PUNAHOU ALUMNI ANNUAL REUNION

The annual reunion of the Punahou Alumni Association yesterday afforded another opportunity for alumni of the school to renew old acquaintances and make new friends. There were many alumni present, and the gathering was very friendly and enjoyable. The most noted fact of the reunion was the fact that many of the alumni who are now engaged in the various fields of industry and commerce were present. This is a reflection of the fact that the alumni of Punahou have done well in life.

Two of the alumni who were present were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bingham. They are both members of the class of 1895, and they have been very active in the affairs of the school in recent years.

SOLDIER PIRATES ESCAPE AND STILL AT LARGE

The search for the solders who escaped from the United States naval vessel Spalding is still going on. The soldiers were last seen on the island of Hawaii, and they are reported to be in hiding. The authorities are making every effort to locate them, and it is hoped that they will be captured soon.

LAND MEMORIAL TO GARFIELD

This is a week long devoted to the memorializing of President Garfield. The United States government has issued a proclamation asking all people to observe this week in memory of the late President. The Memorial Day services will be held in all parts of the country, and there will be speeches and other events to honor the memory of President Garfield.

JAPANESE MINISTER'S WORDS OF ADVICE

Speaking to the representatives of the Hawaiian Kingdom, Minister Arakawa, said that Japan was willing to negotiate with America on the matter of the annexation of Hawaii. He said that Japan was willing to help the Hawaiian government in any way that they could.

SAITO'S SUCCESSOR IS A WELL-KNOWN MAN

Carriel Uno, who will take the place of General Itahara, said that Japan was willing to negotiate with America on the matter of the annexation of Hawaii. He said that Japan was willing to help the Hawaiian government in any way that they could.