OLD SCHRACK'S SWINDLE,

4 "Consistent Christian" Who Pretended to be Dead to Make Money. The Philadelphia correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, gives the following details of the Schrack fraud, which has been attracting attention during a few days past 'A pious fraud has been exposed in the person of Joseph Henry Schrack, a member of the old Swede church, in this city. Schrack pretended to die, and came to life again about ten days ago. Since then he has been supported by his brethren. His case has attracted great attention, and accounts of his resurrection have been published in nearly every newspaper in the country. He pretended to have experienced the ecstasies of heaven. The church of which he is a member has investigated the case, and the result is that the pastor, who was to have administered communion to him to-day, did not come, and the attending physician has discontinued his visits.

Schrack proves to be a disreputable character, whose only notoriety heretofore was the giving of remarkable entertainments known in England as "Drags." His particular delight was to invite his own particular friends, "all men," to what he called a "Drag," an English term, "where one-half the company would be attired in women's clothes and the remainder dressed in their proper costume." A woman was never seen scoundrel, and a dangerous man to the com-munity. Concerning his trance, I really and honestly beleve that he carried this thing too far, and it was a real partial suspension of animation beyond his control, and had it not been that the cold air was allowed to circulate around the body and shock the nervous system, producing reaction, he would proba-bly have never recovered, and it would have been a good thing for the community if he had not.

The members of the old Swede church unite in the belief that Schrack had but started upon a systematic course to obtain money under false pretenses. He has told some of them, since his miraculous recovery, that an Atlantic City hotel keeper proffered him free board during all of next summer, and that an amusement manager had offered him $25,000 to exhibit himself as the dead-man-come-to-life. "But," said Mr, Schrack, "I could not accept; I am a constant Christian. Donnelly on O. Brown.

[Anti-Monopolist.]

And now it is O. Brown of the Mankato Record who is working under the pay of the book ring, and, of course, denouncing us, to prove to his employers that he is earning his money. The fact is, O. Brown has never forgiven us for telling the following anecdote about him at a public meeting held in St. "Some years since O. Brown was hang-

Here followed the climax of the story:

"Now gentlemen," said Brown, "that cow understood perfectly the nature of the service I had rendered her; her eyes were filled with gratifude, she rolled them up and proceeded to lick my hands and face."

Whereupon Severance replied, "Pshaw! that proves nothing. She thought she had teins!!"

The roar that followed was overwhelming."

A River's Freak—An Opening at Crookston.

[Crookston Journal.]

Red Lake river east of town on Saturday night last for some unknown cause suddenly, for the space of fifty feet up and down the stream, bursted the solid ice that was eighteen to twenty inches thick clear across the river leaving a clean streak of running water from shore to shore. Huge blocks of solid ice were lifted bodily and launched out upon the ice below the opening. It was a clean track of which were side, but continued to flow on its usual course undisturbed as though nothing had happened. The only cause for the sudden eruption of solid ice without a rise in the stream is the fact that at the point where the opening occurred a number of loaded teams were daily crossing with wood, and the day previous about forty cords of wood were piled on the ice, which may have been the copening occurred a number of loaded teams were daily crossing with wood, and the day previous about forty cords of wood were piled on the ice, which may have been the cause of the ice belching up in this strange way.

[New York Herald.] Colonel Ingersoll is feeding the morbid appetite of a certain class of people with in-tellectual mud pie. He has made more dis-coveries about religion than any man living. With Thomas Paine he has found out that the bible is not inspired. This result has been attained by both search and research. The methods of his research he does not give us; we must therefore give up the bible simply because the Colonel says so. We may say with Sojourner Truth, "'Pears like there must be a mistake somewhere:" but it will never do to doubt the heroic thinker who says he is willing to bet $1,000, and in gold at that, that Paine never recanted. When a man stakes his bottom dollar he must be sure of his ground, so we are reluc-tantly compelled to admit that the bible is all nonsense, and that Paine was a saint. De Kurnel says he knows it, dat de bible isn't

Dr. Cantell says now that Schrack undoubtedly had nervous spasms of the heart, but I believe they were produced by an effort of his powerful will. He is capable of preventing, to a certain extent, the full volume of air going into his lungs, and thus impairing the full action of his heart. This he can do by drawing up his shoulders, keeping his ribs stil', and making the muscles between the ribs rigid; and this I have detected by making the examination of his ribs on Saturday, which is the first time he has permitted me to do so. I found him to be a perfectly healthy man, and I believe him to be an impostor, a scoundrel, and a dangerous man to the community. Concerning his trance, I really and LONDON, Feb. 7—5 p. m.
