COMMODORE OF RUSSIAN ARMY SAYS HE IS READY

Is ALL SWELLED UP WITH PROSPECTS

Krupotkin Says Days of Retreating Are Over—Russian Army Will Take the Offensive—Has Confidence of Success

ST. PETERSBURG: Following is the text of an order issued by General I. N. Krasnov today:

"More than seven months ago the enemy, in the fullest trust, fully spurred on at Port Arthur became activated. Since then, by land and sea, Russian troops have performed many heroic deeds, of which the fatherland may justly be proud. The enemy, however, is not only unwounded, but, in his arrogance, continues to dream.

"The troops of the Manchuria army, in unavailing good spirit, histroidly attack our army—another step toward the defeat of the Japanese army. Our greatest duty is to overcome all the difficulties of strengthening the active army so as to enable it to accomplish with complete success the arduous but honorable task imposed upon it. It is for this reason that the Imperial Government, at the suggestion of the Defence Ministry, issues today this order to the troops of the army.

"You held the positions you had so heroically defended, covered with purple dust. But you have not stood out allowing yourselves to be deserted in the full preparation for a forward movement. And I therefore give you this order.

"I order the regiment with a sorrowful heart, but with unchanged confidence that it was necessary in order to fulfill complete and decisive victory over the enemy when the time came.

"The emperor has assigned for the conflict with Japanese forces sufficient to assure us victory. All difficulties in transporting these forces over a distance of 150 miles must be overcome in a spirit of self-sacrifice and with indomitable energy and skill by Russian men in every branch and rank of the service, and every social position with whom has been entrusted this very big task. The victory is unprecedented in the history of warfare.

"In addition to numerical strength in all commands, from the lowest to the highest ranks, to the extent possible, all must be to prevail, to gain victory. Whatever the sacrifice necessary to achieve this end, and in mind the importance of victory to Russia; and, above all, to the honor of the nation, the sooner you lay down your life, the more speedily to relieve our brothers at Port Arthur, who for several days have been waging the defense of the fortress against the enemy."

"The Illustrious head of the Russian army, together with the whole of Russia, begs you to pass the following message to your heroic deeds."

ARDMORE GAMBLER SHOT AS A RESULT OF TITTLE HAMMER GUNFIRE

ARDMORE: Tom Harris, a well-known gambler, was shot and probably fatally wounded by C. D. Wolfe, a gambler. The shooting occurred in the gambling room in the Aplin building. Wolfe was told to leave and when Harris was shot a telegraph was sent to Harris in the Aplin building and he was shot. Wolfe is a relative of Tom Harris and the police have already arrested him. There is no further news of Tom Harris. He was arrested last week and was released pending trial. The police have already arrested him. There is no further news of Tom Harris. He was arrested last week and was released pending trial.

GOVERNOR McCURTAIN ASKS FOR A SQUAD OF POLICE

GOVERNOR Tomorrow—The Governor of the Chickasaw Nation asks that a squad of Indian police be dispatched at once to aid the light horsemen of the Chickasaw nation to quell an uprising of the Creek Indians in the Chickasaw nation. He stated that there were several Indian troops congregated near the Chickasaw Nation, the Creek Indian position, and that more are arriving all the time. Both the Chickasaw and the Cherokee tribes are assisting and aiding the inhabitants of that section.

The police were sent as requested. It is the same thing as the Kiowa Indians trying to drive out the whites from the wells and towns, and now and then will probably be in operation again in a few hours.

Seven-Five Were Encamped When the Checotah Chief Sort in the Call, and More Arming—The Federal Office Not Worried

SHAKE INDIANS CONGREGATE AT BEACH

Seven-Five Were Encamped When the Checotah Chief Sort in the Call, and More Arming—The Federal Office Not Worried

MUSKOGEE: The Indian agent here received a telegram from Governor Curtin of the Chickasaw Nation asking that a squad of Indian police be dispatched at once to aid the light horsemen of the Chickasaw nation to quell an uprising of the Creek Indians in the Chickasaw nation. He stated that there were several Indian troops congregated near the Chickasaw Nation, the Creek Indian position, and that more are arriving all the time. Both the Chickasaw and the Cherokee tribes are assisting and aiding the inhabitants of that section.

The police were sent as requested. It is the same thing as the Kiowa Indians trying to drive out the whites from the wells and towns, and now and then will probably be in operation again in a few hours.

MURDER MYSTERY

Woman Arrested Upon Charge of Killing Her Husband

GUTHRIE: A great event, still harder to believe, is the arrest of Daniel Davis for the murder of his wife. Both Mrs. Davis and Tom Mix have been arrested in an investigation of the alleged murder of the woman. The police believe that the woman killed her husband.

The facts now to show that before death there was a womanoned in the case, and perhaps several of them. It is stated that Davis could not have committed suicide, and that there was a second woman in the case. The police believe that the woman killed her husband.

Two citizens of Comanche County, said that Davis was killed by a woman.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Man Took Refuge From Flood in Trestle Shot

SHAWNEE: J. B. Trout, a resident of the south part of the county, was forced into a tree by the high water of the Grand River. He was killed by a man with a Turkish rifle, in a few hours. As he walked to a nearby bridge, he was shot and killed immediately. George Miller, a local bad man, was believed to have fired the shot. The officer reached the bridge and put a .44-40 slug into the villain. The officer reached the bridge and put a .44-40 slug into the villain. Trout was shot and killed on the bridge. He was identified as J. B. Trout. Trout was wealthy and respected. His former home was on the road.