

MEXICAN ARRESTED BY U. S. MARSHAL

Frank Lawgo is Charged With Violation of Mann White Slave Act and is Captured at Fort Madison.

LIVED WITH WOMAN

Woman is Said to be Mrs. Nellie Hughes of Quincy—Husband Starts Search, Which Resulted in Arrest.

Frank Lawgo, a Mexican, and Mrs. Nellie Hughes, formerly of Quincy, Ill., are in custody at Fort Madison. Lawgo and Mrs. Hughes were arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal D. C. Crowley who had an information charging Lawgo with a violation of the Mann act. The couple will be taken to Ottumwa tomorrow for arraignment before the United States commissioner there.

Lawgo is said to have lived in Keokuk for several months. It has been just recently that he went to Fort Madison. According to information available here, he is charged with having run away with a married woman, whose name was said to be Mrs. Nellie Hughes.

The woman is said to have been living in Quincy at the time. The Mexican and the woman are said to have come here, and to have been living here, and then having gone to Fort Madison where they were caught by the deputy marshal.

The woman's husband at Quincy is said to have started the search for the erring couple.

Lawgo is facing the charge of having violated the white slave act.

Col. H. B. Blood and Miss Blood returned last night after having spent a month in St. Louis, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bisbee.

SUNLIGHT AND SHADOW.
Midnight can't last all the time. And so we ought to love it. We learn that daylight is sublime by just the absence of it. And though the darkness seems all wrong.

And life is void and hollow. There never was a night so long. But day was sure to follow.

Heart aches can't last all the time. And so we ought to love them. They teach us that the more we smile. The less we're fearful of them. And smiling helps us bear our load. Of mortal doubt and yearning. As hopefully we tread the road. Which seems to have no turning.

Winter can't last all the time. And so we ought to love it. For summer's scorching, torrid clime is proof, and plenty of it. And the weather suffers untold. In truth we shouldn't mind it. For winter can't be long and cold. With spring so close behind it.

Shadows can't last all the time. The sun is sure to chase them. Troubles vanish when a smile is ready to replace them.

The soul that darkness would destroy. The heart so plunged in sorrow. Will best appreciate the joy. That comes with each tomorrow.

Married at Galesburg.

Miss Verna L. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Miller, was married on Saturday evening at the parsonage of the First Congregational church in Galesburg to Mr. Carl W. Swanson. The Rev. L. F. Dimmitt officiating. The bride is a graduate of the Keokuk high school in the class of 1914, and has many friends here who will be interested in the wedding announcement. Mr. Swanson is a native of Galesburg but has made many friends since coming to Keokuk. Mr. and Mrs. Swanson will be at home July 1, at 1108 Bank street.

Entertains Thimble Club.

Mrs. J. Craig McManus, 1025 Leighton, entertained the young women of the Thimble club this afternoon, complimentary to Miss Katherine McManus, whose engagement has been recently announced.

P. E. O. Chapter Meeting.
The P. E. O. chapter will meet this evening at the home of the Misses Van Grieken.

For Miss McManus.
Miss Clemence Dandant of Hamilton will entertain a company of Keokuk and Hamilton young women at a one o'clock luncheon tomorrow at the Lakeview club house in honor of Miss Katherine McManus.

Ruthean Class Meeting.

The Ruthean Bible class met this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the parlors of the Trinity M. E. church. One important item of business which will come up for consideration is the selection of a teacher to succeed Mrs. C. M. Finney, who recently moved to Indianapolis. Mesdames Rhodes, Lloyd, Belzer and Doggett were hostesses for the afternoon.

To Plan for Breakfast.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, plans will be made for the Fourth of July supper breakfast to be held in Keokuk. The plans will be made in accord with those outlined for other Iowa cities. The Rev. Miss Eleanor Gordon will speak and all women of the city who are interested, are very cordially invited to meet at 520 North Fifth street, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Naomi Class Will Meet.

The Naomi class of the First Methodist Protestant church will hold a business meeting in the parlors of the church this evening to be followed by a social hour. The meeting this evening is the one postponed from last Thursday evening.

Entertained at Nauvoo.

Mrs. Adele Welsh of Chicago, who lived in Keokuk last year, and will be remembered very pleasantly by many friends, is at Nauvoo, to attend the graduating exercises of the Spaulding Institute, from which her son James, graduates. On Sunday Mrs. Welsh entertained the young women employed in the Winger store at a noon dinner at the Oriental hotel in Nauvoo. Mrs. Welsh and her guests were entertained that evening at supper by the teachers of the institute. The Keokuk guests made the trip to and from Nauvoo by boat and the day was spent delightfully. The following went

Hamilton Gate City

Hamilton, Ill., June 15.

Commissioner Elder is about the busiest man in town these days. The rains have caused all kinds of trouble to our streets, and of course, Mr. Elder, being the doctor, is sent for to hear about the damages. It will take some time to get our streets back to where they were before the rains.

J. E. Beyer of Galesburg was registered at the Hotel Granite yesterday.

T. C. Gooner of Chicago was a business caller yesterday.

W. A. Shrader of Bushnell was in the city yesterday.

A number of our boy scouts are attending the scout camp at Keokuk. We hope the boys have a good time.

The Gate City carriers are attending and we expect them to bring home some of the prizes.

James Guthrie Jr. is attending the boy scouts meeting in Keokuk.

John W. Glosson of Quincy was a Hamilton business caller yesterday.

E. J. Drake of Chicago was a Hamilton visitor yesterday.

The work was begun on the cement walk on Broadway this morning. The company has had some trying time on the walk as it has rained every day since they commenced work.

E. T. Pham of Peoria was registered at the Hotel Granite yesterday. The death of D. W. Hartley occurred last night at 7 o'clock. Mr. Hartley has been in poor health for some time. He was an old resident of Hamilton. The funeral arrangements will be made on the arrival of his sons.

C. C. Hill of Lovelington, Ill., was in the city yesterday.

Leon Henkelman of Davenport was a business caller yesterday.

Our picture show has been closed for several days on account of the back walls settling and they had to take them down and rebuild them. We understand the owners of the building are going to build an addition of several feet on the back part. The movie show will soon be open for business. We have as clean a show in Hamilton as you will find in any town. Herman Riggs, the manager is to be credited for the good shows and good conduct of the place. The room is finished up to date.

PERSONALS.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson who has been attending college at Rockford, Ill., is home for the vacation.

Owen Perry of Helena, Mont., is visiting with Gerard Hulskamp.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Grand.
If you would see a fine, sweet American play, don't miss Wm. H. Crane, in the name role in “David Harum,” which is playing its last of a two days engagement at the Grand today. The attraction brought out big crowds yesterday and many expressed their approval of the program as they left the theatre. Mr. Crane is true to life. He seems to be the man David, not the character. We haven't the space to indicate the many worthy incidents in “David Harum,” the production is one to describe as a whole rather than in detail, and it is one that is mighty good to see. It is a worthy record of the art of a great American player.

The program includes a single reel Shubert-Brady comedy, “Opened by Mistake,” with Richard Carle, and modern ball room dances by Miss Hannah Hawkes and Mr. Sanford Drake. Don't fail to come tonight. There will be two showings, at 7:15 and 9:00.

Tomorrow, a special return engagement of Andrew Mack, in “The Ragged Earl,” a real classic Irish comedy, and “our own movies.” The graduation class, demonstration of the new fire truck and others.—Advertisement.

Orpheum Theatre Tonight.

At the Orpheum tonight a great western play “The Blood of His Brother.” A big two part drama depicts a desperate battle between cowboys, miners and Indians when the train, traveling sixty miles an hour, runs down the Indians. A young private secretary, in love with the railroad president's daughter, proves himself her rival superior in courage and wins a pretty wife in the bargain. A big act. A Romance in Hawaii, featuring Wm. Clifford and Marie Wolcamp. Last, but not least, the celebrated stage comedian, Billie Reeves in “Counting Out the Count.” Coming tomorrow, big special “Peck's Bad Boy,” in three big parts, with Sidney Ayres and Doris Pawn in “What the Blind Man Saw,” two parts. Don't miss this big feature bill at the Orpheum.—Advertisement.

RECALLS GIFT OF FLAG TO SOLDIERS

Mrs. W. S. Ivins Tells About First Celebration When Six Women Gave Flag to Soldiers.

On June 13, 1901, took place the first real celebration of our beloved emblem ever in Keokuk, by the presentation of a beautiful silk flag to Company A of the Iowa Fifteenth regiment—not by the ladies of Keokuk, but by six of them, a patriotic little band. The regiment had been camped out on Grand avenue for some time, awaiting orders. We had planned a grand presentation, but before the day arrived for this, the order came from the war department admitting of no delay. Nothing daunted, the faithful half dozen arose with the dawn, gathered flowers in the rain and with them and the beautiful flag, hurried down to the wharf where the fine steamboat Jennie Dean was crowded with the boys in blue, just ready to start south. It seemed that the entire population was there to see them go, but a way

NEW YORK, June 15.—Today as yesterday, the market for exchange on London held the center of the financial stage. From yesterday's closing rate of $4.77½ the astonishing decline occurred today to $4.76½, with even that rate purely nominal—a movement which reflected complete demoralization of that market, and what may be described as a conclusive movement, in favor of this country as against England. This rate, it will be observed, is seven to eight cents per pound sterling below the normal minimum and more than ten cents below the par of exchange; it therefore reflects a depreciation, on the usual basis of economic measurement, of nearly two percent. Nothing like this has occurred in the century past; for the abnormal decline in sterling at New York in 1873 and 1897 was due to entirely different causes. In these years, the trouble lay in New York's inability to buy sterling bills while handicapped by panic conditions at home. The difficulty now arises from London inability to sell even with New York in the best imaginable position to pay the purchase price.

“TO MY PEOPLE”

Being the Transcript of a Message given by Celestia, known to many as “The Goddess,” and the Maiden from Heaven.

LET me come into your hearts. Do not refuse me entrance. Draw close to me and listen, (You will listen) to my words whispered in your ear. I am talking to you and for you mainly. And I am come to tell you that all shall be well for you.

You may wonder why I talk to you like this—my very being here may amaze you. But there are reasons more than you know. All around you I hear voices shouting that you are lost in spirit and mind. So mistaken—what mistakes!

I say that you are good, essentially and at soul. And I know in my heart of hearts whereof I speak.

Are you troubled now even so lightly? Does your conscience gnaw? Does some petty or great misdeed recur to your imagination?

Oh! that just by reading these words, you might feel the gush of deepest emotion, such as prompts me and will make me powerful to save you.

I am brought from my heavenly home for you and to encourage you. All my years (maybe thousands) I have been waiting for this opportunity to comfort you. And I come now, not as a preacher or an Evangelist, not as a sermonizer or a lecturer, not as a writer or a player. Like my patron saint, Joan of Arc, I am here to fight the forces of evil.

Let me come into your life, your everyday existence. Let me accompany you to your shop or your office or into your kitchen. I have so much to say to you, that I am flowing over with it. I have so much to promise you, so much to give you, that all your worries and sorrows will melt away.

I have a light that dispels all darkness and it is Truth. I have a wand that causes all anguish and mourning to fade into nothingness and it is Faith. I have a magic lamp that brings your heart's desire to you, and it is Hope. I will present all to you, if you will take them.

Oh! Do not turn me into the wilderness, for you will find the wilderness yourself.
