SKYLIGHT
DAQUERREAN GALLERY.
L. W. BUELL,
Daquerrean Art. St.
Would respectfully announce to the inhabitants of Keokuk and vicinity, that he is prepared to take likenesses of all who give him a call, in the most perfect manner, having a large Skylight, the only light by which a blue eye can be made to look natural, and far superior to all other lights for Daguerreotyping; also, having an experience in the art of over seven years, he flatters himself that he can suit the most fastidious.
Pictures and Drawings copied; Landscapes and pictures of the sick or decreed taken at short notice. Pictures put up in every variety of style, regardless of the weather, and satisfaction in all cases guaranteed.

THE LOVER'S SOLOQUY.
Go search the Indies' wave for pearls,
To deck your high-born maiden;
Or dig Golconda's diamond sand,
With priceless treasure laden;
Go gather Myrrh and Frankincense;
And sweet Arabian spices,
And cluster round your "heart's delight" Love's wildest of devices—I'll give to her whom I adore, By far an offering richer—My face, all dressed in lover's smiles, In BueLL's fair Skylight Picture.
BueLL's Gallery, 86, Main Street.

DON'T FORGET
TO call at BueLL's large Skylight Daguerrean Gallery, and have your life-like miniature

M. W. HICKS, M. D., SURGEON DENTIST,
City of Keokuk, Iowa.
Office on Main between Second and Third Streets.
D. R. H. in addition to the usual methods of inserting artificial teeth, is in possession of the exclusive right for this city of mounting the "continuous gum teeth" so universally admired for their beauty, strength, and cleanliness. As he has the experience of two years in this style of work, he would unhesitatingly recommend it to the public as possessing many and great advantages over any other style of work known to the profession. Those interested are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens of the different methods of mounting teeth.
April 16, 1885. d4wly

One More!
THE undersigned having permanently located in Keokuk, has opened a Tailor Shop, on Johnson street, one door West of the Post Office, same side, and hopes by punctuality and a strict attention to business to merit a share of public patronage. Being a stranger, I respectfully solicit a trial, and all work entrusted to my care shall be done in a workmanlike manner and "a fit" guaranteed. "Study to please" shall be my motto. With those who desire it I will cheerfully go to the store and assist them in selecting their goods.
T. KELLY.
Keokuk, May 23, 1885. 1md&w

Editors of Gate City,
I wish to say to your readers that I

JAMES REYNOLDS,
Wholesale and Retail Druggist, Mechanic's Block, North side of Main St., KEOKUK, IOWA.

HAVING made arrangements for a permanent business in the above line, I am now offering to the city and country trade a large and well selected stock of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Dyes, Oils and Varnishes, Brushes, Glassware and Window Glass.

Also Perfumery and fancy articles, Cigars, Tobacco and Snuff, and a choice assortment of Family Groceries, including Spices, Teas, Flavoring Extracts, Candies, Soda, Salaraty, and variety of articles pertaining to that department; all which will be sold on the principle of "small profits and quick returns."

Particular attention given to preparing prescriptions. In cases where medicines are required during the night it is frequently inconvenient to obtain them. This difficulty I have completely obviated by having my residence in a part of the same building occupied by my store; and persons desiring medicines may rely upon procuring them at all hours, night or day, without inconvenience or delay.

Druggists, merchants and others, purchasing by the quantity, are requested to give me a call, as I am determined to sell on as favorable terms as any house in the city.
April 6, 1885. dly.
