are the reasons? They are not in the farm naturally. Indeed, at times we may see naturally rich land with a very poor owner, and a poor farm naturally with a rich ownfarm naturally with a rich own-Orange custards: Boil the rind of er. Just as we see the stony fire until it is set, then pour into glass dishes or cups. -N. I. Herald.

A fine, lustrous polish for delicate misery so long and no one shade it from any line and no one shade it from sare, the white of an egg, one ounce of spirits of wine, one ounce of spirits of salts. Shake well before using. A litreformation is to know that such a proties to be applied to the face of a soft linen pad, and lightly rubbed for a minute or two over the article to be restored, which should be first rubbed off fault. But we beg him to believe that this is precisely the truth of the case. What such a man calls bad luck, that follows him up so closely and pesters an overcoat which he donned. He was him every day, is simply the result of now ready to bid adieu to the prison.

the soil, is an injury to the young thorough manner before he leaves it; plants, so serious that the crop is permanently in ured.

Successful cultivators do not wait for no unpro table things, stock, tools or no unpro table things, stock, tools or would have sold my very soul for her! Successful cultivators do not wait for ho unpro table things, stock, tools or hand now," he continued, with a sol, "and now she's lost forever." With gin to cultivate, but commence the work farm: to be willing to learn, and to With gin to cultivate, but commence the work farm; to be willing to learn, and to those words he walked out, leaving Hornov to pender deeply on the strange irony of fate.

Two years have rolled on, Lilian West just above the surface it is very sure which he should not be above profiting Methyen has long since come to the conclusion that there eifer modes of playing practical jokes on one s friends than by inserting in the papers fictitious matrimonial advertisements.—J. Randal, in Time.

death to them to disturb the soil, but when they get several inches high, with profitably determine to toink of small things, as always to shut a gate or put up bars or close a door after he goes weeds down by cultivating once extra when the plants are small, than not to his machines offed and his tools sharp; doubt a Time. death to them to disturb the soil, but by. In addition to these, he might same feathered intruders. During the time between sowing and harvesting. Rogs-G hirds must live upon something besides grain, and I fancy that farmers seldom think that that something is principally insects, and the eggs of insects. They rear their young on these, and one can hardly est mats the immense number of insects thus destroyed. Were it not for this safeguard that nature has kind-the form of the safeguard that nature has kind-the safeguard And yet we are recommended to feed by furnished us in the form of the feath ered race, the world would, seconting to the best calculations, be completely over-run in a few years of uninterrupted LARD wood. Mis arise from irritation of the bronchial propagation, with crawling, stinging POTATOES-Per arise from irritation of the bronchial membranes. This condition of the membranes. This condition of the membranes arise from irritation of the membranes. This condition of the membranes arise from irritation of the bronchial pests. Birds have an important work to do, and we should aid them with all to do, and we should aid them with all Butchers Steers. to do, and we should seem and; certainly the means at our command; certainly me can not afford to destroy our prospective seem of the control tectors. Every farmer should teach his children to cherish and protect their feathered friends. Encourage the birds. and children too, by building bird-houses about the farm buildings. Teach the boys to build these houses, and thus serve two purposes at once-accustoming them to the use of tools, and imbuing their minds with humane sentiment. Many a farm home knows naught of music but that which fleats on the air from nature's own orchestra. Let us have all the sweet sounds we Charconi as Food for Live Stock.

Charcoal has recently been record mals, as it increases their power of accumulating fat, and promotes the rapid and healthy production of flesh. This was recently proved by takifig the live weights of two lots of sheep, and simply be given two or three times per week. according to the class of food they are having, and the state of the atmosphere. The best plan is to wet a quantity of bran, pollard (malt-combings); mix the charcoal among it, and then among the food you give them. For rapid and healthy fattening of cattle, it should be used daily among their food. Charcoal for internal and medicinal purposes must be pure vegetable char-coal, free from all irritating and injurious foreign matter. The charcoal when coming into the user's possession must

An interesting story is told in con-nection with the old State Prison at Charlestown, which shows how small An interesting story is told in connection with the old State Prison at Charlestown, which shows how small and insignificant a thing may give liberty to a prisoner. A convict had been sentenced to imprisonment for fifteen years for committing a series of burglaries, and had served between three and four years when one day he brought a small chip of wood from the shop where he was engaged in labor to his cell. This fact was not worthy of brought a small chip of wood from the shop where he was engaged in labor to his cell. This fact was not worthy of notice at the moment. When, however, the prisoner, with others, had marched to their cells, he placed the chip in such a way, as to prevent the bolt of the door of his cell from fastening. The officers on duty made their usual inspection, saw each man in his cell and so reported.

After the inspection had been made the co wict in question opened his cell door, all the collections and passed onickly out fire until it is set, then pour into glass dishes or cups. —N. F. Herald.

—A fine, instrous polish for delicate cabinet work can be made as follows: Half-pint linseed oil, half-pint of old ale, the white of an egg, one ounce spirits of wine, one ounce of spirits of salts. Shake well before using. A little to be applied to the face of a seft linen pad, and lightly rubbed for a min.

The officers of his cell from fastening. The officers on duty made their usual inspection, saw each man in his cell and so reported. After the inspection had been made the place every time.

Now, the first thing necessary to a reformation is to know that such a process is indispensable. Some reader worked. Here he put on a pair of over. worked. Here he put on a pair of overhis own inefficiency or carelessness or dilatory and n gleetful habits. We for he knew that at any moment his erops are planted, the earth is firmed over the seed to make them germinate over the seed to make them germinate better; thus a crust is formed that is not graduate in this school of experience in beneficial to the growth of the young plants therefore, the sooner the crust is broken after the young plants are above one begins to learn, however, and the broken after the young plants are above one begins to learn, the sooner he Halifax, where to-day he is engaged in a list he first province to be entirely free. legitimate business.—Boston Globe.

The Big Brewery.

Mr. J. Hirsch, College Point Brewery, L. L. N. Y., writes that he employs a large number of horses and hands, and having tried St. Jacobs Oil, the great paincure, for rheumatism, aches and pains of his men, and for galls, splints, thrush, wind-galls and other affections of his horses, finds it superior to all remedies, and would not be without it.

Way is a United States Treasury note like a caterpillar? Because it is hard to counterfeit (count-her-feet.) — Chicaga Tribune.

FORTY-FIVE YEARS.

NOT FIVE DOLLARS FOR DOCTOR IN WATSONVILLE, SANTA CREZ CO., CAL. | Feb. 34 1881.

match at 11:30. It was now elected, and he could get tigether only cover. Matter and his extension of clock, and he could get tigether only cover. Matter and his scheme haden in the first product of the land. A soil that is well was many to force me for the still yield of the creating for a long range for a long range of the creating to the state and the production. There is no work that pay for the creating for a long range fo I am eighty-four years old and my wife is seventy-seven. We have raised a family of ten children. I have used BRAND-

Shipping Steers... Native Heifers.... Native Cress... Butchers' Steers... ed to choice heavy WHEAT-No. 1 ST. LOUIS. RYE-No. 2... PORK COTTON-Middling TOBACCO-New L CHICAGO HOGS—Good to choic SHEEP—Fair to choi FLOUR—Common to WHEAT—No. 2 red. No. 3. No. 2 Spring.

THE STAGE-DRIVER'S STORY. How General Scott's Life Was Sweed a." Ills Driver Twice Escaped Death.

The traveler of the present day, as he is burried along by the lightning express, in its buffet cars and palace sleepers, seldom stage coath and packet were the only means of communication between distant points. It is rare that one of the real old ime stage drivers is mut with now-a-days and when the writer recently ran across Fayette Haskell, of Lockport, N. Y., he felt like a hibliographer over the discovery of some rare volume of "forgotten lore." Mr. Haskell, although one of the pioneers in stage driving the formerly ran from Lewiston to Niagara Falls and Bunfalo) is hale and hearty and bids fair to live for many years. The strange stories of his early adventures would fill a volume. As one time when going down a mountain near Lewiston with no less a person of the General Scott as a passenger, in brakes gave way and the coach came on than General Scott as a passenger, the brakes gave way and the cosch came on the heats of the wheel horses. The only remedy was to whip the leaders to a gallop. Gaining additional momentum with each revolution of the whoels the coach swayed and pitched down the mountain side and into the streets of Lewiston. Straight ahead at the foot of the steep hill flowed the Nisgara River, towards which the four horses dashed, armarently to cerflowed the Niagara River, towards which the four horses dashed, apparently to certain death. Yet the firm hand never relaxed fis hold for the clear brain its conception of what must be done in the emergency. On dashed the borses until the narrow dock was reached on the river bank, when by a masterily exhibition of nerve and daring, the coach was turned in scarce its own length and the horses brought to a stand still before the pale lookers on could realize what had occurred. A purse was raised by General Foots and presented to Mr. Hankell with high compliments for his skill and bravery.

akill and bravery.

Notwithstanding all his strength and his robust constitution the strain of continuous work and exposure proved too much for Mr. Haskell's constitution. The constant joiling of the coach and the neces-sarily cramped position in which he was obliged to sit, contributed to this end, and obliged to sit, contributed to this end, and at times he was obliged to abandon driving altogether.

Speaking of this period he said:

"I found it almost impossible to sleep at night; my appetite left me entirely and I had a tired feeling which I never knew hefore and could not account for."

"Did you give up driving entirely?"

"No. I tried to keep up but it was only with the greatest effort. This state of things continued for nearly twenty years until last October when I went all to niece."

Mr. Haskell's experience is repeated every day in the lives of thousands of American men and women. An unknown evil is undermining the existence of an innumerable number who do not realize the danger they are in until bealth has entirely departed and death perhaps stares them in the face. To neglect such important matters is like drifting in the current of Niagara above the Falls.

-A grand festival was recently held As soon as the young plants are well above ground, the work of stirring the soil should begin, not only because the wests will thus be kept down, but because the soil needs lightning up to let in the air. When most of the hoed in the soil should begin at times, and there are very few farmers who can learn all the size of the shanner of the secaped man the relevant of the in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in honor of Insurance is a good thing whether applied to life or property. No less a blessing is anything that insures good health. Aidney-Wort does this. It is no ure's great remedy. It is a mild but efficient cathartic, and acting at the same time on the Liver, Klimp's and Bowels, it relieves all these organs and enables them to perform their duties perfectly. It has wonderful power. See advt.

Onjection is made in New York to drowning stray does for tear so many sunken barks may obstruct navigation.

Is used to Hospitals as a disinfecting agent.

tle bee she gives it beeswhacks. - Warm Weather Wit.

Iv you feel yourself growing weaker, your strength falling, the functions of your body becoming impaired, take warning in time! Your blood is starving for want of nourishment. Dr. Guysett's Yellow Dock and Sarsararilla is food for the blood. It wirther this stream of life and streamthen. purifies this stream of life and strengthens every part of the body, rebuilds a broken down constitution, produces dreamies; simpler, and restores wasted energies and a shattered nervous system. A trial bottle

"Can the half-player, who 'steals bases be called a base deceiver?" asks the Bos

No Lapy need be without Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because she is far distant from drug stores. The proprieters send it postage paid by mail from Lynn, Mass., in the form of lozenges or of pills; price, $1 per bex, or six for $5. Send for the "Guide to Health" which gives full particulars.

fr is leap year and every good girl hould have a sir prize. Detroit Free

WHAT will cure Whooping Cough? That is a question asked every day. We can answer that we have found the remedy in Papillon Cough Cure. It never fails, and can be a immissioned to infants without danger. It is perfectly harmless.

Is it proper for an old toper to speak of his drinken compared as his bos friend?-Gouverneur Hearld.

Jour A. Surra, the largest merchant in John A. Smith, the largest merchant in Gainesville, Ga., says: "I suffered for years from the combined effects of Ery-alpelas and Errema. I continued to grow worse under medical treatment and by taking medicine containing Potash. S. S. S. cured me thoroughly and absolutely. My appetite, strength and firsh returned as I was cured with it."

 A strax sign of rain-leaving home in the morning without an umbrella. You will be Happy. Make your old Lift you will be happy. Any your out things look like new by using the Diamond Byes, and you will be happy. Any of the tashionable colors for De. at the druggists. Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt. ANY man can make money-go. - White-

KIDNEY Complaints, Female Weaks and Debility are absolutely cured by Pap illon Blood Cure. EVERY one has a right to drop a line to a fish .- Progyung. Is afflicted with Sore Eyes, use Dr. Isase hompson's Eye Water. Druggiats sell it. Eig MEN who hate long sentences-Crimi-

Piso's RENEDY for Catarrh is a certain cure for that very observious dis

VER "ST. BERSARS VESETABLE PILLS."
The Best Cure for Liver and Stringer conducting. Considering. and Pill Makers, to Harner St., New York

BYANT & STRATTON'S HUMBER COME

SOMETHING NEW We make up special cases for Private and Pass

121 & 123 W. Fifth St., Kan 'as City, Me PAPILLON

"WHAT HON, J. C. BURROWS SAYS," "WHAT HON. J. C. BURROWS SAYS."
For more than five years past a member of my family has been edilected with Hay Fever, calminating hat in the fail with a backing cough, which would increase in severity until the return of warm weather. Every remody prevent failin, and retird was only found in a change of climate. There was a recurrence of the difficulty left full, ascended with the small chart failing the flowing protracted sowering. Not half a bouldest Fapillion Catarric Cure had been used before the cought as mady wonderful Cure had been used before the cought as mady wonderful! Don't fail to try fit.

J. C. Numbers.

(Ex. Memb., Congress, stin Dist., Mich.)

Raismagoo, Mich., March tith, 1884.

"A DRUCCIS I'S TESTIMONY." the lith of Merch I sold Manson Gotine, therease artificials's Black's, conducting of Papillon Gough try, and a week later he sold me that it had m

VEGETABLE COMPOUND

All these painful Complaints and Weaknesses so commun. 6 *and Weaknesses so commun *
 to our heat * * * * * *
 FENALE POPULATION.  * The purpose is solely for the legitimate is discovering the relief of point, and that it is o' time to do, thousands of tooline een gladly

WHEN an old bee wants to punish a lit-

A CANCER FOR TWENTY YEARS med the upper part of my hody. My general heads we broken down, and my life was described of . S. S. corred ma sound and well. This new brack of the gave to the can not be measured by any manustry value. I own my life and the support of my family t Swift's Specific. W. H. Hifelifo's, Dayfaboro, Os

Our Trentise on Blood and Skin Discases ma

SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Drawer & Athata, Ga.

N. Y. Office, 150 W. 204 St.; Philadelphia Office, 1206 BARBLESS FISH HOOKS CERTAIN TO HOLD EVERY FISH. Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 6, 7, 8, 9, For Frent. For Bass. For Pile. For such by the principal dealers in St. Louis If you can not processor them, will mad standed dozens on receipt of prior, Or on close stamp for descriptive list. WILLIAM MILLIAM WILL TWEE WILLIAM MILLS & SOX.

BY AD AR HER OF BEAUND per a. the distinguished found lie. Live or Listed N. by Rey Pen-Airte A.N. by Hay Pun-rat Proofs. It years un officer of Count s. Au-bratic and complete. Our voi. 650 pages: 2 stell portraits, 24 f il page Placement Coun-AGENTS

5 TON JONES

WAGON SCALES, $60 and BINGHAMTON

PISO'S CURE FOR COMES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Blood Chough Myrops. Therine good.
Ulse in times. Soois by dynagrists. CONSUMPTION

ENGINES, THRESHERS SAV-HILLS,

OF

BLAINE & LOGAN. But Steel Pertra Ag MA wen'rd. G.E. Pertrat, Pub'r, III Names St. N WHEN WRITING TO ADVERTISERS