

For Immediate Sale

Dr. George F. Jenkins' Property, Corner 7th and High Streets

This Beautiful Palatial Home is for Quick Sale at a Rare Bargain for the Purpose of Closing the Jenkins Estate.

The late Dr. George F. Jenkins spent thousands of dollars in improving this property in which he and his family have lived for many years. The architecture is unique—it has boldness and simplicity, with curved tower and attractive lines.

The dwelling is of the best material, the workmanship is by skilled mechanics, the decorations of choice and rare design. It has steam heat, has four grates, is equipped in every part for the use of gas.

It has a reception room, conservatory, parlor, sitting room, library, dining room, kitchen and clothes closets on the first floor; a sewing room, two suites of two rooms each, an extra bed room, two bath rooms, a maid's room, and numerous closets on the second floor. The outbuildings consist of a garage, a barn for horses, wash building, etc.

This is a rare opportunity to secure a residence property unsurpassed in beauty, surrounded by magnificent shade trees and flowers, and in a splendid residence vicinity.

It is two blocks from the postoffice, three blocks from the business part of the city, within easy reach of many churches in the city and near the public schools. Let us show you the property at once.

GOOD FELLOWS ASK FOR SOME CLOTHES

School Garments and Those for Men and Women Which Will Help to Keep Them Warm, Wanted.

The Good Fellows are making an appeal for clothing. They are in need of clothing for school children, and are asking the people of Keokuk to help them out in this matter. This time of year when people are getting out their winter clothes and putting away summer clothing is a good time to look and see if there is not something in the clothes closet suitable for some child or man or woman. Clothing which is worthless is not wanted, but any clothes which are still good are desired by the Good Fellows, who make use of everything sent them.

A card or telephone to Miss Dorothy Younker will insure the articles being collected. If anyone wishes, they may leave the clothing at the B. U. home.

AMUSEMENTS.

Steamer Keokuk Excursions.
The steamer Keokuk is advertising two excursions, which will without doubt be the last excursions out of Keokuk this season.

On Sunday, September 26, she will leave Keokuk at 8:00 a. m. and Warsaw at 8:30 a. m. for Quincy, and on the following day, Monday, September 27, she will leave Keokuk at 6:30 and Warsaw at 7:00 a. m. for the same place.

The attraction for both days will be the world's heavyweight champion, Jesse Willard and the 101 Ranch wild west show.

The boat has engaged good music for the occasion and the fare will be only 60 round trip.—Advertisement.

Potato Quarantine Removal.

A study which the department of agriculture has been making for some time now of the potato disease known as powdery scab, has resulted in the discovery that soil and climatic conditions limit the power of this disease to develop. In consequence the quarantine regulations, which formerly restricted interstate shipments of potatoes from Maine and two infected counties in New York, were removed September 1. These restrictions were a precautionary measure designed to protect potato growers in other states who obtained a large amount of their seed from the infected district. Recent investigations, however, indicate that the danger of infection in the central and southern states is not great. In the majority of cases the disease has failed to develop in these regions, even when it is known that infected seed has been planted.

KEOKUK MAY GET NEXT CONVENTION

State Retail Merchants May Come Here Next Year if Local Delegation Wins Out.

Keokuk will make a bid for the 1916 convention of the Iowa State Retail Merchants' association. Keokuk has a delegation at the meeting at Dubuque this week, and, according to a dispatch from that place, Keokuk is one of the possible selections for next year's meeting. Davenport, Council Bluffs and Waterloo are also after the 1916 convention.

The convention at Dubuque closes this afternoon with a final business meeting, at which officers will be selected and the next convention city chosen.

The Russians made vigorous attacks on the newly captured German positions southwest of Dvinsk, but were driven off.

"We have completely broken the Russian resistance between the region north of Oshajona and east of Subnik," the war office stated.

Another Steel Merger.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 23.—Another gigantic steel merger embracing every large independent steel company not controlled by the U. S. Steel corporation is about to be born. If persistent rumors in financial circles here today are borne out, the interests organizing the new merger are said to have already submitted a tentative plan of the consolidation to U. S. Attorney General Gregory for approval. The new steel combine would embrace the Bethlehem Steel Co., Crucible Steel, Cambria Steel, Midvale Steel, Pennsylvania Steel,

Lackawanna Steel and smaller independent concerns.
Chas. M. Schwab, according to reports, is the dominant figure in the new merger.

New Oil Field.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Sept. 23.—This city is the proud parent of the youngest oil territory in the mid-continent field and oil men from all parts to this section are swarming in. The excitement started when a test on what is known as the Alberti place developed a thousand barrel production at 2,400 feet with only six feet of the pay sand penetrated. No sooner did the Alberti well show this big production than rigs began to go up on all sides and races for further productions are now going on night and day. An electric light plant has been constructed on the field. The landscape for several miles around at night sparkles with electrical equipment.

The flow of gas at the Alberti has been so strong since the well was brought in that the drillers have not risked a try at taking the tools out or a trial at going deeper in the sand. It is considered remarkable for the flow at so shallow a puncture of the sand. The field remains undefined and there is a wild scramble for leases in every direction and fabulous prices are paid in many instances. In a scattering way the operations cover a distance of twenty-five miles along a strip of developed natural gas territory from the southwest to the northeast of this city.

No field in the west ever took on the activity in such a short time that is evidenced here and many hundreds of thousands of dollars are being spent in development with little or no certainty as to the exact lay of the pool. In the meantime Arkansas City is reaping a harvest from the speculators and business from the tent colonies in every direction. That no town should start up near its border to get the business from the oil district, the commercial club has constructed model highways to the field.

Injured by Horse.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] FAIR GROUNDS, SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 23.—Jesse McElroy, prominent Kankakee farmer, sustained a broken cheek bone this morning when he was struck by a heavy horse which he was trying to catch. He was taken to St. John's hospital.

Protection for Dumba.

Louisville Courier-Journal: Of course, Dr. Dumba should be given safe conduct, but it would be a pleasure to make part of his protection brass armor with a rear plate engraved "Kick Here."

STUDY CENTER TO BE HELD IN CITY

Teachers Will Have Opportunity to Hear Experts From State Normal School on December 4.

READING AND ENGLISH

These Will be Two Subjects to be Taken up at This Time—New Teacher is Secured for Garfield.

A study center will be conducted at Keokuk on Saturday, December 4, by two experts from the state normal department. The center is primarily for the teachers of the city. The subjects which will be dealt with this time will be reading and constructive English in the grades, and there will be two sessions during the day, in order to accommodate all of the teachers.

Superintendent Aldrich this morning announced the instructors for the study center as Ida Fesenbeck and S. A. Lynch. The schedule for the center's work will be the following: 9:30 a. m.—Reading (Illustrated)—Ida Fesenbeck. 10:30 a. m.—Constructive English in the Grades—S. A. Lynch. 1:30 p. m.—Reading—Ida Fesenbeck. 2:30 p. m.—Constructive English in the Grades—S. A. Lynch.

New Teacher is Secured. Miss Avis Ham is the newest member of the teaching force of the Keokuk public schools. Miss Ham was secured by Superintendent Aldrich to teach in the Garfield school. In order to relieve the crowded conditions in two of the rooms, an additional grade was created, and Miss Ham will be the teacher for this grade. She started on her work here Monday.

BIG LOAN DEAL IS DELAYED

St. Louis loan commissioners since last week was in progress here this afternoon. It was intimated that at the conclusion of the conference a statement might be issued.

J. P. Morgan, Frank Vanderlip, Thomas W. Lamont and other leading bankers went to the Baltimore at noon and immediately joined the conference in a secret session. It was intimated that the actual terms of the loan were being discussed.

Extra Session of Senate. WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—President Wilson has practically decided to call an extra session of the senate, it was learned from an authoritative source today. The tentative date fixed is October 18. The house will not be summoned until the regular December session.

Conviction of the president that the United States is now reasonably safe from being drawn into the war, its neutrality being firmly established, was stated today as the deciding factor in the plan for an extra session of the upper house. "Jingo" speeches or inflammatory resolutions, the administration is now convinced, cannot endanger this country's neutrality.

The extra senate session, it was said, however, depends on the developments of this country's international disputes in the next two weeks. If the German submarine question is satisfactorily settled and no new crises arises, the administration believes an extra session of the senate desirable. Limitation in the call for an extra session of the subject which the senate may consider is planned at present. The subjects to be considered would include a cloture or "debate gagging" rule and the Nicaraguan and Columbian treaties.

Majority Leader Kern today stated he favored an extra session unless war developments prevent.

Marooned in America. WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Austrian Ambassador Dumba is marooned. He must stay in this country until his government complies with the request for his recall. This was broadly hinted at today by high officials. That he will be allowed to return home on "leave" eventually, however, after compliance of the Austrian foreign office with this government's request, was confidently believed.

Word was expected from the Austrian government within a few days and probably before Dumba's proposed sailing next Tuesday. Notification, formal and official, from Austria that Dumba is being recalled even on "leave," officials intimated today.

A Mother's Peace.

It every expectant mother would get Mother's Friend from her druggist and would apply this wonderful external remedy and valuable help as directed, she would soon experience comfort and peace of mind. For many years this time-tried remedy has been used and strongly endorsed by experienced mothers for it is the one safe, dependable remedy that penetrates to relieve all strain on nerves, cords, ligaments and all parts involved. It makes the muscles expand naturally and stops pain.

United Press Associations Telegraph Market Report Over Gate City Leased Wire.

Grain Review. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—A shortage of September wheat and hurried covering, pending a decision by the board of trade as to whether spring wheat deliveries can be substituted, caused sharp advances early today in the local wheat market. Opening prices represented over night gains of 1 1/2, 1/2 and 1/4. Later in the day prices fell back to 105 1/4, 94 1/4 and 96 1/4, which represented recessions from the opening of 1 1/4 in each of the three active futures.

Corn prices in December and May were early affected by the wheat. Later, there being a majority on the selling side, prices declined sharply. Oats were fairly steady at yesterday's close. Provisions were inactive and lower.
