

KEOKUK WOMAN DRUGGED IN CITY

Dr. Arthur Jones of Iroquois Hospital Testifies in Case of Mary Jane Rollins in Chicago.

VISIT FOX TROT CLUBS

Woman and Her Escort Were Detained by Police There and the Case is Investigated.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Lure of the gay fox trot clubs of Chicago was dimmed for Mrs. Mary Jane Rollins, of Keokuk today. She was detained, early yesterday morning, apparently half unconscious, and removed to Iroquois hospital. Her escort, James A. Askew, of Chicago, a traveling man, was booked on a charge of disorderly conduct.
Askew, the police declared, was half carrying Mrs. Rollins toward a taxicab in the loop after they had visited several cabarets, when police of the moral squad detained them.

Mrs. Rollins said she thought she had been drugged. She just came to Chicago to see cabarets, she said.
Police Lieutenant Conroy of the moral squad, said that he was sorry he had to book Mrs. Rollins.

"She appears to be innocent," he said. "I hope she comes out all right in court, and her husband will take her back."

Mrs. Rollins is 21 and pretty. Her husband is in the stationary supply business at Keokuk and lives at the Hotel Iowa. Askew met her there while on business trips. She was staying with her sister in Evanston, while here on a visit, and made an appointment to meet Askew down town.

"The cabarets are so different from what I thought," she said today when brought to police station after treatment at hospital. "They are not nice at all, and I want to go back to Keokuk."

Askew told police he intended nothing improper and thought Mrs. Rollins was Rollins' sister.

Mrs. Rollins failed in moral court when arraigned at noon and the case continued until late yesterday afternoon. Askew testified that he entertained her on three evenings, just returning the hospitality her husband offered him in Keokuk and that there was nothing improper.

The case was continued again until this afternoon because Mrs. Rollins was too weak to testify. Dr. Arthur Jones of Iroquois hospital, testified that he believed she had been drugged.
Askew was released on $200 bond; Mrs. Rollins on her own recognizance.

The Happy Ending.
CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Leon F. Rollins, of Keokuk, Iowa, patted the cheek of his pretty little wife, Mary Jane, with one hand today, and slapped "Jim" Askew of Chicago, his friend, heartily on the back with the other.

"It's all right Jim," he said to his friend.
"But look here, young lady," he said to his wife, "if the cabarets appear to you, you're going with Leon F.
Rollins himself, hereafter."

Mary Jane cuddled up to him and said she'd rather go back to Keokuk.

Both Going Into Court.
This was the "live happily ever afterward" ending of Mary Jane's trip to Chicago and her visit to the loop cafes under Askew's protection, in which she admitted she drank a few highballs that went to her head.

"Askew's a friend of mine," said Rollins. "I knew she was going to see him in Chicago. They did nothing wrong. Jim and I are going to court with Mary Jane this afternoon to explain. If there's not too much scandal back home, we're going back to Keokuk."

A personal message to The Gate City from Mr. Rollins gives assurance of his unshaken love and his utmost confidence in his wife. Naturally the affair is deeply regretted by Mr. and Mrs. Rollins, as well as by their many warm friends in this city. The affair seems to be an unfortunate ending to what was intended as a night of enjoyment—the cabaret being an amusement very common to Chicago life, in which thousands participate, but not with such undesirable results.
By the way, did you ever visit a cabaret? Don't all stand up at once.

Dreams.

18 POUNDS OF BLOOD is the average quantity in a healthy adult, but it is the quality of the blood that determines our strength to resist sickness. With weak blood we find cold hands and chilly feet; in children an aversion to study, and in adults rheumatic tendencies.

In changing seasons get abundant fresh air and take a spoonful of Scott's Emulsion after meals, because Scott's Emulsion is a rich blood-food that will increase both quantity and quality of the blood while it warms the body and helps carry off the impurities.

When multitudes of people are today taking Scott's Emulsion to avert winter sickness, and are giving it to their children, it is careless to neglect its benefits. Look out for substitutes.

HERE'S NEW VIGOR FOR OVERWORKED STOMACHS

Wilkinson & Co., the popular druggists, have been in the drug business long enough to have their own opinion of the best way of selling medicines. They say the plan adopted by Mio-na, the great dyspepsia remedy, is the fairest they have ever heard of. They don't believe that a medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good. And Miona is sold under a positive guarantee to relieve dyspepsia or to refund the money. You simply have 50 cents on deposit with Wilkinson & Co., and if after you have used the box of Miona you decide that it has done you no good, all you have to do is to tell them so and they will return your money.

Hundreds of people have been relieved of stomach agonies by using this remarkable remedy. It is not simply a food digester; it is a medicine that puts all of the digestive organs into normal condition and gives ruddy, glowing, vigorous health. A change for the better will be seen after the first few doses of Mio-na, and its continued use will soon give the power to eat anything at any time and not suffer distress afterward.

Mio-na is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. This is the strongest proof that can be offered as to the merit of the medicine.

Nothing lessens a man's success in his work or a woman's fascinating personality more than a weak stomach, with its attending evils. Use Miona and see how much more there is in life.

ASKS DAMAGES OF KEOKUK ELECTRIC

Morgan Meyers, Colored, Files Suit in Superior Court in Which He Asks for Judgment of $2,999.99.

SAYS HE WAS PUT OFF

Occurrence Was on Oldest Night of the Year and He Claims to Have Frozen Feet, Hands
and Face.

A suit for damages for $2,999.99 has been filed in the superior court by Morgan Meyers against the Keokuk Electric company. Meyers claims in his petition that he was ejected from the interurban car just after it left Warsaw on the night of January 13, when the temperature was below the zero point, and he alleges that he suffered frozen fingers and feet and ears and nose.

On January 13, 1916, plaintiff, who is colored, recites that he was in the town of Warsaw and that he desired to return to his home in Keokuk.
He boarded the interurban car at that point and was sitting near the front, he alleges. He further alleges that the conductor of the car ordered him off the car, and that no reason for this act was given. The conductor insisted and Meyers claims that he got off the car.

He then claims that the car proceeded not under its own power, but drawn by a locomotive, up the track, leaving him there.

He asserts that he was ill clad and that the temperature was 16 degrees below zero, and that he started to walk home. He enumerates his damages as frozen fingers and thumbs on both hands, the finger nails frozen so that they will come off, and some of the fingers may have to be amputated. His ears and nose and feet were frozen, he alleges, and his fingers will always be stiff. He claims that he suffered much physical pain and mental anguish and asks for damages in the amount of $2,999.99.

The original notice in the suit was filed yesterday and service was secured.

REVENUE MATTERS ARE TAKEN UP

Democrats Will Consider Income Tax, Inheritance and Other Features.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Steps towards consideration of revenue legislation were taken today by democratic leaders of the house. A meeting of the ways and means committee democrats next week was called. They will make a preliminary survey of the revenue field. Prominent members declared this initial meeting will consider four revenue subjects:

Revision of income tax.
Inheritance tax plans.
Taxation of war munitions.

Creation of a tariff commission.
While no revenue legislation except possibly a bill for a tariff board and dealing with more protection with the dye stuff industry, probably will be reported for several months, the meeting called today will be to begin work on the chief revenue problems of the session. The time for launching a resolution continuing present sugar duties may also be considered at next week's meeting.

That the majority in the house will caucus on all revenue matters, including a tariff commission bill before presented by the ways and means committee or reported to the house, was stated today by Leader Kitchin.

While the preparedness bills will be non-partisan and not subject to caucus action, the revenue bills, as matters of democratic policy and responsibility, will be subjected to the

Washing Won't Rid Head Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will entirely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

The "Wanderer's Return"

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Somebody hummed the "Wanderer's Return," at Harry Sinclair's office today while Federal club managers, presidents and players did the prodigious son act, with organized basecall in the role of father; sans, however, forgiveness and sans fatted calf. Most of the Federal prodigals, as a matter of fact, came home to a mighty slim meal.

First off, Benny Kautz, who no longer ago than Saturday was ultrabelligerent about being sold to the Giants without being consulted, was reported in a very conciliatory mood.

Manager George Stovall of the Kansas City club, Larry Schaffey, once manager of the Buffalo Federals; John Ganzel, formerly manager of the Brooklyn Federals, all were buzzing Sinclair and O. B. representatives about where they will get off.
